

PRACTICAL MILLERISM.—Extract from a letter from Portsmouth N. H.—
"You probably have heard of the death of your old acquaintance, J. H. Shortridge. He was in haste for the coming of our Savior, and being a full believer in the doctrines of Miller, mounted a high tree with his ascension robe on and attempted to make his flight to Heaven, but landed on the earth and broke his neck."

"John Tilton was something similar in his career. He always believed he could fly, and undertook it one day from a barn top, and soon reached a dung heap much bruised. Tilton said the flying was pleasant: it was only the lightning hurt him."

Within the past two weeks, says the Georgia Journal, we have heard of no less than three convictions for murder, viz: one in Lumpkin, a father for killing his son, another in Green for killing his brother-in-law, and another in Winnett of a man for killing his overseer. In the last case the killing took place about six years since; the murderer fled to Texas, but last year, having returned to Kentucky, was arrested, brought to Georgia, and tried last week.

MR. VAN BUREN.
At a convention of the Democratic members of the Massachusetts Legislature Mr. Van Buren was nominated as the choice of the Democracy of Massachusetts for the next Presidency.

Mr. Etheridge, an overseer on Mr. Cannon's plantation, four miles below Randolph, Tennessee, had his brains beaten out with an axe, a few days since, by a negro. The negro seized Etheridge while in the act of whipping him, whereupon Etheridge shot him through, when the negro seized an axe, and killed him.

INDIAN COUNCIL.—The Van Buren (Ark) Intelligencer states that there is to be a General Council of all the Indian tribes, held at Tah-le-quah, Cherokee Nation. The object of the Council is to promote peace and harmony among the different tribes.

Hon. THOMAS SHANNON, formerly a member of the Ohio Senate of Belmont county, and brother of the Governor, died on the 16th inst. at his residence in Barnesville.—Cin. Message.

SPARE MINUTES.—Spare minutes are the gold dust of time; and Young was writing a true, as well as a striking line, when he affirmed that—"Sands make the mountains, moments make the year." Of all the portions of our life, the spare minutes are the most fruitful in good or in evil. They are the gaps through which temptation finds the easiest access to the garden.

That "light in the west" has nearly disappeared.

Mesmerism is all the rage in Baltimore just now.

A daughter of Mr. Robert Newcom, aged 9 years, was so severely burnt, on Thursday afternoon last, by her clothes taking fire, that she died before daylight next morning. At the time of the accident, the mother was at church, and the father engaged at his work away from home. It is supposed that a spark from an open fire communicated the flame to her clothing.—Dayton Journal.
