SECURE JURY IN BRAY CASE

Man Charged With Killing Farmer, Wife and Her Escort Is Placed on Trial.

Charged with murder, Martin Bray who killed his former wife and K. S. Showers, her escort, May 16, 1918, was placed on trial in Judge J. J. Lynch's department of the district court yesterday.
Temporary insanity and an irresistible impulse will constitute the plea of the defense, Bray's attorneys, Wellington D. Rankin, Leslie B. Solgrove and James J. McCaffrey announced. That Bray is responsible for the death of Mrs. Bray and K. S. Showers is admitted.
It was not until the state and counsel for the defense had exhausted peremptory challenge that a jury was selected at 6:15 o'clock last night. The state began introduction of testimony at 10 o'clock this morning.
Bray Still an Invalid.
Bray, who has not yet recovered from the effects of a wound sustained when he fired a bullet through his own skull, was brought into the courtroom in a wheel chair. Apparently he took but little interest in the proceedings and scarcely moved a muscle during the long ordeal.
Although the self-inflicted wound has healed, it has left a deep impression, nearly an inch deep, in Bray's skull. The defendant's only indication of agitation was given when he occasionally passed a nervous and faltering hand over the scars created by the gun which refused to kill its owner, after slaying two other persons.
The state is represented by County Attorney Joseph R. Jackson and Chief Deputy County Attorney Nick Rotering.
The jury is H. P. Gill, Hugh Fagan, T. B. Woolfahan, Ralph Richard, Ed McKendrick, W. J. Marks, John Quinn, W. S. Leonard, M. McGowan, Henry Lawre, David J. Jones, James O'Leary.
Counsel for the defense moved yesterday morning that the case be dismissed on the grounds of insanity. Affidavits of two physicians, Dr. R. C. Monahan and John F. Lathka, were introduced in an attempt to prove that Bray is an insane person. The motion was denied by Judge Lynch.

EAGLES HAVE AN ENJOYABLE TIME

Entertainers From Local Play Houses Help to Make the Smoker a Big Success.

Songs and comedy chatter by special entertainers and general fun by all in attendance made a great success of the smoker staged by the Butte Eagles in their club rooms on West Granite street last evening. This was the first social event of the kind staged in many months and lengthy explanations can be cut short by saying that the smoker was put on in regular Eagle fashion.
Eddie Price, accompanied by Misses White and Cox, entertainers at the Finlen hotel, opened the program with mirth-provoking songs and stories. They were followed by "Big" Ben Linn, of the Pantages bill at the Broadway this week, James McNeill, John Connors, Will Meshea and James Shea added to the program with late song hits.
Miss Genevieve Elliott, daughter of J. H. Elliott, an old-time Eagle, was greeted with considerable applause after the rendition of several talking songs. One of the features of the evening was the reading of a poem written by the young singer's brother, Herbert Elliott, still with the American expeditionary forces in France. It follows:
DON'T VOTE THE OLD STATE DRY
"From far across the ocean
We are sending an appeal;
As to a certain thing that is going on,
And to tell the way we feel.
"We left the good old U. S. A.
To come here to do or die;
And while we're gone away,
They want to vote her dry.
"We left the place in very good shape
The day we said good-bye;
And we are coming back some day,
Or know the reason why.
"We came over here to do a job,
And all intend to stay;
Until everything is settled,
In a Yankee-Doodle way.
"It makes us sore to hear one say
I believe she is going dry;
And to think we cannot do a thing,
No matter how we try.
"When we sailed away and came across,
We left it all to you;
To take good care of everything,
Is what we expect you to do.
"Don't put our home town on the bum,
While we are in France;
Why not wait until we all get back,
And give us all a chance.
"If they vote dry and dim the lights,
And let the ban on beer;
We might as well not go back at all,
But stay right over here.
"When we get back and meet old friends,
It will be a great 'Hello';
But I guess we will have to stay at home,
For there will be no place to go.
"This is the voice of all your buddies,
Who are fighting tooth and eye;
And do them all a favor,
Don't vote the old town dry."
In charge of the program last evening were Otto Simonson, Eddie Sullivan, Jerry Sullivan, Don King, Eugene'Brien, Thomas Walker and Bob Hutchins. William Malloy presided as toastmaster.

THREATENS FORMER WIFE'S HUSBAND

R. B. Lilly Is Taken Into Custody — Is Charged With Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Accused of threatening to take the life of the husband of his former wife, R. B. Lilly was arrested last evening at 5 o'clock by City Detectives Cusick and Morrison on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. James McLeod, 447 South Dakota street, husband No. 2, is named as the complaining witness.
According to McLeod's story as told at the time of the arrest, Lilly threatened to take McLeod's life several months ago. Last evening, McLeod averred, Lilly came to his house before he (McLeod) had returned from work and there brandished a gun. Mrs. McLeod, formerly Mrs. Lilly, and mother of a child born less than a week ago, sent one of her children to warn Mr. McLeod to bring an officer to the house. The child failed to find the father.
Without being seen by Lilly, McLeod got to a telephone and notified police headquarters that help was badly needed, according to his own story. The city detectives were soon on the scene and Lilly was taken to jail. No gun was found in his possession.
After returning from the city hall Mr. McLeod alleges he looked under the pillow of a bed on which Lilly sat when the officers entered the house and there found a big leather holster containing an Iver-Johnson .38-caliber revolver in the cylinder of which were four cartridges.
"The Shepherds Feed Themselves and Feed Not My Flock"
By Maj. Guy M. Kindersley, O. B. E.
We died in our millions to serve it,
The cause that you told us was ours,
We stood waist-deep in the trenches,
We battled with Hell and its powers;
Broken and shattered and helpless,
We rotted by land and by sea,
For the dream you held before us,
The dream of a Freedom to be.

Miss Anna Lynch, teacher at the Emerson school, who has been critically ill with pneumonia, is recovering. Her three sisters, Miss Julia Lynch, teacher of penmanship at the Butte high school; Miss Loretta Lynch, teacher at the McKinley school; and Miss Veronica Lynch, teacher at the Lincoln school, are teaching again after an enforced vacation of several weeks, due to severe colds. Miss Anna and her three sisters join in grateful and hearty thanks to their countless friends who favored them with flowers and attention during their illness.
When you are over-worked, feel listless or languid, or when you can't sleep or eat, better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain tea. Liven you up, purifies the blood, soothes and regulates the stomach, makes you eat and sleep. A real spring medicine. 35c, tea or tablets.—Adv.
Because, according to her complaint, her husband kicked her, choked her, slapped her and abused her in other manners, Rachel May Shea has brought divorce proceedings against John Thomas Shea.
According to a complaint signed by the county attorney Mrs. Mary Tallon has deserted her husband and four children in order that she may live with John Doe Schultz, a Mexican. Schultz and the woman are charged with vagrancy.
You must clean the stomach and bowels, purify the blood each spring, or you will leave winter's germs and impurities in your blood and system. Drive them away, clean out the stomach and bowels—take Hollister's Rocky Mountain tea. A spring cleanser, purifier; 35c, tea or tablets.—Adv.
Tom Kelly, former chief auditor, has returned to his home in Butte after spending several months in France with the American expeditionary force. He was mustered out at Cheyenne, Wyo., a few days ago.
At the city library yesterday was received a sleek engraving portrait of the late Charles X. Larabee, principal donor and founder of the institution. It was hung on a wall of the main room, near the entrance.

The Public Library
City departments and city officials have received much adverse criticism the last few years. They have merited all they got. But the one branch of the public service in Butte which has met only commendation—and deserved commendation—is the public library on Broadway and Dakota. From the big engraving in the basement to the flag that flies from the tower the city library is—well, satisfactory, eminently satisfactory.
The staff of assistants is uniformly courteous, capable and helpful to all patrons. The chief librarian, Miss Ruth Sultzer, has administered her responsibility since Miss Nichols went to the service of her country in France, with tact and capacity. She has been a success. She has kept the library service up to the high standard of excellence mapped out by John Davies and by Miss Nichols herself.
There is, apparently, no attempt in the Butte library to bar out certain books and periodicals because their teaching shows a trend toward progress—what is sometimes known as radicalism. All social theories, radical as well as reactionary, are given an equal chance, impartially. Apparently the library board and the librarian are equal to their jobs. They know what their duties are. They are there to serve all the public—not merely a portion of it.
The present head of the public library is not by any means a radical; but neither is she a scissorbill. She is not a radical; but she does not hate all radicals. She is, in fact, a tolerant, broad-minded, capable woman with long experience in library work, and possessing a marked talent for administration. There could not be found in Butte a more satisfactory chief of the Butte public library than Miss Ruth Sultzer. By all means she ought to be retained in charge till Miss Gertrude Nichols returns from the Red Cross service in France.

50,000 WANTED FOR OVERSEAS

Men Can Select the Branch of Service They Desire; Are Assured of Early Sailing.
Sergeant Herrmann of the local recruiting station of the United States army today received a call for speedy enlistment of all men who desire overseas service. Fifty thousand men are wanted at once for the American expeditionary forces and they can be assured of sailing at an early date.
In addition the men will be allowed to select the branch of service they prefer, only a few branches being restricted. The men will be enlisted for three years without being required to serve four years in reserve as was the case in the old regular army before the war.
John David of Boyd yesterday signed up for three years in the infantry. He was one of the last men drafted, being sent to Camp Lewis Sept. 3, 1918, and was discharged from the Forty-sixth company, One Hundred Sixty-fourth brigade, Dec. 5. He declares that his short acquaintance with the army convinced him that it was a pretty good place and in addition he was anxious to travel. His wish will be gratified, and he will be sent to join an infantry regiment with the American expeditionary forces.
BOL-SHE-VEEK!
By EDUND VANCE COOK.
Government requests that all citizens desist from the use of nicknames, such as "Wop," "Mickey," "Dago," "Guinea," and so forth.—Recent Associated Press dispatch.
I mustn't call you "Miky" and you mustn't call me "wop."
For Uncle Sammy says it's wrong and hints we ought to stop; But don't you fret, there's still one name that I'm allowed to speak.
So when I disagree with you I'll call you bol-she-veik! veek! veek! It's a scream and it's a shriek; It's a rapid fire response to any heresy you squeak.
A little while ago, at any time I might determine, I didn't like your theories, I called you "pro" and "German"; But times are changed and appellations quickly grow antique. So now I have a better name: I call you "bolshchvik!" bolshchvik! veek! veek!
Your brains have sprung a leak! Your new ideas are redolent of Russia's crazy clique.
No, I mustn't call you "nigger," and I mustn't call you "nunny"; It's plainly impolite to dub you "dago," "wop" and "guinea"; But whenever I perceive your mental mixtures growing weak I joyfully arise and proclaim you bolshchvik! bolshchvik! veek! veek!
It's a classical critique; It says more in a word than you can answer in a week.
You believe in votes for women? Yah! the bolshchvik! do. And shorter hours? And land reforms? They're bolshchvistic, too.
"The recall," and other things like that are dangerous to seek; Don't tell me you believe 'em or I'll call you you bolshchvik! bolshchvik! veek! veek!
A reformer is a freak! But here's a name to stop him, for it's like a lightning streak.
"B" stands for bolshevism and the reason that it stings Is because the bolshchviki do some stupid, wicked things; And so it's plain your mental marches run at left oblique.
If I can hang a tag on you and call you bolshchvik! bolshchvik! veek! veek!
It's a bingle on the beak! I mustn't call you names, so I shall call you bolshchvik!
