Pictures are the first thing you see when you go into anybody's home and the visitor usually enjoys them more than any of the other furnishings.

It is an unquestioned fact that they have an influence, second only in some cases to music, on the people in the home and so are an indication of your character as well as your taste.

We would like every person who admires good pictures to see our stock, whether they wish to buy or not.

We like to show them just as well as you enjoy seeing them and there may be a room or niche where one will just fit in.

Great Bend Furniture Co

HOISINGTON.

From The Dispatch.

A boy was born to John Kullger and wife, of Cheyenne, Monday.

J. B. Fenno is just completing his fine residence on the west edge of town. Hoisington is rapidly spreading out over territory.

A son was born to Geo. Burnside and wife Sunday, and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, of east of town Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Hunter and daughter, Edna, left last night for a two or three weeks visit with her folks at Waterloo, Iowa.

J. L. Norton is preparing to build one of the costliest homes in Hoisington. He has moved the old buildings to the west part of town and will rent it.

A. Goodwin and wife returned from Larned and McPherson yesterday. Mr. Goodwin's brother-in-law died at Larned, and they accompanied the remains to McPherson, where funeral services were held.

H. J. Webber and wife were called to Illinois last week on account of the serious illness of his brother.

Ed Gage returned Friday from an extended visit in New York, Chicago, and various other eastern points.

Mrs. Yenser is improving exceedingly fast from her severe operation of Oct. 10th at Wichita. She was removed to the home of her cousin, Mrs. E. B. Lowe, Thursday, October 27. She will be home in a few days well and strong. Her cousin expects to return with her and visit for a few days with relatives and old friends in Hoisington.

Henry Krug and Mrs. George Neidens went to Russell Monday to attend the funeral of an uncle, Jacob Krug, who died of blood poisoning at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, aged 51 years, 9 months and 23 days. Funeral services were conducted from the German Lutheran church Monday. He leaves a widow and two daughters, also a father, two brothers and two sisters, besides numerous other relatives to mourn his loss.

ALBERT ITEMS

From The Star

Willis Starr, of Scott City, a younger brother of G. F. Starr, is in the city and will assist in the erection of Mr. Starr's new house.

Frank Sieber and family drove up from Great Bend Sunday evening in their Regal car. Frank is just recovering from a very bad attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Wm. Andree and children, of Leoti, Kansas, are here visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances. They returned home last Monday.

Friday evening while Santa Fe Agent Chas. Chaddock was attending the dance at the city hall, someone, evidently in need of spirits, broke into the depot and confiscated about $80 worth of booze.

A deal was made Monday by which L. R. Boen, of Garfield, became proprietor of the Deighton Drug Store. We regret to see Mr. Deighton quit business, in our little city, as he is a fine fellow and has many friends.

Thursday evening little Melvern Parker, in some manner, started a fire in their barn. The wind was blowing quite a gale, and it might have proved serious, but was discovered before it had gained much headway.
