

IOLA REGISTER. SUPPLEMENT.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1883.

Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. W. W. Scott came down from Lawrence last Friday on a visit to relatives and friends here. They returned Tuesday.

We hear talk again of that library and also of a high-school library. The latter, at least is very practicable and we trust it will materialize.

Iola has an orchestra of her own now, and we will no longer have to depend on foreign talent when we want a little music. Just wait till they have practiced a few weeks.

It is more than likely that the Literary Union will be revived in the course of a week or two. We have not had so much and so good material in town for years to maintain a literary, and we hope the organization will be speedily effected.

Cy. Simpson reports a postal card at his office, without any address, upon which is written: "Mary come home at once. The doctor says Charlie has got the collar and phantom." The writer may get it by calling at the office and paying for this notice.

PATENTS ISSUED.

Mr. Seward A. Haseltine, attorney and solicitor of patents, of Springfield Missouri sends us the following: Patents were issued to citizens of Kansas during the past week as follows:

Wm. Barnes, Independence, Kansas, "fire escape;" Rudolph H. Herden, Topeka, Kansas, "vinegar generator;" John V. Reanes and A. C. Majors, Burlington, Kansas, "car coupling." Nov. 12, 1883.

GOOD ADVICE.

Ed. Register: I was much disheartened over the decision, touching upon the Civil Rights bill, but I was shown the advice of Fred. Douglass, by a friend of mine. The advice was to the colored man to remain cool headed over the decision and stick to the Republican party. I agree with Fred. and think his advice is best, and I advise my colored brethren to consider the same. Any one wishing to see the advice, call on or address.

J. C. WILLIAMS, Iola, Kan.

ST. NICHOLAS.

EDITED BY MRS. MAPES DODGE.

The New York Tribune once said: "In the avalanche of immoral literature that threatens the children, some strong, vital, wholesome and really attractive magazine is required for them, and ST. NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for this service a wider resources in art and letters, than any of its predecessors or contemporaries." The reference to the wide resources in art and literature commanded by ST. NICHOLAS was never more fully illustrated than by the extraordinary list of attractions which that magazine announces for 1884. The following will be some of the leading contributors:

Louisa M. Alcott, J T Trowbridge, Capt. Mayne Reid, Hjalmar Hjorth Nyssen, Maurice Thompson, Frank R. Stockton, Chas. Dudley Warner, Joaquin Miller, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Mrs. A D Whitney, Julian Hawthorne, Cella Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, Lieut. Frederick Schwatka, Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, E. S. Brooks, George W. Cable, Chas. G. Leland, Susan Fenimore Cooper, John G. Whittier, "H. H." W. O. Stoddard, C. P. Cranch, and scores of other distinguished writers. The best artists and engravers illustrate the magazine. It has been truly said that the reading of ST. NICHOLAS is

"A LIBERAL EDUCATION" for the boys and girls who are fortunate enough to have it. In no other book or periodical is instruction so happily blended with recreation and amusement.

The price is $3 00 a year, or 25 cents a number. Book-sellers, news-dealers, and postmasters receive subscriptions, or remittance may be made direct to the publishers, by money or express order, bank check, draft, or in registered letter.

Dr. OTTERBOURG,

—OF THE—

KANSAS CITY MEDICAL DISPENSARY,

ON ACCOUNT OF HIS

Many Patients in Allen County,

WILL MAKE A VISIT TO IOLA

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2d, 1884,

AND WILL REMAIN ONE DAY ONLY AT

THE PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL HOTEL.

(His immense practice at the Dispensary prevents his remaining longer.)

Where he can be Consulted on the

TROAT and LUNGS, CATARRH, KIDNEY and BLADDER AND FEMALE DISEASES.

AS WELL AS ALL NERVOUS AND CHRONIC CASES.

DR. OTTERBOURG

Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, lincuzor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, trembling, dimness of sight, or blindness, diseases of the heart, head throbbing, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—disease disorders arising from solitary habits of youth and secret practices, more fatal to the victims than the plagues of the Syrians, to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes and anticipations, rendering happy marriages impossible.

Those who are suffering from evil practices which destroy their mental and physical systems, causing

NERVOUS DEBILITY,

The symptoms of which are a dull, distressed mind, which unfit them for performing their business and social duties, makes happy marriages impossible, distresses the action of the heart causing flushes of heat, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, dreams, cowardice, fears, restlessness, night, melancholy, dizziness, forgetfulness, unnatural discharges, pain in the back and hips, short breathing, tire easily of company and have a desire to be alone, feeling as tired in the morning as when retiring, seminal weakness, hot menses, white leucorrhoea, deposit in the urine nervousness, trembling, confusion of thought, watery and weak eyes, dyspepsia, indigestion, consumption, pain and weakness in the limbs, &c., should consult me immediately and be restored to perfect health.

YOUNG MEN

Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise be entrance listening Senators with the thunder of their eloquence or "wake to ecstasy the living lyre"—may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, less of procreative power, impotency, or any other dis-qualifications, speedily relieved. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Otterbourg may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman and confidently rely on his skill as a physician.

ORGANAL WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction, which renders life a burden and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victim for improper indulgence. Young people are generally ignorant of the fact that the most eminent gynecologists agree that the system which has cured after they have been treated by the most eminent gynecologists in vain. Not only has he unrivaled means of diagnosing, but his treatment is original, mild, safe and thoroughly reliable. He always gives relief and whenever cure is practicable, he restores the patient to health. Ladies are kept ignorant of their organization that they do not understand the value of many of their pains and aches and other symptoms and often neglect themselves until the complaint has become well established. They should consult him whenever out of sorts or health is comfort and eye-life itself can thus be secured. Dr. Otterbourg heartily invites all afflicted ladies to call on him in person or by letter.

A CURE WARRANTED.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trifling month after month, taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

DISEASES OF WOMEN

Have always been a special study with Dr. Otterbourg. No department of medicine requires more knowledge, patience and tact than this and none calls for more delicacy, candor or kind ness. He has the tact of ascertaining the origin and seat of disease and can refer to thousands of patients whom he has cured after they have been treated by the most eminent gynecologists in vain. Not only has he unrivaled means of diagnosing, but his treatment is original, mild, safe and thoroughly reliable. He always gives relief and whenever cure is practicable, he restores the patient to health. Ladies are kept ignorant of their organization that they do not understand the value of many of their pains and aches and other symptoms and often neglect themselves until the complaint has become well established. They should consult him whenever out of sorts or health is comfort and eye-life itself can thus be secured. Dr. Otterbourg heartily invites all afflicted ladies to call on him in person or by letter.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. Otterbourg addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the signs, melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz.: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head and dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, consumption, &c.
