LEM YOCK SAYS

HE NO SABBY

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Feb. 25.—Lem Yock, proprietor of a Chinese lottery, sold some tickets and went to jail; then he bought some tickets and got out of jail. No wonder he said, when he left the police court today:
"Me no sabby. Poffemen say I sell tickets; I go to jail. Judge he say I no buy tickets, I stay jail. Walla malla?"
The Celestial was taken into court on a charge of selling lottery tickets. Police Judge Oppenheim allowed him his freedom upon the condition that he purchase 10 tickets to the policemen's annual ball.

JIM PICKENS ANSWERS CALL

Death Taps on Shoulder of "Big Jim" Pickens, the World's Champion Driller; Well Known Here.

A message from Mammoth, Ariz., announcing the death of James Pickens, brought sorrow to thousands of miners in Arizona, Nevada, and Montana.
"Big Jim," as he was known to his friends, was a member of the famous drilling team of Pickens and Page, champion drillers of the world.
A giant in stature, standing 6 feet 4 inches in his stocking feet, and weighing 255 pounds in condition, brave as a lion, as speedy as a bantam.

Pickens and Page were the undefeated champions of the world from 1907 until death tapped Big Jim on the shoulder.
Drilling used to be the sport at every celebration in mining districts. During their career Pickens and Page won $50,000 in purses and bets, and a monster gold cup in Madison Square gardens. The president of the A. C. M. offered $500 in addition to the purses to any team from Montana to beat Pickens and Page, and even went so far as to send a team of drillers back to Madison Square gardens to compete in the world's champion drilling contest, but they proved to be but amateurs compared to Pickens and Page.
Big Jim is dead. The world may never see his equal. Peace to his ashes.

VAGS AND DISTURBERS BEFORE POLICE JUDGE

Alleged vagrants and disturbers of the peace were before Police Judge P. J. Whitty yesterday in short sessions of the municipal court, several of them drawing fines. W. W. Wilson, charged with disturbance, forfeited his bond, as did a man and a woman, charged with being drunk, while Jake Winkle was fined $10 on a charge of being intoxicated. Despite the supposition that Butte is dry, an occasional case where over-indulgence has been the cause of arrest is brought to the attention of the court.
James Williams and Jerome Schiff were fined $50 on city vagrancy charges. Charles Jaffki and Cleo Muntzer were fined $10 each on city vagrancy charges while Harvey Hoyer was sentenced to 10 days in jail on a state vagrancy charge.
Ivan McKibbin and Harvey Walker were each given a 30-days' jail sentence on a state vagrancy charge, but sentence was suspended on condition they leave town.

INFLUENZA IS NOT UNKIND

(By United Press.)
Melbourne, Jan. 28.—(By Mail.)—The Spanish influenza epidemic which has attacked the antipodes is radically different from the type of the disease prevalent elsewhere in the world, is the belief of Dr. Robertson, chairman of the board of health for Victoria, Australia.
Dr. Robertson points out that the rate of mortality in Australia is low. The state of New South Wales and Victoria have declared quarantine against the disease which is characterized as "pneumonia influenza," causing all metropolitan theaters, dance halls, and meeting places to be closed. The New South Wales cabinet has decided that the wearing of anti-influenza masks be made compulsory.
Since Jan. 21 only 337 new cases of the disease were reported in Melbourne, with only 27 deaths resulting. There were only 12 cases in Sydney, two of them being considered serious.

Premier Clemenceau may be playing some foxy game of politics, but we would like to know what foundation there is for his recent statement that "I am told that some of these gallant American soldiers, who lived in trenches, slept in dugouts and burrowed in the mud in devastated and war-torn France, when they crossed the Rhine and in an undevastated land found clean beds and baths, rather regret that they fought on the side of freedom and would rather have fought on the side of the murdering Germans." No wonder there is talk of moving the peace conference from Paris.

REFUSE LLOYD GEORGE COMPROMISE OFFER

(Special United Press Wire.)
London, Feb. 25.—Representatives of the triple alliance, the miners, railway men and telephone workers, are meeting to map out a common program regarding demands to be made upon the government and to decide whether a general strike shall be called.
The miners did not yield an inch in last night's parliament meeting, replying to Lloyd George's offer to compromise.

BOLSHEVIKI STUDENTS MAN MACHINEGUNS

(Special United Press Wire.)
Berne, Feb. 25.—Bolshevik disorders have broken out in Graz, the capital of Styria, and a former province of Austria-Hungary, where severe fighting is in progress, according to latest advices.
Students, with bolsheviki tendencies, are said to be using machine-guns against the government forces, who have been reinforced by workmen.

MUNICH BOURGEOIS PRESS OUT OF COMMISSION

(Special United Press Wire.)
Berlin, Feb. 25.—With the restoration of order in Munich under the administration of the newly formed soviet government, the Bourgeois press is reported to have been prohibited from publishing for 10 days. Martial law has been proclaimed in Augsburg following the calling of a general strike there.
