REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

A delegate convention of the Republicans of Allen county is hereby called to meet at Iola on Tuesday, September 3, 1901.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County Treasurer: I would respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Republican primaries and convention.

Another Candidate.

The name of W. A. Ross, of Osage, is added to the list of candidates for County Treasurer. Mr. Ross needs no introduction or commendation to the people of Allen County.

Sam Wood Murdered.

Wednesday's papers brought the startling news that Colonel Sam Wood of Alliance Legislature had been brutally murdered at Hugoton, Stevens county, by a desperado named Brennan.

In Love With An Idea.

Plato were alive he would immediately enroll Miss Nina Van Zandt among his scholars.

She has faithfully followed the old philosopher's teaching and diligently loved an idea all her life.

Now, still out of love of her idea, she weds a fierce world-devouring Italian socialist—Spies no doubt, done in brunette instead of blonde.

The Case Put in a Nutshell.

The Chicago Tribune puts the Blaine policy of reciprocity in a nutshell when it presents these facts and figures: "The total imports of this country for the year 1890 from the country south of ours, generally called Latin America—as compared with exports to them—were as follows: Imports, $198,940,575; exports to Latin America, $90,886,103.

Concerning the Soldier's Home.

To the Editor of THE REGISTER: I saw in your issue of last week an article headed "What's the matter with the Soldier's Home at Leavenworth," and giving your reasons for asking the question.

Interesting.

To all men and women both in and out of the State of Kansas who were born on Kansas soil prior to the year 1890; those who participated in the political strife of 1856, '7 and '8—the time when the seeds of freedom were first planted through opposition, oppression and sacrifice of home comforts, when property was confiscated and life jeopardized to uphold that principle whose defense cost this nation a generation of the flower of the manhood of the country and a financial debt which is still unpaid.

YOUR NAMES ARE WANTED.

That there may be a record made of them to be preserved as a matter of history, and all those who feel interested in this matter will please form an organization in each county in the State for social gatherings.

A Correction.

HUMBOLDT, KANS., June 20, 1901. Ed. Register: I see by the REGISTER that you misunderstood me in regard to the culverts. They were all in place, but the road was badly washed, most of them on both sides, showing the weakness of the policy of making too small culverts.

Notice to Farmers.

If farmers will consider a moment they will see that if millet seed has to be shipped back here it will cost them at least $1.25 cents per bushel. I have plenty of seed now and those who are alive to their interests will do well to secure their seed before it is all shipped.

Mr. J. O. W. Howard was called to Jefferson county Wednesday by the serious illness of his daughter Mrs. Kanaka.

Mr. Lillis Jett goes today to Harper county to visit his parents. He will remain some time. Mr. Sowers and family spent Sunday with relatives on the Osage.

Mr. Rutledge is down from Kansas City. Some say "the better the day, the better the dead," and so that must have been the reason those folks caught so many fish Sunday afternoon at Deer Creek.

Mr. Peed was so lucky as to have a swarm of bees come to his place recently.

Charley Agner, of Moran is visiting in this vicinity this week.

Allen Mayes has been quite sick.

Hayard. (Received too late last week.) Having heard nothing from the Hayard correspondent for so long I have concluded that he or she must be either dead or married, and it seems that this part of the world ought to be represented by somebody.

We can boast of as many weeds as farmers in general. Whether it is the Alliance running at low ebb that causes vegetation to look up, or the numerous rains that have fallen, we will not say.

Are there any preachers in Allen county who do not preach for money altogether? If there are any we wish they would come to Hayard some Sunday so that the Sabbath may be occupied in some other way than by horse racing.

Last Sabbath was observed by most of the churches in these parts by the children as their special day. Wesley Chapel was crowded to overflowing. We understand that Rev. Sage commended a crowded house at the Baptist church both morning and evening.

Those having taney hair are thinking seriously of thrusting in the sickles soon. There is lots of wheat out here, too, and it looks fine. Oats are doing far better than was anticipated.
