

GENTLEMEN!

LOOK TO YOUR FEET!

They are a source of expense and often misery, unless properly shod. Examine Henderson's Famous Line. They have few equals and no superiors. Our stock embraces their Imperial line of Goodyear Welts at $3.50, made in light and dark tans, with or without vesting tops. . . . In Vici Kid and Russia Colt Skin we show all widths and eight different toes. . . . Waldorf, the fine Vici Kid. . . . Derby, the handsome tan, English foot form. . . . Yukon and Gordon, extension soles, solid and dressy, blacks only, at $3. . . . Wigwag and Dixie, in tans, with or without vesting tops, shown in different widths and toes, at $2.50. . . . Our $2.25 line is a sure winner, embracing Henderson's Thoroughbred, Lightning, Kangaroo and Gossamer Calf, Klondyke and Czar. We show these in bals and congress, all widths and toes. Can please and FIT the young, the old, long, short, thick or lean man. . . . Quoram and Drummer, in bals and congress, makes a $2.00 line that cannot be excelled. . . . Zoolaroo and War Cry, in bals and congress, are solid throughout and a bargain at $1.50.

We ask you to bear in mind that we guarantee every shoe in our store to be absolutely SOLID LEATHER. A simple statement, but A DIFFICULT ONE FOR EVERY MERCHANT TO MAKE.

Respectfully,

J. C. HASKETT'S NEW STORE.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was set free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by A. R. Kane.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to the Cheshtre Grocery Co. will please call and settle.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for piles, injuries and skin diseases. It is the original Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. DeWitt & Thompson.

FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Peters have received a letter from their son, Claude, who belongs to Co. H. 32d U. S. Inf., which is doing business in the Philippines. Among other things he says: "We moved out on the firing line Nov. 5. We have had plenty of fighting to do. It is of no use for me to describe the country. The climate is not bad, and the water is good. We are in Gen. McArthur's division and Gen. Fred Grant is our brigade commander. With two such officers like this we drive the niggers anywhere we like. We had a fight the other day and the niggers tried to play a bold act, but when our men began to charge they left their trenches and took to the hills."

"After the doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for Whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst cases," writes Jno. Berry, of Loganport, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup, throat and lung trouble. It prevents consumption. Children like it. Mothers endorse it. DeWitt & Thompson.

Within the past year the white paper upon which the Journal is printed has advanced 95 per cent. The profits go to the paper trust—not to the laboring men, not to those whose raw material is sold to the mills—solely to those who control the output. At the same time there is a tariff on paper of $6 per ton, once put there to protect the very industry now robbing the publisher. This tariff should be removed. When home dealers combine to rob the public it is time to call in outside competition. And what is true of paper is true of every other article controlled by trusts.—Coffeeville Daily Journal.

The killing of Empire City's Marshal, Marion Thomas, which occurred last Sunday afternoon, is one more appeal for a better enforcement of our criminal laws. His murderer, John Norton, is a man who has not in recent years made any pretense toward obeying the laws. He is known as the joint king of Empire City, and has been an enemy to good government for some time. We say an enemy to good government, because a man who has no more regard for law than to repeatedly violate it, is an enemy to good government. It is an outrage that the taxpayers of Cherokee county should be compelled to pay out their good money to prosecute about fifty violators of law every month of court. If our officers were a little more strict there would be fewer violations. The killing of the county attorney's brother in a joint at Scammon a couple of weeks ago should stir up an official to a point where he will at least make a legitimate effort to convict, and we hope he will. The joints of Cherokee county are causing too much killing. It has been said that Marshal Thomas had drawn his gun. Well, suppose he had. He went to arrest a man who was said to be drunk and armed. Would Marshal Thomas done right if he had tried to arrest the man and not been prepared? The fact that Thomas had his gun out, and this has been denied, is no reason why John Norton should have shot him. Marshal Thomas had a perfect right to have his gun in his hand, but John Norton had no such right. When Marshal Thomas called on John Norton to surrender the latter's answer was not what it should have been. The fact that Norton was drinking and was armed is responsible for Marshal Thomas' death. The fact, if such it should prove to be, that Marshal Thomas had his gun in his hand, should be no defense for the murderer. John Norton resisted the officer with a deadly weapon and killed him. The law loving people of Cherokee county should stand by the officers and see that justice is meted out.

Col. D. B. Dyer, formerly of Baxter, and who now lives in Augusta, Ga., has recently built an elegant home. The Augusta Chronicle says: "Parties familiar with the cottage which crowned the hill in Robinson's Grove, would never recognize it in Col. Dyer's modern country home. An attractive modern two-story structure, with cupola on top, now covers the site of the former cottage. Twenty-odd rooms are in this delightful home which Col. Dyer has builded on the hilltop, and he will have ample accommodations to entertain his friends and be thoroughly comfortable at all times. It is not yet completed and the furniture has been put in only a part of the house and a few of the pictures have been hung, but what has been accomplished gives assurance that when it is completed it will be one of the most attractive places in the state. Col. Dyer has collected a great quantity of old mahogany furniture, and his house, when fully furnished, will be a treat for lovers of old furniture to look upon. Big open fireplaces, with brass and iron and leather, big mahogany sofas and lounges, chairs of rare pattern, and beautiful tables and screens like the scenes."

CITY MARSHAL KILLED.

On Sunday afternoon John Norton, a brother of W. S. Norton, shot and killed Marion Thomas, marshal of Empire City in the former's saloon. Following is an account of the murder from the Galena Republican: "John Norton, a joint king of Empire City, shot and killed Empire City's marshal, Marion Thomas Sunday afternoon. Five bullets entered Thomas' body and he died almost instantly. The shooting occurred in Norton's saloon where Thomas had gone either to arrest Norton or make him quiet down. The story of the shooting as told to a Republican reporter by an eye witness is about as follows: Norton was drinking and was in a quarrelsome mood. There were several people in his saloon and Norton was playing recklessly with a revolver. T. C. Brown was standing behind the bar with Norton trying to get him to put his gun away. He laid the gun down and asked his bartender for his big gun, which was handed to him. Striking the bar with the gun Norton said: 'You have it in for me and I am going to get even with that squint eyed son of a b—. And to emphasize his last word he fired a shot into the ceiling. Mr. Brown was standing near and endeavored to get Norton to put the gun away, but he refused to do so. 'At about this time City Marshal Thomas entered the joint and ordered him to put his gun up. Norton replied that he was in his own place of business and that no son of a— could make him put it up. Thomas again ordered Norton to put his gun away, saying if he did not, he would lock him up. With this remark Thomas covered Norton with his gun. Norton also leveled his gun and both men fired at about the same time. After firing two shots, both of which took effect in Thomas' chest, Norton came from behind the bar and the two men engaged in a hand to hand battle. Norton succeeded in shooting Thomas twice more and then struck him over the head with his gun, felling him to the floor. As Thomas fell Norton fired another shot, which took effect in his neck. After Thomas was down Norton endeavored to shoot him again, but the revolver failed to fire. 'Most of the loungers in the place made their escape during the shooting. After committing the crime Norton walked back and forth across the floor swearing and about half crying. 'Thomas' friends gathered in, and seeing that he would live only a short time, sent for his wife. 'Norton went outside and said he would give himself up, which he did, surrendering to Marshal Parker and placed in jail. 'The coroner's jury decided that Norton fired the first shot, as well as the last, and holds him directly responsible for the death of Marshal Thomas.

DEATH OF MRS. AUSTIN.

Died, at her home in the northwest part of this city, on Tuesday, February 6, 1900, Mrs. Lavina Austin, wife of Horace Austin, aged eighty years, three months and seventeen days.

Mrs. Austin was ill several weeks, but her extreme age together with an old trouble was too much for her constitution to withstand and she passed away at the time above stated.

Mrs. Austin was a native of Ohio and was married to Mr. Austin in 1855. Her maiden name was Lavina Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Austin came to Kansas from DeKalb county, Illinois in 1873.

Mrs. Austin was a charitable woman and a good wife and good mother. Many are the kind deeds placed to her credit by the recording angel. Many a poor person in times of adversity has been helped out of the depths of despair by the noble woman.

Mrs. Austin proved a great helpmeet to her excellent husband, who with his daughter, Harriet, are left to mourn her loss.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. M. E. Bramhall. The service were largely attended, after which the remains were laid away in the Austin lot in the Baxter cemetery.

RECEIVED THEIR SENTENCE.

Sol Pointer, Van McDowell and Dave Bunn, the colored fellows who stole hides from a car in the Memphis yards in this city and confessed the crime, were sentenced in the common pleas court at Galena on Monday of this week. Pointer was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year, McDowell two years, Bunn two years and six months.

The large and increasing circulation of The Live Stock Indicator in this county is a matter for congratulation to the publishers and to good farming, for, of all the papers of its class in the country, it is easily the best and most helpful. Its Special Farmers' Institute editions, issued with the regular edition the first week in each month, have for years been the admiration of all practical farmers. Written wholly by farmers, they are full of actual experience and smell of the soil. We have been fortunate enough this season to secure terms for The Indicator and its Special Farmers' Institute Editions, together with The Poultry Farmer and The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal, four of the most valuable farm publications in the country, that enables us to offer the four in connection with our own paper for $1.27 for the entire five, one year. This is emphatically a good thing and no farmer in this county should fail to take advantage of the offer. For a large line of thoroughly practical farm reading nothing has ever been offered before that equals it. A county paper, a farm paper, a poultry paper, a farm insurance paper and the Special Farmers' Institute, all for $1.27. Come in and order them.
