ROGER PRYOR ON THE SLAVE TRADE.

Roger Pryor, the able editor of the "Richmond South," attended the recent Southern Convention, and made a long and effective speech against the re-opening of the slave trade with Africa.

ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE A RUNAWAY SLAVE.

About two weeks ago a valuable slave escaped from the residence of his master, near Lexington, and handbills were freely scattered, offering a reward of $400 for his safe return.

IN CAUCUS TOGETHER.

The people may know what confidence in the professions of the Anti-Slavery Democrats in Congress when we inform them that with the exception of Harris of Illinois, they all went into caucus with the Leconte men, and nominated and elected an avowed Leconte man for Door Keeper of the House.

BEHIND THE AGE.

Mr. Leonard made a successful balloon ascension from Montgomery, Ala., last week. He states that while "up," and at a short distance from the earth, he was struck three times by a Minnie rifle—in the hands of some one who probably took the aerial navigator for a monstrous "manbat," and no doubt a descendant of the family which ran out to stop the first high pressure steamboat they saw going down the river, mistaking it for a runaway saw mill.

ANOTHER SLAVE TRIUMPH.

It will be seen by the resolutions of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South that they have voted to expunge the rule forbidding the buying and selling of men, and thus the corrupting and polluting influence of slavery, the fountain of Christian faith, in order to build up its class interest. Madison would not permit the slave in the Constitution, but these clerical gentlemen are fearful that the rule may be "constructed" as antagonistic to the institution of slavery, and therefore ought to be expunged.

THE CAPTURE OF THE COCKER, KINGSTON, (JAM.)

The most important intelligence of the fortnight is the arrival at Port Royal of a slave, which was captured on the 10th inst., off Havana, by Her Majesty's ship, the "Cocker," commanded by Lieut. Henry Davis, of the naval authorities.
