nephew, Ralph Hibarger, of Joplin visited the family of J. M.
English in this city this week.

Frank McGregor returned this week from Los Angeles, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Mc-Gregor is now recovering.

True W. Childs of Abbeville, Ga., is in the city, being called here by a message announcing the serious illness of his wife, who is at the home of her father, John M. Cooper.

Mrs. Richard Page, a very estimable young woman, died at her home in Galena Sunday.
Mrs. Page was a cousin of W. T.

The annual meeting of the ladies aid society of the Presbyterian church for the election of Miss Sweeney was hostess of the Avon club last Monday afternoon. The members responded to roll call with quotations from "As You Like It," and the play was concluded by the reading of the last three acts. The Current Events were unusually interesting. The club will be entertained by Miss Plumb next Monday.

Frank Kimball, who used to be chief of police in Baxter Springs, was here the fore part of the week visiting his friends and relatives. We understand Frank is a candidate for chief of police of Sapulpa, Okla., where he has been living since he left this city. The people of Sapulpa could go farther and do worse than give Frank the place. He was accompanied to this city by his brother, William.

Miss Narcissus Gilmore, 72 years of age, died very suddenly Monday morning at the home of her brother, Fount Gilmore, five miles southeast of this city. The lady fell dead from her chair at the breakfast table, being afflicted with heart trouble. After Miss Gilmore's death a story was circulated to the effect that the lady had been a miser and that a large sum of money was found on her person, also a diagram showing where more money was hidden, but a nephew of the deceased says the story is not true.
Miss Gilmore was a very estimable lady. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon and the remains interred in the Newman cemetery.
