THE IOLA REGISTER.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1895.

THE COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Items From All Over Allen County.

THE MOST IMPORTANT DEEDS

DONE BY YOUR NEIGHBORS FAITHFULLY AND IMPARTIALLY SET DOWN BY REGISTER REPORTERS.

ELSMORE.

(Mr. G. W. Smith is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Elsmore. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
(Received too late last week.)
Mr. Snyder has quit threshing and is now running his mill with his engine.
The U. B. Presiding Elder preached at the school house, to a large and appreciative audience Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening.
Dr. Braden from Mapleton has bought lots on the hill north of town and is erecting a barn and a large residence. He intends to build a two story brick building in the spring, with a city hall above and a drug store below.
Oscar Aster is clerking in Mr. Bromagein's meat shop.
Sheriff Ausherman was down here last week on business. Ask Frank, Charley and John what he wanted.
Mr. S. F. Barton has rearranged his counters in his drug store and purchased a new secretary.
Mr. Trammell is repairing the house now occupied by H. B. Willoughby the barber.
Mrs. J. P. Decker is under the weather this week.
Mr. Carter's infant babe is quite sick with the throat trouble.
Miss Julia Peterson is at home on a visit. She will return in a few weeks to Chanute where she is clerking in a store.
H. W. Cox, Frank and Chas. Nelson went to Iola Friday on business.
The new REGISTER should be commented on by every correspondent in the county for it is a "daisy".

SOUTH MAPLE GROVE.

(Miss M. G. Gentry is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at South Maple Grove. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
(Rec'd too late last week.)
Mrs. J. O. Hottenstein has been quite sick with an attack of tonsillitis. Misses Cora and Maggie Johnson were in Iola Monday.
Mr. Raish is expected home from Illinois this week.
Charlie Crawford was on the sick list the first of the week.
Mr. Ahy and wife were up from Cottage Grove Sunday and were guests at Mr. E. Palmer's.
Mr. and Mrs. Down's of Cottage Grove were visiting at Mr. Jay's on Monday.
This community was shocked last week to hear of the death of Mrs. Hattie Miller which occurred in the neighborhood of Cherry Grove. Hattie was well known in this vicinity and it seems sad to have the Reaper of Death gathering in the fair young flowers. The friends have the sympathy of all.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Marshall is in very poor health.

BAYARD.

(Mrs. J. C. Beatty is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Bayard. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
Great was the sadness and gloom cast over the entire community the death of Mrs. Hoffman, which in a manner was very sudden and unexpected to all. Having been in our community so many years she was an old settler here, and every one knew her and respected her for her many good traits of character. Mr. Hoffman has been building a fine house and greater is the blow, that Mrs. Hoffman could not be spared to enjoy it. Rev. Trout of Ottawa preached the discourse and never in years has there been such a large assembly of people on such an occasion, showing what esteem the deceased was held.
Dr. Sam Cole, of Kansas City, has been in the community the last week settling up his affairs, having sold his farm to a gentleman from Mo.
Many were sorry to see succum and snow as it seems the corn will never be gathered.
If you want to see a busy town go to Bayard. Some ten cars were being loaded with grain and hay Friday last.

ALLEN CENTER.

(J. T. Tredway is the authorized agent and reporter for the REGISTER at Allen Center. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
Perry Newton has returned from Boulder, Colorado and will begin improvements at once on his father's town property where the family will remove in the spring.
Mr. and Mrs. Jay of South Maple Grove were in our neighborhood last week.
Judge Knox has removed the vacant house on the Pettit farm to Mr. Wedekend's, where it is attached to the latter's house making ample room for his family.
Wm. Swartsman has sold a great many "Genitan" apples this fall.
Special Thanksgiving services will be held in the evening of that day with a somewhat varied program.
The regular Elm township S. S. convention will be held on Saturday December 14th. All visiting friends will be entertained. Everybody invited to come.
Perry Newton rode his wheel from Boulder, Colorado to Wichita Kansas on his return home trip.
Mr. Roedel has purchased a feed grinder.
Claude Jury and wife left last Monday for Missouri where they join her father's family and all will engage in farming.
Charlie Stauffer departed this week for his annual visit home for the winter, of course he will return to Mr. Toby in the spring.

Mr. Crowl has besides his regular help some Oklahoma parties husking corn.

ROSE HILL.

Grandma Blodgett has been quite sick but is better at present. Absence will have to account for state news.
Mr. Lewis Hackney and family have moved to the Territory and their safe arrival has been chronicled. Eugene Delaplain accompanied them and will take a hunt before he returns.
Mr. Toby has built new cribs so has bought a large amount of corn. Jim Blodgett is expected to return from the east soon.
The farmers still have a good deal of corn to husk, but have been stopped by the snow.
The late spell of weather has been almost like winter.

GENEVA.

Miss Knowlton is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Geneva. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
The band boys of Colony will give an entertainment at the school house on Thanksgiving night.

Prof. J. B. White gives experience at the school house on Wednesday night for the benefit of the philosophy class.
An entertainment and supper will be given at the Sunny Side school house on Thursday evening to raise money to help furnish the new school house.
Dan Sherwood has closed his cider mill for this year.
Rev. McGinnis will preach at the Congregation church Thanksgiving, day at 10 o'clock a. m.

PRAIRIE DELL.

(Mrs. M. J. Barth is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Prairie Dell. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)
About the meanest trick we have to record is that of some one stealing all of Mrs. McHenry's winter apples one night last week.
Joe Kelly is very much elated over that new girl at his house.
Chas. Cain expects to start to Illinois next Tuesday to visit for a few weeks.
The storm of last Saturday so interfered with the surprise birthday party that was to have been at Mr. Rigg's in honor of Mrs. Rigg's birthday that we are unable to report it.
Misses Sadie and Mammie Walter gave a party to their young friends Saturday evening.
Mrs. Emma Oswald took a drive to Humboldt last week.
Mr. McCullough had his threshing done last week.
Who says it can't snow in Kansas.

A Great Man vindicates Himself.
"You will not take it as an insult, I presume," said the confidential agent of the Consolidated Franchise Grabbers, "if I offer you this?"
"Yes, sir," replied the incorruptible alderman from the Seventh ward, a flush of honest indignation rising to his face as he counted it hastily and thrust it into his pocket. "I take it, sir—as an insult! It isn't hum—quite what I had expected, sir!"—Chicago Tribune.

True Equality.
Little Ethel—Nellie Nexdoor is taking painting lessons, and the teachers say she is a perfect genius. Mayn't I take painting lessons, too?
Mother—Do you think you have any talent for painting?
Little Ethel—Of course. Our family is just as good as Nellie Nexdoor's.—Good News.

A Utilitarian.

Summary of the Daily News.

WASHINGTON NOTES.
The postmaster-general has made his annual report to the president. The receipts of the department for the year ended June 30 were $75,171,000 and the expenditures $86,794,172. Mr. Wilson recommends the extension of the free delivery service, notes the abuses of second-class mail matter and recommends the extension of the civil service rules wherever practicable.
The director of the mint has submitted his report to the secretary of the treasury. The coinage during the year was gold, $1,934,475; silver dollars, $3,956,011; subsidiary silver coins, $5,113,492; minor coins, $12,504, a total coinage of $53,715,540. The estimated product of gold and silver in the United States during the calendar year 1904 was gold, $39,500,000; silver, 49,500,000 fine ounces of the commercial value of $31,432,000 and the coinage value of $4,000,000.

The report of James White, superintendent of the railway mail service, shows that during the year 497 accidents occurred, in which seven clerks were killed and 178 injured while on duty. He also shows that the service is becoming more and more efficient each year.
The interstate commerce commission has issued a preliminary report on the income and expenditures of railroads in the United States for the year ended June 30, 1895, prepared by the statisticians.
COMMISSIONER STUMP, of the immigration bureau, in his annual report recommends legislation for the suppression of the padrone system and urges the passage of an act by congress forbidding persons or corporations engaging in the business of procuring employment for alien immigrants without first securing a license from the immigration bureau.

FRANCIS H. HATCH, the new Hawaiian minister, the authorities say, does not go to Washington to ask for a protectorate. This statement was made to refute a well defined rumor. Mr. Hatch will use his best endeavors to bring the annexation question before the next congress and high officials state that nothing else will satisfy the Hawaiian government.
GOVERNMENT officials have emphatically denied that there was any truth in the statements that the state department had decided that ex-consul Walker had no case or that the department finds that his trial was fair and holds that the United States has no substantial grounds on which to base a demand for indemnity.

The general assembly Knights of Labor, which has been in session at Washington, adjourned to meet at Rochester, N. Y., in 1896.
The president has ordered a medal of honor to be awarded to James C. Walker, late private company K, Thirty-first Ohio volunteer infantry, for most distinguished gallantry in action at Mission Ridge, Tenn., November 25, 1863. In this engagement this soldier voluntarily carried the regimental flag in a charge in which the flag received ninety-eight bullet marks and the flagstaff ten.
The representatives of District assembly 48, K. of L. of New York, presented charges against General Master Workman J. R. Sovereign, at the session in Washington on the 20th, to the effect that his administration was not in line with the best interests of labor and that he and his officers had compromised with capitalists. Mr. Sovereign defended himself warmly and at the close of his speech tendered his resignation, but by an almost unanimous vote the assembly refused to accept it, and adopted a vote of confidence in Mr. Sovereign and the other general officers.

It has been decided to remove the body of Maj.-Gen. Winfield S. Hancock to Arlington cemetery, Washington, from Norristown, Pa., where it has rested since 1880. None of the projects to erect a monument at Norristown have succeeded, and the committee of the Second artillery corps has succeeded in securing the consent of members of the family to the removal. It is planned to have the burial in Arlington to take place next spring, when a monument to Gen. Hancock on one of the public squares in Washington will be dedicated.

GENERAL NEWS.
FIRE broke out early on the morning of the 25th in the packing house and meat market of Arnold Bros., on Haymarket square, Chicago. Before the fire was under control property was damaged to the extent of $125,000.
The city hall, Jones' hotel and eleven stores were destroyed at Madisonville, Ky., early on the morning of the 20th. Loss, about $80,000; insurance, $30,000.
PAUL GLUCKSMAN, in jail at Purcell, L. T., charged with arson, committed suicide because his friends would not aid him.

A RECENT dispatch to the London Standard from Shanghai said that the rebels had defeated the Chinese army at Hai-an, and the rebels were masters of half the province of Kan Su.
HENRY OLIVER, president of the defunct Columbia national bank, was recently arrested at Tacoma, Wash., charged with embezzling $6,500 of the bank's funds. He was also charged with having paid George Boggs, ex-city treasurer, $500 to deposit city money with his bank.
E. M. JOYCE, proprietor of a saloon in Terril, Tex., fired four shots at J. W. Ozles. Two of the shots struck two zouaves who were drilling in the street, killing one and seriously wounding the other. Ozles was found later dying on a branch street. Indication ran high and the murderer was hurried from the city by the marshal.

"John, I have a French maid at last. Do you know any French? I don't."
"Well, yes, my dear. I guess so. Mon ange, 'cherie,' 'ma belle.'"
"What do those words mean, John?"
"O, she'll understand!"—Truth.

FARRIS COX, a fero dealer, shot Al Warner, a well known sporting man, in the turf saloon in Oklahoma City, Ok., on the 20th. The shot took effect in Warner's left shoulder, coming out of his mouth. Warner had been drinking and threatened to kill Cox and the opinion was that the latter acted in self defense.
The Transmississippi commercial congress began at Omaha on the 25th with 300 delegates present. George Q. Cannon, of Salt Lake City, was in the chair. Only routine work—appointing committees and examining credentials—was done.
An unknown negro tramp was lynched near Calvert City, Ky., recently. He was caught trying to wreck a train and was pursued into the woods, where he was hanged and riddled with bullets.

The New York World on the 25th published a cablegram from Cuba, signed by Gen. Martinez de Campos, giving reasons why the United States should not recognize the insurgents as belligerents. Gen. Campos said that the insurgents held no seaport nor any interior town and it was for that very reason that Gen. Grant refused to recognize them, which created a precedent, and therefore the Spanish government did not anticipate any overt acts of unfriendliness on the part of the United States.
A New York Herald special from Cuba said that the rebels were using dynamite with murderous effect in every engagement. Great terror existed among the Spanish troops and the government was endeavoring to suppress the news in order that the new arrivals from Spain may not be panic stricken in advance.
The most outspoken expressions of sympathy for Cuba were heard at a meeting at Philadelphia on the 21st. The speakers were Gov. Matthews, of Indiana; Gen. Gonzalo de Quesada, secretary of the revolutionary party in the United States, and Capt. W. W. Kerr, owner of the steamer Laurada. Capt. Kerr said: "Vessels will leave this country every day and land arms, ammunition and men on Cuba's shores until she is free, and if Spain will wait ten days she will hear of another expedition being landed."

FIRE broke out on the fifth floor of the Springer block, Nos. 175 to 181 Canal street, Chicago, on the 21st and it was estimated that the loss was $620,000. The building was occupied by the Charles Emerich Feather Co. The fire spread to the adjoining building, occupied by the Shoer & Carqueville Lithograph Co., the Banner Waist Co., and other firms. Over 300 girls were employed in this building and they fled in a panic, but all escaped with their lives.
At a meeting of the executive board of the K. of L. at Washington, General Master Workman Sovereign was elected fraternal delegate to the National Farmers alliance convention.
The executive committee of the National Educational association met in Chicago recently and decided to hold the 1896 meeting of the association at Buffalo, N. Y.

JOHN BRADSHAW, a well known character, walked into the Mississippi river at Memphis, Tenn., in the presence of a hundred persons, who thought he was intending to bathe. He kept his head under the water until he was unconscious. When the body was taken out he was dead.
DAVID L. PEARSON, living near New Buffalo, Ill., was driven insane as the result of his belief that the recent earthquake heralded the end of the world, and is now confined in an asylum. His daughter, aged 18, has also been adjudged of unsound mind, her father's peculiar hallucination having also affected her reason.
CHINESE papers, received at Vancouver, B. C., recently were bitter in their attack on the Japanese authorities in Corea, whom they blame for the murder of the queen. They asserted that the queen was hanged by her hair and tied hand and foot, sunk in oil and burned. According to Chinese reports, there were fifteen women of title in the court, the queen, her mother, and 130 ladies in waiting. They were nearly all soaked in oil and burned, while the men's throats were cut.
THE match game of football between the Pennsylvania and Harvard universities at Cambridge, Mass., was won by the Pennsylvanians. Score, 17 to 14.
THE New York Sun said on the 21st: The court martial proceedings of ex-consul Walker's trial at Madagascar has been received at the state department at Washington and examined closely by Secretary Olney, who has decided that the trial was fair in every way to the ex-consul on the face of the evidence as forwarded from Paris and that this government has no substantial ground upon which to base a demand for indemnity.
THE failures for the week ended November 23 (Dun's report) were 320 in the United States, against 322 last year, and 42 in Canada, against 31 last year.
R. J. E. HORNE, of Madison county, Tex., brought news to Bryan of the lynching of a negro in a remote part of that county recently. He was accused of riding a horse over a little white girl in the road, inflicting serious injuries on her. Later developments showed that the mob got hold of the wrong negro and the guilty one made his escape.
A PRAIRIE fire started a few miles south of Hennessey, Ok., but after a hard fight by over 100 farmers, it was conquered, though not until it had destroyed over 100 acres of unharvested corn. One man lost his barn and two horses.
CHARLES HURD, a negro, who murdered Jasper D. Kelley, a young white man, was taken from the jail at Wartburg, Morgan county, Tenn., and lynched at midnight recently by a mob of 200 masked men.
ALVIN THOMAS, 12 years old, killed his brother, two years younger, and committed suicide at English, Ind. The murder was caused by the brother reporting Alvin for playing truant.
A FIRE broke out at the corner of Van Buren and Franklin streets, Chicago, on the 22d and one woman was killed by jumping from the window and four firemen were killed by falling floors.

Kansas City Grain.
KANSAS CITY, Nov. 22.—The speculative trade in wheat was almost at a standstill today. Local concerns did practically nothing, because wires were down in every direction, and not half a dozen quotations from Chicago were received before noon. The cash trade here was very slow, with sales somewhat lower as a rule. Those who held good samples refused to sell at the bids made by the elevator concerns. A few sales on mill orders were at steady prices, but most of the good samples were carried over. Low grades sold irregularly lower. The offerings were not large.
Receipts of wheat to-day, 33 cars; a year ago, 11 cars.

Tortured by Tramps.
WILMINGTON, Del. Nov. 22.—Henry Ross, a colored man, reported at the police station here that he was waylaid on the outskirts of this city by a gang of tramps, who stripped him of his clothing and held him over a fire which they had made of twigs and leaves in the woods. He pleaded for mercy and was finally released when he gave them $5. Two of the tramps were afterwards arrested.

A New Mileage Book.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—A new form of mileage book, now being adopted by western roads on January 1 in the shape of a 2,000-mile ticket punched with a description of the original purchaser. The book will sell for $50, with a rebate of $10 on return of empty cover. This will make the rate of transportation 2 cents per mile. A 1,000-mile book, without the descriptive features, will cost for $25.
