He was made prisoner by the Huns after landing in his disabled plane, however.

SENTENCES DOG TO DEATH.

A Spitz dog owned by the 13-year-old daughter of Timothy Shea was yesterday sentenced to be shot by Police Judge Grimes. Mrs. Mary Murray alleged in police court that the dog had bitten one of her children, and, despite the plea of Mr. Shea that the animal had been his daughter's playmate since babyhood, the Judge was adamant.

THEATERS

AT THE AMERICAN.

"The Third Degree" is indeed a contribution to the screen classics. Miss Alice Joyce, as the heroine, immediately wins her audience with her innate artistry.

The story is of a son of the leisure class who marries a proletarian girl and is disowned by his father. Alone in the house of a friend on the night of the latter's suicide, he is accused of murder.

He is then put through six hours of that great American machine of justice—the third degree—and after being bullied and belabored for that length of time, confesses the crime of which he is innocent.

Then comes the inspiring part of the story where the little proletarian fights tirelessly for her life-comrade until she finally enlists the services of the greatest lawyer in the city. She finally proves him innocent, and at the price of her own honor, shields the woman who was the real cause of the suicide. The other woman's better nature, however, triumphs and she confesses her part in the affair.

The yapping of the mongrel press at the heroine when it was thought that she was dishonored, is remarkably true to life, and the untiring battle of the girl for her lover makes a theme which arouses the richest of the emotions of the audience.

The acting is superb throughout and the picture is one that none will regret having seen.

THE EMPRESS.

"The Third Degree" is being presented at the Empress this week in a manner which delights audiences. The play is a particularly heavy one, and in spite of the fact that there are a few minor manifestations of lack of time for preparation on the part of the players, it is pleasingly presented.

Mr. William G. Mayo, as Richard Brewster (who sacrifices his business ambitions in the interest of justice) has again proved himself to be an artist of undoubted ability. Mr. Mayo plays his part with unvarying earnestness and intelligence. He never loses sight of the fact that he is portraying as is noticeable on the part of some of the more brilliant, perhaps, but also more erratic characters.

Mr. Alf Layne, as Captain Clinton, of the police, portrays this character with his usual perfection.

Miss Mary Newton, as Mrs. How and Jefferies, Jr., rises considerably above her usual standard. There were tense dramatic situations where Mary arose magnificently to the occasion and still others where she hurried through as though wishing to finish quickly some unpleasant task. The most we can say of Miss Newton is that she is an empress to us.

Mr. Howard Jefferies, Sr., was well played by Miss Daisy D'Arcy, whose emotions though never exaggerated, are always convincing.

Howard Jefferies, Jr. and Sr. were played respectively by Val Howland and Ted Mellowan. These parts were of minor importance and offered small field for the expression of histrionic talent.

Robert Underwood, the spurious "art collector," was admirably played by Harold Hutchinson.

Miss Dorothy Mitchell, no matter how minor her part, never fails to delight the audience with her radiant personality. To those who do not contemplate seeing "The Third Degree" we would suggest that they go to the Empress first.

PATRICK LEAHY, OLD-TIME MINER, IS DEAD

Patrick E. Leahy, 57, an old-time miner in the Butte district, where he was well known to hundreds of miners, is dead. He was employed until recently at the Badger mine.

J. Murphy of Montreal, and one nephew, Edward Murphy, shift boss at the Emma mine.

DISTRICT COURTS HAVE BUSY SESSIONS TODAY

The Montana Auto & Garage company was granted a stay of execution of 60 days pending the determination of a motion for a new trial. James Kearney some days ago won a judgment from the garage company for $1,200 and costs.

The company had sued Kearney for payment of a big repair and storage bill on his Chalmers car. Kearney came back at them with a claim for $5,000 damages to his car, and indirectly to his person, as a result of that same repair work and of a careless habit, he alleged, the garage people had of exercising his car too liberally at night when it was supposed to be in its stall. The garage company put up a stay bond of $1,800.

The suit of J. E. McMaker against Sadie McDonald was continued to June 12.

Catherine Ann Elwood was granted a decree of divorce from Thomas Elwood this morning by Judge Dwyer.

The suit of Marco J. Medin, heard in Judge Lamb's court, against the Butte Summit Copper company resulted in a judgment for plaintiff. Medin was substituted as plaintiff for J. H. Simpson. It was a squabble over money alleged to have been advanced for wages.

The case of Jennie Simmons against David Willard, et al, is a controversy over the ownership of some mining claims. It is being heard in Lamb's court today before a jury.

METAL MINE WORKERS FOR ONE BIG UNION

The Metal Mine Workers' Union of America, Butte local, held their regular meeting last night at their hall on 101 South Idaho.

The meeting was well attended and much work was discussed and outlined in the interest of the miners. Naturally the splendid effort of the Canadian workers was taken up and the rise and foundation of the One Big Union of the dominion was explained by several members. Deepest sympathies were expressed and when a motion was put to the effect that a lettergram be sent conveying greetings and asking what assistance the metal miners could give in any shape or form, the members responded by voting unanimously in favor.

The new wage and condition demands are before the members for their ratification, and will be up for a referendum vote from next Thursday to Monday night.

There is every reason to believe that the One Big Union of Canada will be or is already an accomplished fact and that being the case the Metal Mine Workers' Union of America look forward to the hour when their organization will be able to swell the master move and line up with the fellow workmen across the line.

Judge and Mrs. W. O. Speer returned yesterday from southern California, where they had been for several months. The judge was around greeting his old-time friends yesterday afternoon, who all congratulated him upon his robust appearance, and he admits he feels a great deal better than he did when he left Butte last fall. Jokingly, he remarked that he had seen more sunshine in a few hours in this city than he had experienced in weeks recently in California.

There is nothing worse than bad, foul-smelling breath; get rid of it for your friend's sake, anyway. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will clean and purify your stomach and bowels; your breath will be sweet, your disposition improved, your friends increased. 35c tea or tablets.—Adv.

There is renewed activity in business circles all over the state, according to Harry T. Marsh, type and press machinery salesman for the C. L. Johnson Manufacturing company of St. Paul, who left Butte Tuesday for Helena and Great Falls. The printing business seems to be on the increase Mr. Marsh said, with other lines, and there seems to be a scarcity of printers everywhere.

You can't cover blackheads, pimples, red spots on the face with powder, they're bound to be seen—don't worry or spoil your temper, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea each week—it will banish them through the blood, the only sure way. 35c.—Adv.

Last Sunday morning, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers, 418 1/2 South Idaho street, was made happy by the arrival of a baby girl. The little one tipped the scales at seven pounds. Mr. Powers is the popular manager of the Fashion Barber shop. Both mother and child are doing nicely.
