

We carry the largest and best assorted stock of Buggies, Surries, and Spring Wagons in the county.

The White Lily

White Lily Washers wash lily white. This washer has all the parts that are necessary for a first class washer.

Will C. Free

The best family Sewing Machine ever built. Don't buy until you examine this machine.

HOT WEATHER NECESSITIES

STONE LINE

An excellent preserver of food with economical consumption of ice. Perfect system of circulation, keeping provision chamber cold, dry and wholesome. Handsomely finished case.

Constructed on scientific principles, built to give superiority in general, construction, convenience and refrigeration. Removable ice chamber, grates, shelves and waste pipe.

White Mountain Refrigerator

The Quik-an-Ezy Washer

Has no equal in any manner, shape or form, and none can be compared with it. It is truly in a class by itself.

The Reliable

The Reliable Gasoline stove is constructed according to the safety requirements of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, and are on their list of permitted stoves.

COLUMBIA VAPOR STOVES

No Smoke in Lighting
No Waste of Gasoline
Easy to Operate
Absolutely Safe

The New Iowa

The New Iowa is the machine to buy. We guarantee it to skim closer, run easier, and last longer than any other cream separator manufactured.

The Great Bend Hdw. & Imp. Co.

"AT THE BUSY CORNER"

Wednesday Writings

L. E. Wickes was out west Tuesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Thels visited at Ellinwood today.
Art Cook and Tom Hudson visited at Ellinwood today.
W. L. Curtis, of Seward, came in from Kansas City this morning.
Glen Quinn went to Little River this morning on business.
Mrs. C. A. Weltmer returned from Hutchinson Tuesday evening.
J. G. Hill spent Tuesday in Hodgeman county on land business.
I. A. Steiner, of New York, is visiting with Marx & Berscheidt today.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Soden are the parents of a fine baby girl, born this morning.
H. C. Talbot came in from an eastern visit and business trip Tuesday evening.
Judge Charles Lobbell, of Larned, was here this morning on his way home.
Mr. Warren is here from Pollard for a few days visit with M. L. Goodwin and family.
James G. Smith returned from Cimarron Tuesday after a visit of several days.
Miss Josie Hainline went to Ellinwood this morning and will visit with friends in Logan.
Canton list of farm implements have merits that should commend them to our best farmers, who are buying for their summer and fall work. Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.

W. F. Seward was in from the farm today and made us a call. Billy says there is nothing like living down on the farm.
For harvest supplies see the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
Aug. Shriwise, formerly of Hoisington, returned to his home at Colorado Springs Tuesday after a visit with relatives here.
The improvement committee is having some good work done on William Avenue, between Forest and Lakin.
Mrs. Alec Keller is home from Pawnee Rock after a few days visit with Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence.
The Lightning churn is the best, makes butter in two or three minutes. For sale by Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
The Great Bend High School will play the St. John High School a game of ball at St. John next Friday, and a return game will be played here Monday, the 25th.
Mr. and Mrs. Charley Walker went to Wichita Tuesday evening after a short visit here with Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. G. W. Nimocks and family.
Frank Roesser, Sr., of Clarin, came in from Hodgeman county Tuesday evening. Mr. Roesser says although it seems pretty dry out there the soil is wet enough to plant corn. He is well pleased with his investments there.
Going to paint? Then see us for the celebrated Patton's Sun Proof paint, guaranteed for five years. Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.

Bert Carder is up from Hutchinson.
Glenn McDougal was at Albert today.
Max Moore spent the day at Garfield.
Claude Pucket is here from Hutchinson today.
W. N. Proctor of Emporia is here on business.
H. O. Klyman was here from Kansas City Tuesday.
A. B. Clark of Stafford was here today on business.
R. Adams and Bert Hickman are here from Seward.
John L. Beightle went to Hutchinson this morning.
The new way gasoline engines are the best. Be sure and look the new Way over at the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.'s before you buy an engine.
J. A. and Ira Hoge were in from the south this morning.
Peter Kimpler was a visitor from Ellinwood Tuesday evening.
John Cook and Will Ewalt returned from the east Tuesday evening.
The Snow steel lawn swing is an ornament to any lawn and will not rattle and fall to pieces like a wooden swing. This is the swing that will last a lifetime. The Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.

Frank Wilson and Frank Porter went to Hutchinson this morning.
Ed Pusey of the Santa Fe is at work again after a few days lay off.
James W. Clarke will make the Decoration day address at Galatia.
Mrs. Frank McInnes and daughter went to Lindsborg today for a visit.
Mrs. Disney and son, Edgar Disney were here from Hoisington today.
Fred Roehr is up from Hutchinson on business and is visiting old neighbors.
Rust Proof tanks take the lead over all others. With B. M. C. Rust Proof tanks we give a written guarantee to not rust through in five years Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
Frank Mauler and wife and Miss Anna Bahr were visitors from Omitz today.
Miss Rena Barnes of Buffalo returned Tuesday evening from a visit at Cimarron.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Savoy and daughter, Miss Lena were at Ellinwood today.
The Snow steel lawn swing entertains the children during vacation and keeps them out of mischief more effectively than anything yet invented. The swing is for sale by the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.

Dr. John Robinson has been elected Grand Sentinel of the order of the Eastern Star of Kansas.
If you don't see the reporter call us by phone or write in. We are always glad to get the news.
Mrs. L. E. Moses came in from Kansas City Tuesday evening for a visit with relatives.
Mrs. Chas. Rusco left this morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Dale at Hudson.
The New Diamond ball bearing mower, is the only mower having the reel adjustable to the cutter with a perfect locking device. This lawn mower you will find for sale by the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hans and Mr. and Mrs. Will Gaggleman were at Ellinwood today.
We may not get the street fair but we have two out door shooting galleries and a striking machine.
Geo. Whitcombe of Hoisington was here this morning on his way home from Chase county.
You can get Deering machines and repairs at the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
Automobile riding has some drawbacks. You have no whip to strike at the dog that runs after you and barks.

Conductor Hank Wertenberg of the Scott City branch is laying off today. Ray Tullis is out on the run.
Mrs. J. J. Anthony went to Sterling this morning for a visit with her daughter, Miss Mabel Anthony.
Mrs. Ed Durain and Mrs. L. C. Thompson of Albion left this morning for Holliday, near Kansas City for a visit.
Mrs. Lucy Speck left this morning for her home at Healy after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward and family of South Bend.
The New Diamond ball bearing lawn mower is a light running machine and is noiseless in operation. For sale by the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co.
Miss Carrie Castle went to Kansas City this morning for a visit. Miss Carrie will visit at Lawrence and Eldorado returning.
Get the chest with the chill in it—the stone white White Mountain freezer, which the Great Bend Hdw. & Imp't Co. sell.
P. C. Woodbury, county superintendent of Ford county, went home today after a short visit here. Mr. Woodbury expects to start a bank in the near future at Pawnee Rock. He was very much pleased and surprised at the amount of money on deposit in this city. Either one of our banks have more money on deposit than all the banks in Dodge City.