WILSON CONFERS WITH REPUBLICANS

Senator Sherman Says Japan Will Become an "Asiatic Kaiser"

HUNGARIAN SOVIETS WOULD FIGHT THE WHOLE WORLD

FOOD SITUATION IS BECOMING SERIOUS

(Special United Press Correspondence.—Copyrighted.)
By BING.
Vienna, July 17.—Bolshevik Hungary is like a wounded lion at bay and stands ready to fight the whole world in defense of the soviet government. Yet a small allied army, especially if it included American and British soldiers, could crush the reds easily.

PROFITEERS GETTING BUSY

Associated Industries of Montana Points Out the Menace of Arbitrary Price Increases.
The action of many Butte profiteers in raising the prices of necessities coincident with the announcement that the mining companies had granted the workers a restoration of the dollar a day cut from their wages last winter has become so flagrant, it is stated, that even the industrial corporations have been compelled to step in and combat the profiteers.

WILL PROCLAIM A REPUBLIC.
(Special United Press Wire.)
Paris, July 17.—Communist chiefs have announced a soviet republic will be proclaimed in Vienna on July 21, say Vienna dispatches. It is feared bloodshed will follow the proclamation.

FATE OF PRIVATE STOCKS CONSIDERED
(Special United Press Wire.)
Washington, July 17.—The fate of private stocks of liquor will be considered by the senate judiciary committee, framing prohibition enforcement laws. Attorney Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league declared "we want to prevent the home from becoming a speakeasy." He said possession of liquor in the home should be limited.

City Council Rejects All Printing Bids; Hold Busy Session

The temporary abandonment of the plan to create a huge paving district in the southwest end; declarations of intention to pave a number of alleys; a discussion of the project of opening Arizona street across the Northern Pacific right of way; the project to abandon the city hall and to move city offices to the courthouse; and the rejection of all bids for city printing, were features of last night's regular meeting of the city council.

FRISCO WELCOMES PRESIDENT OF IRELAND

(Special United Press Wire.)
San Francisco, July 17.—The tri-color of the Irish republic floats over public buildings in honor of Eamonn De Valera, president of the Irish republic, who is expected to arrive here late this afternoon. Mayor Rolph will formally welcome the distinguished Irish revolutionary leader and San Francisco generally will outfit itself in showering honors upon De Valera.

Southsiders Present.
The council chamber was filled with residents of the south side who are interested in having a crossing established over the Northern Pacific tracks on Arizona street. The residents of the district involved object to having to travel so far to reach the downtown district from their homes, and assert that the installation of a crossing over the tracks at Arizona street would shorten their journey by a considerable distance. There were a number of railroad officials from St. Paul and other cities present to fight the proposal. The matter was finally temporarily disposed of by the council's action in fixing July 22 as the date for a public discussion of the project between city officials, interested property owners and residents and railroad officials.

Report Filed.
The report of a select committee on the question of transferring the city offices to the courthouse, and abandoning the city hall was presented and filed. The committee reported that the county commissioners were willing to rent office space in the courthouse to the city, but be-
