CHARGES I. W. W. WITH ANARCHY

Junkers in Sacramento Say Organization Formed to Dominate World and to Overthrow Society.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 16.—That the Industrial Workers of the World organization was formed to "dominate the earth and overthrow all government and society," was the statement of P. H. Johnson, government counsel, in opening the prosecution's concluding argument in the trial here yesterday of 46 members of the organization accused of conspiring to institute a campaign of arson and destruction in the state.

Johnson read resolutions adopted at the 1916 annual convention and other meetings of the I. W. W. which he contended as opposed to the selective draft and other features of the government's war program. "We condemn the militarism supported by our only enemy, the capitalist class," one of the resolutions read. Alleged activity of the organization calling lumber camp strikes in the northwest and industrial disturbances elsewhere were detailed at length by Johnson.

Johnson was followed by Nathan Coghlan, attorney of record for three defendants, Miss Bollock, Basil B. Saffers and A. Foster. The remaining defendants are putting in no defense. Coghlan's argument was cut short by adjournment and is to be resumed today.

The defense ended its case with the introduction of evidence to disprove a charge of the prosecution that Fox remarked to a group of I. W. W.'s in this city that "a man was crazy to go to war."

ANOTHER "FIXER" IS OUT OF A JOB

Frank W. Haskins Resigns as Food Administrator for Silver Bow County. Profiteers Express Regret.

Merchants of Butte are perfectly safe now in selling eggs and butter and other foodstuffs at a reasonable price—that is, if they can kill a few wholesalers and profiteers. Frank Haskins has quit.

The news of the resignation of Frank W. Haskins as food administrator for Silver Bow county was made public yesterday and it is with regret that the state board is obliged to accept Mr. Haskins' resignation. He has served long and efficiently and did much to help the profiteers of America during the war.

Concerning the resignation of Mr. Haskins as food administrator for Silver Bow county, Food Administrator Atkinson's office has issued a statement which says that "Mr. Haskins' resignation is deeply regretted, as he has done most valuable work for food administration in Silver Bow county. He maintained his office, however, as long as the war actually lasted and built up a most capable and loyal working force."

While regulations of the food administration are gradually being relaxed to meet coming peace conditions, the food administration, as a government body, will not cease functioning until it is compelled to.

It is improbable that any new food administrator will be named for Silver Bow county for the remainder of the time of the food administration's existence.

ARIZONA AFTER SPECIALISTS

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 16.—Referring to the I. W. W. as a "lawless organization" and stating that technicalities may not be employed to interfere with the course of justice, Gov. Thomas E. Campbell, in his message to the Fourth state legislature, yesterday recommended enactment of a law which will establish as a felony the doctrine of syndicalism which advocates crime, sabotage and violence as a means of accomplishing industrial and political reform. Legislators and citizens alike are wondering why the governor referred to the I. W. W. and failed to mention the anarchists who were at the head of the Bisbee deportations.
