

THE GREENVILLE JOURNAL

"EXCELSIOR."

VOL. 85—Established 1832.

GREENVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1916.

No. 4

What is Said of Harry M. Daugherty.

Columbus, O., July 24.—There has been a very generous and hearty disposition shown on the part of many of the Republican newspapers of Ohio in behalf of the candidacy of Harry M. Daugherty for the nomination as United States Senator. This has proven one of the potent and helpful factors in the campaign which he is making.

As a recognition of the assistance which these papers are giving and an appreciation on the part of Mr. Daugherty as to their help some of the expressions printed in his behalf are given below:

On July 13, the Gallipolis Weekly Journal and the day Myron T. Herrick was to appear there and deliver an address, said in its editorial columns:

"Hon. Myron T. Herrick will be here this evening and deliver an address. He is touring the state in the interest of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. He is an able and worthy gentleman. Many signal honors have been won by him. He made a name for himself and acquired great wealth as a banker. As governor of Ohio and ambassador to France he rendered his state and nation conspicuous and noteworthy public service. He should be tendered a cordial and hearty reception here.

"Mr. Herrick, in our opinion, might add greatly to his fame if, in the course of his address this evening he would say, 'I am deeply appreciative of the many great honors that have been extended to me by the Republicans of Ohio. I have everything that money can buy, and I have millions of money more than I can spend. I am not going to ask for anything more at your hands. Northern Ohio Republicans should join those of other parts of the state and select a southern Ohio or central Ohio man for U. S. Senator. Such a man is Harry M. Daugherty. His location is good, and he has the ability and energy and determination to make good in the U. S. Senate just as he has made good everywhere that duty has called him. While we rejoice that the party is re-united for an old-time victory in November, let us not forget that Daugherty saved the Republican party of Ohio. He fought as no other party leader in Ohio has fought to preserve the organization, under difficulties and discouragements that were so overwhelming that many of us became so disheartened that we didn't help him in the hour of his need. Ever since then and for a long time before Daugherty had stood fearlessly for what he thought was right and battled unceasingly for Republican men and Republican measures. But no substantial honor has ever been conferred on him by our party. However, it is not too late. In August let us nominate, in November let us elect for U. S. Senator the frank, fearless, dashing and gallant Daugherty."

The Pomeroy Leader in its issue of July 13, after saying that both Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Herrick are men eminently fitted for the office of United States Senator, adds "There are reasons, however, why we think the Republicans of Ohio should nominate Harry M. Daugherty. Any objection which a Republican may have to Mr. Daugherty applies with equal force to Mr. Herrick.

"We admire Mr. Daugherty because for more than 25 years he has been loyally, faithfully, courageously, uncompromisingly fighting in the ranks of the party. His ability, his worthiness, his unimpeachable character, his fidelity to party principles and party success entitle him to success. As we see it he should have the high office he seeks unopposed. But since he must contest for the place the Republicans of Ohio should rise to the righteousness of their opportunity and see to it that Harry M. Daugherty is nominated by a decisive majority.

"We like Harry M. Daugherty for his warmth, his cordiality, his approachableness. His generous sympathy and gracious manner make you feel at home in his presence. If the plain people of Ohio want to place the senatorial toga on one of their own number they can do it by nominating Harry M. Daugherty."

On the same date the Fostoria Daily Review speaks of Mr. Daugherty in most kindly terms and commends his candidacy. It says: "Ohioans this year will have the opportunity of sending to the United States Senate Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus, one of the most stalwart Republicans of the state and a man who stood firm for his convictions in 1912 when as State Chairman he fought the hardest fight in the party's history to save the Republicans from running third and pulled the G. O. P. through with flying colors.

"To know Mr. Daugherty is to love him; he is the same today, yesterday and for years to come. He is a student of human nature and always insists on looking a man in the eye and having the same done with him.

"Kind, charitable to a degree, always ready, willing, and anxious to do a good turn for one in need, is the enviable reputation of Mr. Daugherty. His many acts towards friends stand as monuments to him over the entire state of Ohio.

"The Review is more than pleased to endorse Mr. Daugherty's candidacy for the United States Senate on the Republican ticket."

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Subscribe for the Journal

Savona.
No doubt the Journal readers are wondering what has become of the pencil pusher of Savona. For fear that our absence will cause too much worry this hot weather we will compose ourselves as comfortably as the conditions will permit and try to redeem the past delinquency by giving such information of the happenings hereabouts as we can.

Rev. Michael and family just recently made a visit with Dayton, O., relatives and incidentally attended the wedding of their son Glen at that place.

The little son of O. B. Karn and wife has been quite sick for the past few days, also the little daughter of W. E. Michael and wife, but both are better at this writing and apparently are on the way to complete recovery.

Mrs. H. W. Bowen spent a few days last week with relatives in Indiana.

Lewis Viets of Dayton is visiting his parents, O. D. Viets and wife.

H. W. Bowen, our new elevator man, seems to be making good in this place and judging from the activities at his place of business we would say he is the right man in the right place.

B. H. Clay and family entertained company to dinner Sunday.

J. W. Ashbaugh and wife entertained friends from Burkettsville Sunday.

H. W. Bowen and wife entertained friends from Indiana Sunday.

We are very glad to see so many of the young people at the Christian Endeavor services each Sunday evening, but it seems to us that it would be very appropriate, as well as encouraging to the young people, if more of the older folks would attend, especially members of the church. When some people begin to be somewhat advanced in age they apparently think that the Endeavor is only for the young. We grant that it is essentially a young people's service, but it is a service for training, and the young should have the support and presence of older workers for guidance and advice. Therefore we think it would be better for them to be present and assist in any way they can.

July 24. Bess.

Why Endure Summer Colds?

It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off as it were. All you need do is to use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The soothing and healing balsams open the clogged air passages and in a short time you get relief and start on the road to recovery. Your nose stops running, you cough less and you know you are getting better. Get a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left as a cough and cold insurance.

—Adv

See Clubbing List

Palestine.
Messrs. Carl Jeffers, Jesse Rush and Therrill Stephens, Misses Inez Cole, Louvera Stover and Eunice Wilcox have returned home from the summer term of school at Oxford, O.

Mrs. Garner of Amanda, Ohio, is visiting at Dr. Cronley's.

T. J. Wilson and wife visited Eli Wilson's at Greenville Sunday afternoon.

George Puterbaugh and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Hiper last Sunday.

Candidates for nomination on the various tickets are shaking hands and smiling all 'round at present.

Ephraim Hill and wife received notice of the death of George Hill, a brother, at Richmond, Ind. The interment will be at Hollansburg this afternoon.

Some people are always watching for faults and failings in the Orders. Are there none who need propping up in the church fold?

July 24. FROM PALESTINE.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Cockroaches: Ancient and Modern.

"The cockroach is the most widespread of insects, both in point of time and of space," declared Wencil J. Kostir of the department of zoology of the Ohio State University, in his talk before the Biology Club last week. "Their fossils," he continued, "have been found in layers of rock that were exposed as surface long before the age of man. They antedate even the amphibians and early reptiles."

The term cockroach was derived from the Spanish word cucaracha, according to Mr. Kostir. The name blackbettle commonly applied to the insect is erroneous.

"Cockroaches," he said, "are of all colors, those seen around dwellings being brown. The pure white are uncommon, and the bright colored ones are found usually in the tropics. Some species attain a length of two and a half to three inches. It was formerly the habit of the people of Germany to revile each other by speaking of the insect in the name applied to a certain section of Germany. For example, the people in the southern part called the cockroach Prussian, etc.

"The eye of the insect is made up of 1,800 little eyes placed side by side, each having its own nerve center. The character of the sight, it is thought, is of a mosaic nature, and not at all like that of human beings.

"The cockroach is very fond of starch, and for this reason often eats its way into books for the starch under the binding."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Read Magazine Offers Page Five of Journal.

Gettysburg.

Mrs. M. J. Coburn returned home last Friday from her extended visit to Columbus, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. L. Coburn, and baby boy.

P. B. Moul, wife and children, accompanied by I. F. Brown and wife, visited D. Moul's family at Pleasant Hill yesterday afternoon.

Rev. H. Studebaker, wife and two little girls, arrived here last Friday from Lancaster, Wis., making the trip in an auto. He is serving a Congregational church in that place and filled our M. E. pulpit yesterday morning, which met the approval of a well-filled auditorium. This morning the Reverend starts to Chicago to take a course in Bible Study, accompanied by his father-in-law, I. B. Miller.

On next Thursday the Menonite Brethren church begins its camp meeting in a grove nearby, to continue to the 6th prox. This will furnish an outing, combined with good work, for people desiring pleasure of this sort. The occasion may be made a spiritual uplift for everybody.

From the large number of candidates for nomination for the various offices to be filled by election in November, it would seem there are a good many persons willing to sacrifice themselves on the altar for the well-being of our common country. May there be a survival of the fittest.

William Seman has sold his warehouse property here to L. N. Reed for $3,000, full possession to be given April 1 next. This place will surely become a noted grain market; two more in prospect, in addition to one flouring mill. Nothing like abundant facilities to meet every want.

Miss Alma Horner of Richmond, Ind., after a week's visit here among relatives, returned home today.

R. C. Horner and wife started last week to visit their son's family in Montana, to remain from a couple to six weeks from home.

Rev. Keirn, pastor of the Bradford Presbyterian church, filled our Presbyterian pulpit yesterday morning, while Rev. Carr of this place filled Rev. Keirn's pulpit.

D. H. Zimmerman, wife and little boy, of Philadelphia, are here visiting relatives for a short time.

J. A. Horner and wife are visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Seman, at Ithaca, Mich.

Just now family reunions seem to be the order of the day and furnish an excellent opportunity for an outing for our pleasure-seeking people.

Miss Lucille Swank of Greenville spent yesterday here among relatives and friends.

Oats cutting is on and promises a good yield.

July 24. XOB

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

PROBATE COURT.

Martha Spencer, widow of Clark Spencer, elected to take under the will of her deceased husband.

Order of appraisal of real estate returned and order of public sale issued in estate of Julia A. Switzer.

Last will of George Coleman was filed for probate and record.

Sale of real estate confirmed and deed ordered made to purchaser in estate of L. E. Jones.

Last will of Ephraim Beery was filed for probate and record.

Distributive account filed in estate of B. F. Disher.

Petition filed to sell personal property at private sale and order of sale issued in estate of Earce E. Shuff.

Elizabeth Hart was committed to the Dayton State Hospital.

Sale bill filed in estate of L. E. Jones.

First and final account filed in estate of Margaret Lytle.

Dora House was committed to the Dayton State Hospital.

Application filed for the appointment of an administrator of estate of Magdalena Bowers. Last will of decedent filed for probate and record.

Sale bill filed in estate of Earce E. Shuff.

Order of private sale of real estate returned in estate of Julia Switzer.

First and final account filed in guardianship of Magdalena Bowers.

Petition filed to sell real estate to pay debts in estate of Sophia A. Weaver.

Petition filed to sell real estate in guardianship of Jesse W. Bromagem.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

NEW CASES.

20892—C. C. Fisher and others versus The J. A. Long Company of Union City; to enjoin the discharging of sewage, &c., into a certain stream.

20893—Hester S. Roath versus Roy T. Roath; for divorce; adultery and extreme cruelty charged.

20894—Wm. Thomas versus Mary Thomas; for divorce, adultery and gross neglect charged.

20895—B. W. Jones and others versus Waldo Baker; on a cognovit note.

20896—Alva L. Hart versus James C. Mitchell and Frank U. Schreel; to recover $200, &c.

20897—Rachel Williamson versus Leonard Marker, individually and as administrator of estate of Rhoda Reed; to recover $271.20.

20898—Farmers' State Bank of Redkey, Ind., versus John A. Tooman and others; to recover the sum of $1294.10.

20899—In the matter of James H. Drill; habeas corpus.

REGISTER OF DEEDS.

W. O. Miller to Charlene M. Searle, a small tract in Ansonia, $350.

Harry D. Bender to Anna J. Forry, 27 acres in Adams town-

HOT SHOT FROM LENTZ TO POMERENE

Columbus (Special) Hon. John J. Lentz, Former Congressman, Issues an Open Letter to Allice Pomerene as Follows:

Columbus, Ohio, 12th July, 1916.
To the People of Ohio:
On the 2nd of June I filed my certificate of candidacy for the United States Senate on the Democratic ticket, since which time I have been entirely surrounded with the business of the American Institute and the building of the new building of the Ohio State House of Representatives. During the last five weeks Allice Pomerene has been busy with the assistance of some of her appointees who are violating at his request, the civil service regulations governing postmasters and other federal employees by sending a message of slander and insult to the Ohio State House of Representatives. I have been attacked upon Mr. Monnett and myself, claiming that Pomerene is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives" to "leave the gates of the Republic to swing open to the Ohio State House of Representatives and German-American and German-American." He further represents that President Wilson is "too good" a Democrat to suit our use. He charges us both with a purpose "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives with having assumed the role of a rebel ally to the Republican party" and "to encourage the Ohio State House of Representatives