1882 SPRING 1882

Before the spring season of 1882 comes to a close we expect to show our customers some of the closest prices ever made in Iola.

We also expect to keep a better quality of goods than can be found elsewhere in Iola.

One of our Specialties will be

Ladies Fine Shoes.

We have given an Eastern Manufacturer an order to make for us an extra fine line and better quality and shape than has heretofore been kept in Iola.

We have a nice lot of

BLACK KID GLOVES

In small sizes suitable for Misses. Our former price was $1.00, on account of sizes will close them out at 25 c per pair. They are good quality and will wear well.

Do not fail to see our Carpets!

O. P. NORTHRUP & Co

Mr. Pancoast made a number of very fine stereoscopic views of various places in and around Iola during the late elect storm. Parties can procure these at his gallery.
C. W. McNeil will sell at his place 1 1/2 miles north-west of Iola, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, March 9th, a lot of cattle, horses, and farming implements.
Mrs. Low is still in a helpless condition, and probably will remain so for some time. Overwork is said to be one cause of the attack of paralysis. Constant help is needed.
Township assessors should be very careful in taking the assessment this spring as it is not unlikely the apportionment at the next session of the Legislature will be made upon their returns.
Mr. Jas. Simpson, who fell and put his shoulder blade out of place during the icy weather, is doing well. It is possible that there may be a fracture of some bone as the arm still remains swollen.
At the last meeting of the city council Juno A. Christy was appointed police judge to fill an unexpired term. A called meeting was held Tuesday and his bond approved and he is now so acting.
Miss Gabriella Curns, the accomplished elocutionist of Ft. Scott, will recite several selections at the Literary Union to-night. This is an addition to the regular programme and will be a rare treat.

Heretofore we have opposed the idea of a special session of the Legislature. For various reasons we have changed our mind and hope that one will be called. The State should be re-districted and the sooner it is done the better.

Messrs. Gates & Gaige have purchased Ricketts' billiard tables and rooms and will hereafter conduct the business at the old stand. Urbane and pleasant gentlemen, they will aim to so run the billiard hall as to give satisfaction to all. See their advertisement elsewhere in this paper.
Careful inquiry has shown that one of the parties who was under the influence of liquor last Saturday, had the day previous went to Yates Center and bought a gallon which was brought to Iola and given away. But the most careful inquiry has as yet failed to find any one who will swear to the facts sufficient to establish a case.
It is time to call a halt. The disgraceful scenes of last Saturday and Sunday upon the streets of Iola call for protest—and action. Prohibition may not prohibit but such proceedings must be prohibited. If men who are in other respect good citizens are to be dragged down by liquor being given to them, we are in favor of an anti-treating law. The effects of two days are enough for us. It has the effect of making us feel fatal and we are ready for extreme measures. We are satisfied the liquor was given away under the decision of the Supreme Court. Now let us have the anti-treating amendment also.
