BUTTE SOLDIER IS SURPRISED

He Left Butte With Brass Band and Glad Hand of Trench-Dodgers. Return Is Quite Different.

Corp. Frank Fitzpatrick joined Uncle Sam's fighting forces and left for the front May 15, last year. He returned last Saturday with an honorable discharge, nearly all of the eight months he was away being on the Mexican border. Fitzpatrick is a miner and has been gassed more than once in the A. C. M. hot boxes. He is a man of family and well known in Butte.

He joined the Soldiers' Sailors and Workers' council yesterday, after looking over the local situation and says he thought the fight for democracy was over, but finds now it has just begun.

Fitzpatrick, in a conversation with a Bulletin man this morning, said: "I am grateful for the way we were sent away—music, cats, glad hand, smokes and the Lord only knows what else, but it sure gets my goat to return and find the A. C. M. proposes now to strip us of our uniforms."

"I have in my pocket a certificate stating that I may wear my uniform four months after discharge, and by God, I'm going to wear it. And more than 1,000 other returned Butte boys are going to do so, I believe from what I hear."

"We may be called on soon again to help in another war, and I am afraid that the American people will never stand for another draft if the capitalists are going to pull the strings they are pulling in Butte."

"I find that practically everyone in my neighborhood that a few days ago were against the strikers have today turned against the A. C. M. since they read the notice issued by Lieutenant Germer that we are to be stripped of our uniforms."

"It appears to me that the A. C. M. is so anxious to have bloodshed and riots in Butte that they are going the limit in giving orders to Major Jones' troops."

"I believe the government will take drastic action when it finds Major Jones acting as he is. I hope so, anyhow."

SWEDISH RADICALS ISSUE MANIFESTO

Stockholm, Sweden. The left wing of the socialist party of Sweden the Young People's Socialist League and the Swedish soldiers' and working men's council, have joined in issuing a manifesto, in which, after calling attention to many undemocratic conditions within the country they put forth the following demands as a program of these three organizations: (1) The formation of a socialist government supported by the workmen's, soldiers' and peasants' councils all over the country.

(2) A republican form of government; (3) the abolition of the upper chamber of the parliament; (4) the immediate convening of a constitutional assembly on the basis of an unlimited suffrage for men and women above 20 years; (5) immediate abolition of militarism; (6) a systematic raising of wages for all working men and civil service employees; (7) the immediate introduction of the 8-hour day; (8) the confiscation of estates held by companies and of crown possessions, and their distribution under the control of the various communities, among the working classes.

WELL KNOWN MINER IS DEAD

Thomas Heaney, 38 years of age, a native of Ireland, a resident of Butte for 20 years died this morning at the residence of his brother, Patrick J. Heaney, 545 N. Franklin street. He has worked in all the principal mines in Butte, his last work being at the Nettie mine. He was survived by a brother, Patrick, in this city, a sister, Mrs. Sullivan, in New York, a brother and sister in Ireland. The remains will be taken to the home of his brother, Patrick tomorrow. The funeral will be held Saturday at 9:30 a. m. and, in accordance with his wishes, will be private.

There is as much difference between a league of governments and a league of nations as there is between a league of bosses and a league of working men.

COMING BACK TWICE

Kid Gleason Isn't Big, and He Was No Great Shakes as a Big League Pitcher, but He Has Reached the Top Rung on the Baseball Ladder.

HAMILTON TELLS HOW THE "KID" DID IT

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent.) (Copyrighted, 1919, by United Press)

CHAPTER VIII. When Clarence Rowland assumed the responsibilities as manager of the White Sox the team that Comisky was grooming to fight for a world pennant was badly in need of a coach. Things were going along in a so-so manner and the men were not delivering as they should. Consequently, during the winter of 1916-1917, the Old Roman succeeded in coaxing Gleason away from his eastern business and back into baseball.

The effect was noticeable at once. The individuality that Gleason always seems able to impart to young players under his tutelage developed at once in the youthful players assigned to infield positions by Rowland. In Sweden Risberg, Gleason found a willing pupil for his fighting ideas, and he developed in Risberg an absolutely fearless, scrappy shortstop who stands even today as an exponent of old-time baseball—the kind of baseball the Orioles played.

Down the flag end of the 1917 season the White Sox charged, a weary crew, fighting off attack after attack from the Tigers and Red Sox. For a few days it seemed the superior fighting ability and stronger pitching staff of the Boston team would deprive

The Ladies' Aid society of the III Norwegian Lutheran church was entertained by Mesdames Scelland and Ring at the hall last night. An excellent program was given after which refreshments were served.

The following officers have been elected by the ladies' auxiliary of the congregation, Adah Israel: President, Mrs. F. Katz; secretary, Mrs. Max Recht; treasurer, Mrs. B. Hurwitz.

Several more witnesses were examined yesterday at the hearing coming out of the contest of the seats in the legislature held by democrats from this county, brought by the republican candidates. Among the witnesses was Henry Cloke, who testified to a Miss Foley being voted when not registered, but being sworn in. William Conroy of 30 East Quartz street said that when he went to vote, he was informed that he had already been voted.

A Valentine tea will be served this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mrs. B. K. Wheeler's, 1232 East Second street, assisted by the Ladies' Aid of Grace M. E. church. A splendid program and lunch have made these teas very popular. All are invited to attend.

The Woman's guild of the People's church is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clark, 2071 Harrison avenue. Election of officers is on the program. Mrs. D. Clark and Mrs. J. Brown will be hostesses.

Edward Keeley, son of Mr and Mrs. W. J. Keeley of this city, arrived from Deer Lodge yesterday to spend the day with his parents. Young Keeley recently returned from France and is now located at Deer Lodge.

Mrs. S. Larsen, a former resident of Butte, but now living on a ranch near Billings, has been awarded the custody of the 2½-year-old child of Harold Lamoureux, whose wife died two months ago. Mrs. Larsen had had the child ever since it was six months old, and the mother had also been living with Mrs. Larsen. The case was heard in Billings and several witnesses from Butte testified.

The Floral Park Dorcas society of the Bethany English Lutheran church is meeting this afternoon at the church, and the newly-elected officers are being installed. A program has been arranged. Madame Cloybourn is entertaining and serving refreshments.

Butte lodge 240, B. P. O. E., will have more than 50 new members at the meeting tonight. The team has been working overtime for the past month and the initiation promises to be full of surprises, both for the ones who enter the lodge tonight and the old-time members. The troupe now preparing for the grand minstrel show will also hold a rehearsal after the meeting tonight, and every member is requested to be in attendance.

The Young Ladies' sodality of St. Mary's parish will give a Valentine dancing party tomorrow evening at Hibernia hall, Centerville. A large orchestra has been secured for the affair and a pleasant time is anticipated. The officers are Margaret Comba, president; Miss N. Kelly, vice president; Miss Mary Crowley, secretary, and Miss C. Murphy, treasurer.

DEMOCRACY

Why is it that a few business men can get together to fit the cost of living to the wage scale and when a body of workers get together to fit a wage scale to the cost of living the whole machinery of city, county, state and federal government is set in motion against them and the worker loses his status as a human being and is stabbed and jabbed literally and verbally?

What is the answer? Why the discrimination? It's a poor rule that won't work both ways. Is justice for the few? Why not have some of our safety-first warriors disperse the community thieves who aspire to "fix" the living costs and whose work is more deadly than that of any man of any organization?

'UNCLE TOM'S CABIN' SHOWN AGAIN TODAY

Liberty Theater Presenting the Story That Never Grows Old. Theater Packed. Go Early Is Advice.

Manager Welling of the Liberty theater yielded to pressure from many who could not see "Uncle Tom's Cabin" before and will show the great picture again today.

"Although the picture carries a great appeal for grownups," said Mr. Welling yesterday, "I would like to have every child in Butte see it. The story of Uncle Tom and Topsy and Little Eva is not new, but it has become a part of our national history."

The theater was packed all day yesterday and in the morning a full half hour before opening time, a large crowd of children were waiting for admittance. When Uncle Tom appeared on the screen he received salutes of applause, perhaps on account of the fact that the spectators realized this is the last film he will appear in. On the other hand, applause is spontaneous as a tribute to his great acting.

Yesterday the steamboat troubadours, a colored musical troupe, furnished a delightful vaudeville act at the Liberty.

FIND BOYCOTT IS A BIG JOB

(By United Press.) London, Jan. 30. (By Mail).—British associated chambers of commerce have been unable to devise any effective method of boycotting Germany with its 70,000,000 inhabitants, despite demands for the boycott from every locality. Resolutions declaring boycotts have been passed in all of the big English colonies. In England, France and Belgium hotel men's associations have resolved to refuse to house Germans as guests.
