

THE ANTI-SLAVERY BUGLE.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The HARRIS Bill was under discussion last week in the U. S. Senate. Of course, that body has no intention of passing the bill, but it afforded some of the slaveholders an opportunity to vent their spleen against foreigners.

COL. SUTTLE.

Does not think that the Mayor of Boston expressed the proper alacrity in aiding him to capture Burns. So it appears from the following letter addressed to the Alexandria Gazette:

LETTER FROM COL. SUTTLE. To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:— I see by the newspapers that resolutions have been passed in several of the counties of Virginia, in favor of the course of Mayor Smith of Boston.

SLAVERY IN KANSAS.

John Grady, a citizen of Wayne County, has written to the Kansas Territory Journal, that he writes to the Canton Transcript, June 25th, that a Slave holding Junta have determined not to permit any anti-slavery people to settle in that Territory.

Mr. Vandersee, Indian Agent among the Iowas and Kickapoo, about thirty miles west of St. Joseph, has heard that an agent for a free soil company, was in St. Joseph, who intended to locate a white township in Kansas, where there were from Ohio and Pennsylvania, and that there were twenty thousand emigrants from Massachusetts.

Therefore this fellow and his gang ordered the agent out of the territory, under the pretext of lynching, but the man fearlessly finished his business.

Mr. Grady says that Vandersee ordered him out of Kansas with all freesoilers and abolitionists, in the most indignant manner, and that the freesoilers and abolitionists in the Territory are poor people and should vote against the introduction of slavery.

He says that every emigrant is closely questioned as to his political sentiments, and freesoilers are not allowed to enter the Territory, unless they are willing to swear that they will vote against slavery if he is introduced with free-soilism.

LETTER FROM A SETTLER IN KANSAS. KANSAS TERRITORY, Saratoga, July 17, 1854.

DEAR SIR: The effects of the unwise and wicked legislation of Congress in relation to this Territory are fast being developed. Meetings have been held in various parts of Missouri and resolutions passed that no Anti-Slavery man should hold claims in Kansas.

Now, what are the facts? A slaveholding Senator sends a private dispatch to his friends to take possession of all the desirable places, who instantly take this as a hint, and go to Washington, generally select the best lands and form themselves into a combination to prevent competition at the public sales, and to prevent the settlement of anti-slavery men among them.

There will be no efforts to establish Slavery in Nebraska; it lies, as you know, north of Missouri, and adjoining Iowa. It is a cold barren region, except a narrow strip along the Missouri River.

A correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows: WHITEHORSE, (Kansas Territory,) July 1, 1854.

I have concluded to send you a line from this distant region, to let your readers know how our progress is in this new country. The amount of immigration in the way of men and cattle is surprising. Thousands and thousands are pouring in from all portions of the Union, but more especially from Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee.

THE CANADIAN VIEW OF ANNEXATION.—The Toronto Globe, commenting upon the proposition of Lord Ellenborough, to close the connection between Canada and Great Britain, speaks of Canadian views of annexation as follows: "They view with the utmost aversion anything like a proposition for the severance of the connection with the mother country."

TRIAL OF THE NORTHRUP KIDNAPPERS.

SARATOGA, Wednesday, July 12, 1854. The trial of the alleged kidnapers of Solomon Northrup resumed this morning at Saratoga. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the prisoners, and they were discharged.

A stage driver remembered seeing Merrill at Saratoga in 1841, and described his appearance. Remembered hearing that Solomon was being hired to go South by Merrill and another.

The District Attorney contended that the crime was being committed as long as Northrup was held in Slavery, and the statute of limitation would only run from the time he was liberated.

Solomon has commenced suits for damages against both parties, and they have been held to bail in the sum of $5,000 each.

THE MONSIEUR.—A person would be amazed, interested and amused were he to pay a visit to the Missouri Territory. It looks like a great city built up in the beautiful prairie south of town, and the number of tents placed out in regular order, gives one some idea of the multitude congregated together.

AN INCIDENT IN THE LATE SLAVE PROSECUTION. The editor of the Trumpet, Rev. Thomas Whittemore, "looked upon," as did almost everybody else, the late Burns fugitive prosecution.

EXPANSION OF SUMMER.—The National Era, in reply to the Albany Atlas, which letter paper entirely discredits the rumor that some Senators seriously contemplated an attempt to expel Mr. Sumner from the Senate, for declaring that he would not assist in re-enslaving, says: "When we heard that a project for the expulsion of Mr. Sumner was under consideration among some Senators, we scouted the report as simply ridiculous; but there is no limit to the insolence and folly of some men. On inquiry, we learned that such a project was seriously entertained. With whom it originated, and by what means it was introduced, we do not know; but we do know that it was in contemplation among some of the Slavery Propagandists and their allies in the Senate, to propose a resolution to expel Mr. Sumner, and we know of at least one Democratic Senator, so-called, who declared his purpose, if it were brought forward, to vote for it."

REVIVAL OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—The National Era, a Democratic journal, thus discourses on the subject of the African slave trade: "If there be, as a contemporary states, a growing disposition in this country to withdraw its position from the African slave trade, and refer it to the enterprise of our merchants, we are confident that it is to be found north, south, of Mason and Dixon's line."
