Editor Bulletin:
Enclosed find 75 cents for which please credit my brother, Lusk M. Iverson, P. O. Box 7, Leavenworth, Kan., with one month's subscription to your paper which he in today's letter speaks of as follows: "We radicals here consider this paper about the best there is, and our spirit is not weakened by persecution but strengthened by it. The class struggle to a finish. This war was on our part for the benefit of American capitalism and no amount of phrases can obliterate this fact."

My brother refused to entrain when ordered to do so a year ago by the local exemption board (May, 1918). He had complied with the law to the limit of his self-respect in that he had filled out questionnaires, appeared for several physical examinations, etc., but he could not humiliate himself further and he shipped to camp. He spent some time at Ft. Snelling where he suffered many indignities such as being stripped and flogged with a razor strop, (decree of the kangaroo court there). June 7 he was taken to Camp Dodge where on July 9 he was tried by general court martial—detention, understood he remained quietly here at home at his apprehension—went fishing, wrote letters—a dangerous man but the sheriff could not make himself do the dirty deed of conveying him to Ft. Snelling but deputized another man to take him in a car as he was going through to Minneapolis anyway. He remained at Camp Dodge until December 4 when he was transferred to Leavenworth (federal) with a 20-year sentence to serve. I might quote what Debs' brother wrote me recently of Gen. "They may break his body but his spirit—never!"

We must have a general amnesty and back pay to all the men for the whole period of their incarceration. You are at liberty to use any of the information relative to my brothers. He was formerly state chairman of the socialist party of S. Dakota and a delegate to the convention at St. Louis.

The following might be of some interest to you:
As I was walking down one of the main thoroughfares of Missoula this morning, I saw two gentlemen in a very heated argument. One, a young small gentleman and the other was a large fellow about six feet tall. After they had argued for about ten minutes, they came to blows. The result was the little fellow got the best of it. I inquired from some of the bystanders about this trouble and they informed me that the young fellow was a son of a prominent merchant in this town and the big man was Mr. Larry Daly, who was formerly a bartender in this city. He last tended bar at the Florence hotel. It is understood, now, that he is employed in Butte as a detective for the Clark interests. Mr. Daly's home is in this city and he came home to attend the funeral of his son, Courtney Daly. I am enclosing an article from the evening paper, the Sentinel, of this city. From what I can learn Mr. Daly's son had been employed by the father of this young gentleman and while in the employ of this store, the father, Mr. Daly, came in and abused his son, Courtney, and it seems as though the people he was working for took the boy's part and they have been on unfriendly terms ever since, but the Daly boy that drowned was a chum of this merchant's son and they thought a great deal of their friend, Courtney, and seemed very much grieved at his death, so when the young gentleman was walking down the street he met the deceased boy's father and fell moved by the friendship that he had for his son to say "good morning." As he said "good morning" to Mr. Daly, Mr. Daly turned around and called the boy some names that would not look good in print and told him never to speak to him, that he and his whole family were everything but what was good and that they were half-breed Indians and the young boy tried to apologize to the older Daly, but Mr. Daly seemed persistent in calling him vile names, which I heard across the street, so the young fellow pitched into Mr. Daly and gave him a good licking.

This is an example of the type of men that these detectives or gunmen are made of.

Editor Bulletin:
Of course, sympathy and support would not be accepted by the striking commercial telegraphers from anyone except their own working class brothers. To this same crowd of overworked and underpaid keymen the workers should take off their hats and lend their active aid toward reorganization, for reorganization it seems they should have. Since their fight is our fight, and their defeat is our defeat, our workers should be directly concerned.

According to press reports, President Koenekamp of the commercial telegraphers union, Burleson for the defeat of the telegraphers. Any kind of a person at all, with any kind of a mind at all—a mind that is not sealed against very apparent facts and common ordinary thinking, must know, they cannot help knowing that the failure of the commercial telegraphers rests primarily with President Koenekamp and his associate officers. They know, from ordinary reasoning, that Burleson and the wire control will never yield except to the strong arm of industrial organization that would include the commercial telegraphers in one big union of communication and transportation. President Koenekamp need not blame Burleson until he blames himself first. He and his associates have held their well paid positions by keeping the commercial telegraphers apart from their fellow workers and sending them to certain defeat.

President Koenekamp cannot side-step his responsibility for the defeat of his men in this strike and the consequent weakening of the cause of organized labor. He is one of a great number of "old form" and "machine" labor chiefs holding well paid positions and determined to maintain themselves at any hazard to the rank and file. Like the others of his kind, he would not come forward and fight for "one big union" and thus do all that he possibly could to make his men strong and successful; like the other old line labor chiefs he will sit tight and help defeat the workers sooner than they shall have the form of organization and the strength they must have to win their battles. The most dangerous foe of labor today is the old line labor chief.

UNIVERSITY PREPARING FOR STATE FAIR EXHIBIT

Missoula, July 8.—The state University of Montana is now preparing its exhibit for the state fair at Helena this fall. The exhibit will be larger than usual on account of the increased space that it is to be allowed this year. Dr. Morton J. Elrod, of the department of biology at the state university, is chairman of the university committee in charge of the exhibit.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS

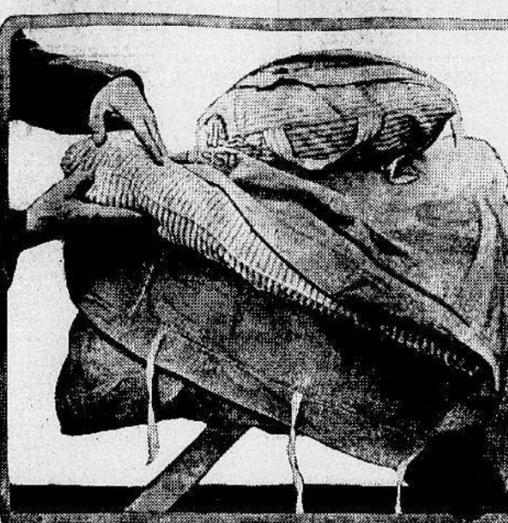

A VERY FINE START

By ANISE in Seattle Union-Record.

There is a grand idea
Our Uncle Sam has started
In his Federal Board
For Vocational Education.
And it works THIS WAY:
Tony was a FOUNDRY WORKER
Before he was drafted.
He was CASSED at Soissons
And nearly lost an EYE,
And after the HOSPITAL
Was THROUGH with him
He wasn't strong enough
To hold a job;
So the Federal Board
Looked after his family,
Coddled him back to health
And taught him better English.
And because foundry work
Was too HEAVY for him,
They had him taught the trade
OF TOOL MAKER.
And supported him
While he was learning,
And GUARANTEED him a job
When he had finished,
"Because," they said, "we OWE
A decent chance in life
To all OUR BOYS
Wounded in the war."
Then there was Jim W.,
Who got tuberculosis,
And because he knew a bit
About machinery
They are training him
To be an expert MACHINIST.
And there was Corporal S.,
Who smashed his KNEE
And couldn't hold down
An outdoor job any more.
He was a good writer,
And they are giving him
A course in JOURNALISM.
You see, this BOARD
Will give you ANY training
You seem to NEED,
And PAY you while you take it.
And find you a job,
Not a CHARITY.
But just a RIGHT,
If only
You have been wounded
In the Great War,
Because they know
It is better for the country
To have contented
And self-supporting workers,
Instead of BUMS.
It surely seems like
A very fine start
To a very big scheme,
For maybe some day
Our UNCLE SAM
Will give the SAME chance
To men who have been hurt
In INDUSTRY,
And then it might occur
To Uncle Sam
As a BRIGHT IDEA
In avoiding bums,
To GUARANTEE a JOB
And a CHOICE of training
To ALL of his BOYS,
Even if they HAVEN'T been CRIPPLED!

COMFORT FOR OUR MERCHANT SAILORS

The mattress and pillows used in the berths of the sailors and firemen aboard government-operated merchant vessels not only are comfortable, but make the life preservers. Their filling is a soft, resilient tropical fiber known as kapoc, which will sustain 25 times its own weight in salt water for 48 hours.

About Advertising

SOME PEOPLE think
ADVERTISING IS simply
SPENDING MONEY.
BUT THE wise man knows
IT'S THE surest way to make more.
THE ONLY problem is,
WHAT MEDIUM to use.
CIRCULARS AND hand-bills
COST A LOT of money,
BUT YOU give them away,
SO NOBODY wants them
ON THEIR front porches.
NOR IN their morning mail.
THE MAN on the street
PAYS REAL money
FOR HIS newspaper,
AND THAT'S why he values it
MORE HIGHLY
THAN A circular.
HE BRINGS his paper home
SO THAT every member
OF THE family
CAN READ and enjoy its
BREEZY, up-to-the-minute
news
AND PROFIT by heeding
THE HOME-TOWN merchants'
BID FOR their trade,
AND THAT'S a good reason
FOR ADVERTISING
IN A newspaper.
AND NOT only that,
BUT
THE MERCHANT using hand-bills
AND CIRCULARS hopes FOR TEN READERS to the hundred bills—
IF WILLIE delivers the 100.
WHEREAS the newspaper advertiser
IS SURE of at least four readers
TO EVERY copy of the paper.
AND THEY all read and heed
HIS ADS.
AND THAT'S why he always
LOOKS PLEASANT
AND GROWS fat in the BANK ACCOUNT.
