

CHAMBER HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

New Directors Elected at Session Held in Silver Bow Club. "Welcome" Committee for Soldiers.

Returning soldiers walking the streets of Butte looking for work may now have the satisfaction of knowing that the Butte Chamber of Commerce has a "welcome" committee. If they cannot get work or food they can exist, maybe, on the above fact.

The annual meeting of the Butte Chamber of Commerce was held at the Silver Bow club yesterday. A luncheon preceded the business session. R. Currie presided and the principal addresses were made by the paid tool of the Employer's association, the organization that makes a specialty of fighting organized labor, and Fred Bennion of the Agricultural college.

W. H. Davey, E. H. Lang and D. J. Fitzgerald were elected to the board of directors to succeed D. J. Charles, W. M. Tuohy and A. J. Davis. The remaining members of the board who are holdovers are: A. R. Currie, John Gillie, Louis Drebbels and L. O. Evans.

The "welcome committee" was named.

GARBAGE GODS GETTING GAY

Again Propose to "Save" the City. Three Bids Submitted. Matter Will Come Up Saturday Night.

At a meeting of the city council last night contracts were received from J. H. Kelly, W. J. Walsh and Faulkner & Shea, on the garbage and ash disposal proposition, but as the mayor thought the best way to settle this question would be in committee of the whole, the contracts were not read at length and the council will sit as committee of the whole Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock to consider the contracts at length. Until such a time no action will be taken on this particular matter. Although the council is on record as being opposed to the contract going to anyone not a resident of Butte, Kelly of Iowa is on the job, believing he has sufficient local backing to put his contract over.

Mayor Maloney thought that the citizens of the Third ward should themselves name a successor to the late John Hanratty, alderman from that ward, and Aldermen John Holland of the Third was asked to call a meeting of the residents of his ward to take the proper steps and the council will act on the recommendations of this meeting at the next council meeting, Jan. 31. The meeting of the citizens of the Third ward will be held the evening of Jan. 27 at the city council chamber.

A committee of three, consisting of Aldermen Hageman, Fletcher and Hardcastle, was appointed by the mayor to draw up a memorial on the late Mr. Hanratty. The council also voted to send Commissioner W. H. Ellis to the seventh annual meeting of the Montana Institute of Municipal Engineers to be held at Helena Jan. 20 to 22.

CAMP LEWIS BOYS RETURN

Thirteen Hundred Reach States After 13 Days on Trip Over There. Broke Camp Friday, the 13th.

(Special United Press Wire.) New York, Jan. 16.—The cruiser St. Louis has arrived with 1,300 men from Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Montana who belong to the 346th field artillery. They were loaded down with trophies from the battlefields. Twenty cases of influenza developed during the voyage. Of 1,200, 300 are sick or wounded. All were trained at Camp Lewis and sailed for France July 13. As they were on the eve of going into battle, the armistice was signed.

The 346th embarked from Brest Jan. 2. The trip was uneventful except on the second day out the ship ran into a severe storm. There was one death from influenza. The returning artillerymen were given an enthusiastic reception upon their arrival here.

The army band played patriotic selections as they passed ashore and they were greeted by representatives of the Salvation Army and the Red Cross and the "Y." Immediately following debarkation they will be taken to Camp Merritt. Later they go to Camp Lewis for demobilization. The boys of the 346th are confident their lucky number is 13. From the time they sailed from New York until they returned, "13" followed them with the best of luck. They sailed from New York July 13. Passed the Statue of Liberty 13 minutes past 1, thirteenth hour. They were 13 days going across to England. They left Camp Desloge, France, for embarkation home on Friday, the thirteenth, and reached Brest after 13 days' journey returning to America. The doughboys are very enthusiastic over number 13. Some even declare 13 Germans were killed around the camp stove which they were using in a French camp.

Decision to Continue Sunday Wise One, as Many People Are Crowding the Show Daily.

The poultry show will continue to attract large and interested crowds and the decision to continue the show through Sunday is considered a wise move for otherwise many people who have been unable to visit the exposition would be disappointed. The large attendance demonstrates that the poultry industry in Butte is rapidly becoming large.

One of the interesting and illustrative features of the show yesterday was the demonstration of the canning of chicken by Mrs. R. G. Young. Mrs. Young, who is in charge of the home demonstration work for the farm bureau, is thoroughly acquainted with her subject and gave some valuable pointers to housewives yesterday. She will give these demonstrations during the remainder of the show here. The annual banquet of the association will be held this evening.

SHOULD PROBE A LITTLE FARTHER

Says American Union. Carnegie Gave $100,000 to the National Security League, Is Latest Revelation.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Now that the congressional investigation into the finances of the National Security league has revealed the existence, hitherto unknown, of a contribution of $100,000 to league from the Carnegie corporation of New York for the purpose of fastening compulsory military training upon the country, the American Union Against Militarism in a letter to Chairman Ben Johnston of the committee has suggested that the latter subpoena the officers of the Carnegie corporation and require them to disclose what further sums, if any, they have been secreting for propaganda purposes in this country.

The Carnegie corporation of New York has the complete control over $25,000,000 set aside by Andrew Carnegie in 1911 "to be used to promote the advancement and diffusion of knowledge." Carnegie himself is president, with Ellhu Root and Henry S. Pritchard as vice presidents. Unlike most of Mr. Carnegie's philanthropic enterprises, the Carnegie corporation of New York has been exceedingly reticent regarding its activities. Trow's New York copartnership and corporation directory for 1917, in its reference to the Carnegie corporation, gives the names of its president, vice presidents and secretary and adds significantly: "Further information unobtainable."

"Your investigation," says the American union in its letter to Congressman Johnston, "has brought to light a contribution of $100,000 from the Carnegie corporation of New York. Through the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Mr. Carnegie promotes peace; through the Carnegie corporation of New York he promotes war, thus doing what he conceives to be exact justice to these utterly conflicting forces. Attempts to find out what further subsidies, if any, the Carnegie corporation has been granting to various propagandas have been unsuccessful. We venture to suggest that your committee, having already turned up a secret contribution from the corporation to a zealous militaristic organization, might if you pursued the inquiry, bring to light others even more significant."

The executive committee of the American Union Against Militarism includes Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of the Nation; Amos R. E. Pinchot, Herbert S. Bigelow, Miss Zona Gale, Oswald R. Lovejoy, Henry R. Massay, Mrs. Agnes Brown Leach, Alexander Trachtenberg, James H. Maurer, Crystal Eastman, and Chas. T. Hallinan. Its headquarters are in the Westory building, Washington, D. C.
