Borah Sounds Warning to Senate Regarding the League of Nations

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Borah, speaking today in the senate, demanded that Americans be given a vote on the league of nations' constitution before the United States government binds itself under a compact. He warned that unless the people are now afforded this opportunity to express their unclouded opinion they will "take the opportunity later to speak their mind."

Borah said: This plan involves a change in our constitution and that kind of a question should be submitted directly to the people. We, their agents, have no authority to decide it for them.

He said that statements that the constitution of the league did not interfere with the principles of Washington or doctrine of Monroe is "not founded on fact."

"WARM" RECEPTION IS AWAITING PRESIDENT

Washington, Feb. 21.—The navy plans an aerial demonstration when President Wilson arrives off the Pacific coast. Wilson has requested that the ceremony at Boston in his honor be brief on account of the necessity of his early return to Washington.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Sherman today introduced a resolution requesting President Wilson not to discuss the league of nations at Boston.

The president is "requested not to discuss the treaty until he has talked to the committee and congress."

The preamble says the senate is as much a part of the treaty-making power as is the president, and that so far it has not been taken into his confidence respecting the league.

It is generally considered in the senate as a retaliation for the president's request that congress refrain from discussing the league until after the White House dinner.

Wall Street and U.S. Junkers Say Two More Bond Issues

Bankers Base Opinion on Belief That Government Will Need $10,000,000,000, Quotes Secretary Glass. Expect Loan of $6,000,000,000 in Spring to Be Followed by Another of $4,000,000,000 in Fall.

While the average person is thinking of one more big government bond issue, there are bankers in Wall Street who rather expect to see at least two more of these flotations, basing their opinion on the belief that the government will need all of the $10,000,000,000, which Secretary of the Treasury Glass has already requested, and that it will be impracticable to attempt to raise this huge sum in one offering. If a Victory Liberty loan of $4,000,000,000, which is the amount generally ex-

STRIKERS FIRM IN JEROME CAMP

Forty two Arrests in Two Days; Mob Violence Is Urged by Kept Press of Copper Autocrats.

Latest reports from Jerome, Ariz., where 3,000 mine workers are on a protest strike against a 75-cent wage cut, indicate that the strike is still unbroken. Hundreds of the strikers are leaving the camp, however, as it is felt that the surplus of labor in Jerome can be relieved in no other way.

Forty-two arrests were made on the first two days of the strike. Representatives of the department of justice arrived in Jerome on the 11th, and all the night and the following day were consumed in grilling the prisoners. As a result, five of them were held for federal investigation.

On the 13th, 25 of the men were taken before Judge Adams. They asked for a postponement, in order that they might have time to secure counsel, but this was refused. After a fare of a trial, the defendants were remanded back to jail and the sentencing postponed until the following day.

On the morning of the 14th, the men were taken out in squads of seven and photographed. Doubtless the copper company has acquired these photos already for its private blacklist album.

On the same day, they were taken again before Judge Adams and sentenced to 25 days in jail. Among the number were three boys recently discharged from the army. It is thus, the copper barons reward the unfortunates of the country.

Several of the committeemen had been baited out to defend the interests of the I. W. W. organization. The judge revoked their bail on the 13th and they were thrown back into jail.

An effort to break the strike was made by central labor body (A. F. of L.) on the 12th. A mass meeting was called in the Jerome opera house and speakers urged the strikers to return to work. But when a call for funds was made, only one man voted to return.

An evening paper came out on the same night urging mob violence against the I. W. W. and even suggesting a deportation party (a la Bisbee). Only the presence of federal troops prevented such an outrage.

On the 13th a group of men attempted to break ranks and return to work. There were so few of them, however, that the bosses turned them back. There must have been much food for reflection for them in a situation where the masters did not even let them scab. At present the United Verde is standing idle and the spirit of the strike is still firm.

BETTING FOUR TO ONE NATION STAYS "WET"

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—The price of beer goes up Monday. Have selling it at 3 cents will be forced to raise it to 10 cents and those selling it for 10 cents will jump to 15 cents. Better grades of whisky will be 20 cents and 25 cents a drink. Payment of heavy liquor tax is given as the reason.

Gamblers believe the country will not go dry. Betting here is four to one the nation stays wet. In one poolroom, where many bets are taken, it is said few are willing to take the dry side of the bet.

To Victims of Major Jones' Bayoneting Expedition

The Bulletin calls the attention of the citizens of Butte to the fact that Major White, judge advocate of the military court, with headquarters at the court house, is desirous of obtaining the names and addresses of all those who were "punctured" by the troops under Major Jones during the late efforts of the A. C. M. to "subdue" the people of Butte. Major White has been instructed by the war department to get names, addresses and affidavits from the victims of Major Jones' soldiers.

We learn that between 30 and 40 citizens were stabbed with bayonets during the strike. Major White has the names of about 15 and is securing affidavits from them today. These 15 men are nearly all miners, several of them being on picket duty at the time they were wounded in the battle for democracy. What is desired now is that those people not on the picket line and not employed in the mines shall come forward and make their affidavits and show their wounds. Several citizens of Butte were jabbed with bayonets and hit with the butt of guns on downtown streets while attending to their duties and in no way encouraging the soldiers to attack them. These citizens, on behalf of and at the request of the United States government, should make it a point to call on Major White at the court house this evening and be prepared to make their statements and show their wounds. Major White will be leaving Butte soon, probably tomorrow, and this duty to Uncle Sam on the part of the injured citizens of Butte, victims of bayoneting, should not be delayed until tomorrow. Go to the court house this evening or tonight and meet Major White, who has guaranteed that the names and addresses of these wounded citizens will not be relayed on the sixth floor of the Hennessy building—will not be given to the A. C. M. to increase their blacklist, but will be held strictly confidential by him and the war department of the United States government. Attend to this—THIS EVENING—you victims of reconstruction and democracy as interpreted by Major Jones and the Anaconda Copper Mining company.
