E. C. White, a brother of C. M. White of this city, died in his home in Hillgrove at two o'clock last Monday morning, following an illness of several months. He was 67 years old and leaves his wife and four daughters—Mrs. Alva E. Binkley and Mrs. George Straight of this city, Mrs. Henry Potts of Arcanum and Mrs. Dr. W. A. Layer of Castine.

Perry Zindorf, 27 years old, son of P. C. Zindorf of this city, died Sunday morning in Richmond, Ind., following an operation for appendicitis a week previous at Reid Memorial hospital. He had resided in Richmond some eight years, where he married, and leaves his wife, three-year-old child and mother in Richmond, and his father in this city. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Richmond, where burial was also made.

Joseph Zimmerman, a brother of the late Daniel Zimmerman of this city, died in the County Infirmary Sunday morning, where he and his aged wife had been taken a few days ago, being unable to care for themselves. He was born in Pennsylvania September 9, 1835, and was 81 years old at the time of his death. No children survive him. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at Abbottsville church, and burial made in the adjoining cemetery.

The County Budget Commission, composed of Auditor Garrison, Treasurer Stoltz and Prosecutor Porter, on Saturday forenoon adjusted the disagreement between the city and the school board as to the division of the tax rate of 7.58 mills allowed the two districts, by awarding the city 3.73 mills and the schools 3.85 mills. The school authorities had been holding out for 4.10 mills, to which the city authorities would not consent. Even with the money raised for each by this tax rate both will have to exercise great economy in the management of affairs and cut down expenses to the minimum. The school authorities contend that the money raised by this levy of 3.85 mills will not be sufficient to meet their requirements for the school year.

The first well developed case of infantile paralysis reported in this county was in the family of Lee Knoll at Coletown, when his daughter, Pearl Knoll Orrison, came home last week from Celina, where she had been working, bringing her young child with her, which was sick. An investigation by Township Health Officer Burnett proved the child was afflicted with the disease, the right side of its body and face being paralyzed. He at once placed the family under quarantine and reported the case to the state authorities. The child is said to be improving and it is thought will recover, although it is likely to always be paralyzed. As a result of this case the schools at Coletown were not opened Monday, the trustees postponing the opening indefinitely. It was at first thought it would not hinder the opening of the fall term of school, but many patrons absolutely refused to send their children, hence the action of the school trustees.

The act of October 22, 1914, providing for adhesive stamps, has been repealed, effective after midnight September 8, 1916. It will, therefore, not be necessary to stamp any documents issued or executed after that time. This will apply to bonds, debentures or certificates of indebtedness, certificates of stock, transfers of stock certificates, agreements of sale, promissory notes, express receipts and bills of lading, telegraph and telephone messages, indemnity or other bonds, certificates, brokers contracts, conveyances, deeds, insurance policies, passage tickets, powers of attorney and protests. In short, on and after September 9, 1916, it will not be necessary to affix documentary or proprietary stamps to any paper or article issued or shipped on and after the above date. Persons having in their possession any documentary or proprietary stamps may make application to Frank B. Niles, Collector, Toledo, O., for blank upon which to make claim for redemption of unused stamps.

WILSON ADMITS HE PRECIPITATED WAR

When Mr. Wilson forgets himself he admits that we have been at war. For example, on May 11, 1914, in an address over the dead marines at the navy yard in Brooklyn, he said that the marines had been engaged in "a war of service." A war of service to whom or to what? Certainly not to the United States, nor to Mexico, nor to humanity at large. Was it to Mr. Wilson? From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.

President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, not once, but repeatedly, made attacks on American towns and killed American citizens and mutilated them in September, 1915.

Yet on Oct. 19, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his same secretary of state, formally announced to Carranza's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive.

President Wilson thus recognized the government which, his own secretary of state declares, had been less than a month previously engaged in repeated assaults upon American soil, the government at whose head was General Carranza, who, less than two months previously, on Aug. 2, 1915, had contemptuously refused to pay any heed to any representations of President Wilson on behalf of mediation, saying that "under no consideration would I permit interference in the internal affairs of Mexico." President Wilson did not merely kiss the hand that slapped him in the face. He kissed that hand when it was red with the blood of American men, women and children who had been murdered and mutilated with, as President Wilson, through his secretary of state, says, "ruthless brutality." From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

(N. Y.) SUN STROKES.

Roger Sullivan steps aside—News-paper headline.

Students of Democratic politics know what a thin line divides stepping aside and sidestepping.

The Democrats seem to realize, to their dismay, that if they can't persuade Mr. Hughes to change from plaintiff to defendant the case is lost.

The president "will not take the stump," but "will accept invitations to speak at different places." Chairman Vance McCormick is as Machiavellian as a musketeer.

It is not what Wilson has kept us out of but what he's got us into that counts at present.

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING.

In March last Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing. He was at the head of Mexican soldiers, whose arms and munitions had been supplied to them in consequence of Mr. Wilson's reversing Mr. Taft's policy and lifting the embargo against arms and munitions into Mexico. They attacked Columbus, New Mexico, and killed a number of civilians and a number of United States troops. On the next day the president issued an announcement that adequate forces would be sent in pursuit of Villa "with the single object of capturing him." On April 8th, the announcement was made from the White House that the troops would remain in Mexico until Villa was captured. It was furthermore announced in the press dispatches from Washington that he was to be taken "dead or alive." Fine words! Only—they meant nothing. He is not dead. He has not been taken alive. From Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Mr. Wilson during the past few days has become such a life long opponent of the pork barrel that he is almost sorry now he didn't veto some of those bills.

Secretary McAdoo warns Treasury employees against too much political activity, and if they don't disobey the order they are likely to be bonced.

A HEARTLESS ADMINISTRATION

This administration has displayed no more feeling of responsibility for the American women who have been raped and for the American men, women and children who have been killed in Mexico than a farmer shows for the rats killed by his dogs when the hay is taken from a barn. And now the American people are asked to sanction this policy in the name of peace, righteousness and humanity.

From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

SACRIFICED COUNTRY'S HONOR AND INTEREST

Mr. Wilson's defenders say he "has kept us out of war." As a matter of fact, his policy in Mexico has combined all the evils of feeble peace with all the evils of feeble war. He has secured none of the benefits of war, but he has not avoided war. He has sacrificed the honor and the interests of the country, but he has not received the thirty pieces of silver.

From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.
