

Business Training

"It appears to me," says the newcomer, "that those 'Blank boys' are pretty good business men." "Yes," replied the old timer, "their father taught them to do business through the bank and they're always right up-to-now."

Remarks similar to the above were recently heard on the street, and serves to illustrate with what esteem the young man with the bank account is held. No better business training is obtainable than that acquired through dealing with the bank. We take special care with our young customers and give them every consideration possible.
