TO THE PUBLIC.

I desire to announce to my friends and the traveling public that I have this day assumed control of the Leland Hotel of this place. I will endeavor to make the Leland a pleasant place for my patrons, to the end that I may really deserve a liberal share of patronage from any desiring hotel accommodations. Being very anxious to make this a first class hotel I desire the favorable co-operation of all.

B. D. ALLEN, Prop'r. Iola, Kans., April 9th, 1875.

Will the new council please put the public wells in repair?

Squire Andrews of Humboldt was in town last Wednesday.

Allen proposes to make the Leland a popular place to "locate."

We wonder if our County Attorney found Tom Collins the other day?

"Low" auctions of goods "high." Gets all they're worth every time.

Allen keeps good cigars is the verdict of those who have tried them.

Osgae Mission and Garnett musical talent in our city canvassing for classes.

Rafus Perkins has gone to Seattle, W. T. Will probably return next fall.

Splendid season for putting in castor beans. Grashoppers wont hurt them.

Lyman Rhoades and Jule Rhoades started for Salt Lake the first of the week.

A car load of seed corn from Illinois has been received by the Grange Committee.

Mr. John Richards has quit carpentering and gone on to his farm east of town.

Rev. C. T. Floyd has moved into house of Wm. Richards on East Madison avenue.

Mr. Chollette has purchased and is now fencing the lots just north of his residence.

Chas. McClure accompanied by his sister started on a visit to Washington Territory last Tuesday.

The usual amount of grumbling because "the commissioners didn't allow my bill" is heard on the street.

Bowling has been setting out fruit and shade trees and otherwise beautifying and adorning his premises.

Chas. D. Briggs, auctioneer, makes things lively whenever his gentle and persuasive voice is heard to say, "going, going, gone!"

Sunday and Monday were a couple of those bleak, cold days we look for in this country in March instead of the middle of April.

John Willis has been appointed constable by the County Commissioners. John Walters was also the recipient of a similar appointment.

The township assessors met last Monday and agreed upon a basis of assessment. All will rejoice to know that it is to be a little lower than it was last year.

Messrs. Church, Hector, and Kikendal started for Washington Territory last Tuesday morning. Mr. Church and Mr. Kikendal were accompanied by their families.

The aid clothing obtained by Robt. Cook while in Ohio arrived last week after being some six weeks on the road. It has all been distributed to the local committees.

The County Clerk has just received another supply of seeds for distribution to the needy—half a bushel of sweet corn, half a bushel of peas and ten pounds of beet seed.

Rev. H. K. Muth, late pastor of the M. E. church, in this place, now of Iola, was in town this week. He has many friends ever glad to see him on our streets.—Humboldt Union.

Although perhaps our sales are not quite so great as those of New York, still we feel confident that we can successfully compete with the metropolis in the number of auction sales.

Owing to the absence of Mayor Jones, who was attending court at Erie, the city council failed to hold a meeting last Monday night. The newly elected have not been sworn in as yet.

We are under obligation to County Clerk, H. A. Needham, Attorney Bartlett, A. W. Beck, our feed store man, and Wm. Davis, clothier, for assistance in chasing the "fleeing item" this week.

James Baker, one of the parties concerned in the "saw log" case of which mention was made a couple of weeks ago—and further mention last week, was released this week on a writ of habeas corpus.

Passing up street one involuntarily stops to examine the substantial "Weith Wagon," in front of the hardware store of Hartman & Co. Weith informs us that he has two more under way. Business.

The examination of the County Treasury for the last quarter proved that the Treasurer had made a true report, and that no deficiencies existed in any of the funds. No default in Wm., you bet.

The relief committee's report which is published in another column was received in tabular form but on account of its length is somewhat condensed. It shows however how the money came and went.

J. C. Murray and W. C. Jones have been attending court at Erie this week. It must be a relief for "his excellency" to be absent from his earnest friends who are seeking appointments for the ensuing year.

Sylvia Young had a party last Wednesday evening after school and about twenty of her little friends were promptly here. The little girls were safely home by dusk and they "just had a splendid time."

The County Treasurer has been a much "interviewed" man this week—by the fortunate holders of county orders, which they have earned "by the sweat of the brow," more or less, who requested the custodian of the public funds to "come down with the stamps."

Jim Baker still languishes in the Allen county jail, but we have no doubt Sheriff Woodin sets him up good square meals through the legislature did cut down the price of board, for he is not a hard-hearted cuss by any means, and is good feeder himself.—Woodson County Post.

Some person or persons more likely, were evidently tired of walking last Monday night, and concluded to ride awhile, from the fact that they broke the fastenings of a hand car at the depot and "let it out" with it. When heard from the next morning it was below Iola.—Garnett Plaindealer.

Mr. J. A. Monfort met with quite a serious accident the past week. He was trimming posts and the ax slipping cut his foot making a severe wound. Mr. Monfort is around however and we hope will soon be able to be at work. This is the busy time of the year with the farmers, and Mr. M. is one of our best.

The "spelling mania" has at last reached our town. Several seem anxious to distinguish themselves whenever the conflict takes place. But no one wants to assume the leadership of the affair. In order to bring out the difficult ones, we suggest that the match be a masque. That is, if the match ever comes off.

We have received the May number of Harper's Monthly, which completes its fiftieth volume and twenty-fifth year. The principal feature of this number is a graphic and complete story of the "Concord Fight," illustrated with twenty-five engravings. Other valuable articles are also presented, and the magazine is as usual replete with interesting reading.

I have just received fifty copies of the minutes of the last State Sunday school convention held at Atchison, for distribution to Sunday school superintendents and workers. Any one calling will be furnished. WM. DAVIS.

Persons visiting Humboldt will find the Neal House a first-class hotel. Mrs. Hovey and Mrs. Johnson give personal attention to the kitchen and dining room, and succeed in giving universal satisfaction. This hotel is on the corner of 8th and New York streets, the rooms are commodious, comfortable and newly furnished.

The township assessors of Allen county met at the Court House, on Monday, of this week, to agree upon a basis of valuation of property in making the assessment of 1875. In addition to the assessment of property for taxation, they have also, this year, to take a complete census, which will add very much to their labors, and may push them some to make their returns, but, judging from their appearance, we think they will be equal to the emergency.

Sheriff Woodin has three boarders at the Bastille, who are very well satisfied with their excellent quarters, and the luxuries of the season set out by Jim. His boarders generally feel satisfied as they are secure from the vulgar gaze of the public, and there they can repose upon their downy couches at night perfectly secure from burglars or other intruders. One of the inmates was lately boarding up near Leavenworth, but having concluded his engagement up there, he determined to try some more secluded spot—farther from the bustle of the city. He intends taking a journey down to Howard county this summer and see how he likes the people of that section.

The Board of County Commissioners were in session on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Quite a large amount of business was transacted—in the way of road petitions, appeals from the action of the Co. Supt. in forming new school districts, and accounts. At this session the resignation of E. A. Gleason, Trustee of Cottage Grove Tp., was accepted, and Chas. R. V. Blair appointed to fill the vacancy. John H. Walters and John H. Willis were appointed constables of Iola Tp., to fill vacancies. Some tax sales were set aside, on account of illegal assessment or tax. Altogether, more work was done at this session than has been done before for a long time, and was, at the same time, done with much dispatch and accuracy. There were the usual large number of spectators present during the sittings, watching the public interests. The Board adjourned on Wednesday evening, to meet again on Thursday, 22d inst.

SEED CORN. A car of seed corn for distribution arrived at Iola the 14th inst. J. D. Sims, of Murrayville, Ill., raised and shipped a car load of corn donated to the needy of Allen county Kansas, to Jas. Faulkner, relief agent. All persons who have not seed corn to plant their crop and have been unable to procure the same are requested to make application for the same at the car on Monday the 19th, as I will distribute at that time and from day to day until the seed is distributed. This corn is for seed only and those receiving it will be expected to plant and not feed the same.

JAMES FAULKNER, Relief Agent.

A LIBRARY OF VALUABLE INFORMATION. Webster's Unabridged Dictionary can only be appreciated by those who spend a few hours in its critical examination. It is a library of valuable information in itself, containing admirably condensed articles on thousands of subjects, three thousand of which are illustrated by excellent cuts. It costs $12, while volumes containing the same amount of matter on similar subjects, would cost hundreds of dollars. It is the cheapest volume in the English language, except the Bible.

BIG INVENTION. Lloyd, the famous map man, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continent—showing from ocean to ocean—on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 40x50 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored, sized and varnished so as to stand washing and mailing, for 30 cents, and plain for tourists 25 cents, or mounted with rollers ready for the wall, and delivered postpaid anywhere in the World, on receipt of 50 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group, from surveys to 1875, with a million places on it, such as villages, towns, cities, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railway stations, etc. This map should be in every house. Send price to Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.
