CHICAGO, July 1.—An explosion of a Northwestern road crushed into a farmer's wagon at Maywood, a small village near this city, Saturday night, killing August Maitlenour instantly and fatally injuring his brother-in-law, Fred Liebendorfer, and a young boy, Fred Reddy, a passenger coach in the Northwestern yards at Wyandotte and killed instantly. The boy was carrying a wash boiler over his head and did not see the train backing out of the yards.

THE Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road has issued a sweeping notice that it will not only put in effect the rates fixed by the Railroad Commission in relation to Wichita, but will also apply the same rates to all the larger towns of Kansas on its line. The announcement was made on the strength of a telegram from Chicago to Wm. Strong, and the necessary thirty days' notice has been issued from the general offices at Topeka. The order is to take effect at once. The order is to take effect at once. The order is to take effect at once.
