HOISINGTON.

From the Dispatch.

H. T. Lamon has had a building erected on the Carlander corner.

Rev. L. D. Barr is building a roomy one story residence on South Green street.

It is said that several new residences will be erected in town soon. We need them badly enough.

Henry Huttman, formerly a resident of Barton county, is the fusion candidate for representative in Sedgwick county.

D. J. Lewis left this week on an extensive pleasure trip. He goes to different cities of the east and about October 1st will sail from New York to South Wales, Great Britain, the home of his youth.

Harry Smith has returned to Barton county and will remain permanently. Harry has been working in the railroad office at Formosa, Jewell county, but is of the opinion that farming in Barton county is a better job.

Wm. T. Bannister gave us a friendly call Saturday. He is doing nicely in his meat market at Great Bend. Will told us of the arrival of a new boy at his home a few weeks ago which makes him a pair. He still has a hankering for the north part of the county and retains his Albion township farm on which he will put out 200 acres of wheat this fall.

FOR SALE—A good farm. Inquire of J. H. JENNISON.

ELLINWOOD.

From the Leader.

Miss Clara Johnson has again accepted a position as book keeper at the Cyclone.

S. S. Birchfield will soon leave for Oklahoma, where he intends to make his future residence.

BORN—To William Panning and wife, Tuesday afternoon, a bouncing boy of regular weight.

At Lyons Monday afternoon, Clyde Ackley of Ellinwood, and Miss Madge Robinson of Chase, were united in marriage.

It would make a Philadelphia lawyer hustle to keep track of the property sales and families moving around in Ellinwood this fall.

S. F. Belt has sold one of his farms, near the Cheyenne bottoms, and has bought a quarter section in Stafford county. He expects to move to his new farm late in the fall.

L. D. Kuch has sold his farm north of town to Reinhard Galford who has recently moved on to the place. Mr. Koch bought property about seven miles south of Raymond where he will have a much better chance for farming and stockraising.

Some snak entered John Ludwig's house Monday, during his absence at Great Bend, and stole a number of articles, including a pair of John's pants. The thief was very considerable, however, and left his own old pants, in place of the good pair he swiped.

! Aufgepaßt!

Farmers: Sprecht bei Dissenbacher dem Schneider vor bringt Euer Tuch welches Ihr gekauft und ich werde Euch, Anzüge aller Art daraus anfertigen.

Ed. Tyler is taking the city school census.

Regular monthly meeting of the city council next Monday night.

Peter Brack says his flat irons are "a good thing" to "push along."

Dr. Lightfoot has apparatus for treating Catarrh, Bronchitis, Hay fever and all diseases of the nose, throat and lungs, by the aid of compressed and medicated air. He invites all so afflicted to come and see his methods.

As an evidence of how Kansas is prospering under a populist administration, a young lady tells us she knows three young ladies in Great Bend who are wearing diamond engagement rings.

A. R. Moss of the Star grocery visited Hutchinson Monday, and attended the Buffalo Bill show. Mr. Moss says that a Great Bend crowd will discount a Hutchinson crowd any day, for good looks and prosperous appearance.

Bob Brown, foreman and overseer for the Koen Ditch Co. has a lot of horses, ponies and mules for sale. The stock can be seen at the ranch, southwest of town, and Bob says he will make prices that will make the stock go.
