SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT.

SILVER BOW COUNTY, MONTANA

NOLA COUGHLIN SANGER, as administratrix of the estate of Leslie Sanger, deceased, Plaintiff, vs.
SOPHIE HUGUENEL, Julia Evert, Elsie Lademan, Emma Deutche and Sophie Hugueneil, Emil Hugueneil, Elsie Hugueneil Hornberger, August Hugueneil, Emma Hugueneil Ostermann, August Hugueneil, Carl Hugueneil, Anna Evert, Fritz Evert, Elsie Lademan, Ida Lademan Probst, Emma Lademan Reckisick, Otto Lademan, Hedwig Lademan, Oscar Lademan, Matilda L. Wyley, Martha Lademan, Paul Lademan, Kurt Lademan, Clara Lademan, Matilda Hiltz, William Deutche, German Lutheran Church of Butte, Montana, a Montana corporation, German Lutheran Church of San Jose California, a California corporation, Rudolph Probst as executor of the last will and testament of Leslie Sanger, deceased, and Francis P. Garvin, as alien property custodian of the United States of America. Defendants.

SUMMONS.

THE STATE OF MONTANA SENDS GREETINGS TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANTS:

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the Clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default, for the relief demanded in the complaint.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF THE NATURE OF THE ACTION.

The plaintiff is the administratrix of the estate of Leslie Sanger, deceased, appointed May 3, 1919, by the above-named court, that the said Leslie Sanger died intestate while in the American Expeditionary Forces in the Republic of France, on October 27d, 1918, leaving as his sole surviving heirs and next of kin Dorothy Isabelle Sanger and Hazel Margaret Sanger, both under the age of eight years.

That Louise Sanger died testate on or about the 8th day of March, 1918, and by her will she left all of her property, with the exception of five hundred dollars, to the above-named defendants, they being her blood relatives; that she was the stepmother of Leslie Sanger, and Leslie Sanger was the legitimate son and sole surviving blood relation of Peter Sanger; that Peter Sanger died testate on the 24th day of March, 1915, and by his will left all of his property to said Louise Sanger, now deceased, except the sum of one hundred dollars, which was left to said Louise Sanger; that Rudolph Probst is the executor of the will of Louise Sanger, deceased, by appointment of the above court, and lives in Silver Bow County, Montana, and there has in his possession all of the property left by Louise Sanger; that the following named defendants, who are legatees under the will of Louise Sanger, deceased, are citizens of and reside in the German Empire, at the places following their respective names:

August Hugueneil, Bischweiler, Germany.
August Hugueneil, Bischweiler, Germany.
Cari Hugueneil, Bischweiler, Germany.
Anna Evert, Berlin, Germany.
Fritz Evert, Berlin, Germany.
Elsie Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Emma Lademan Reckisick, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Otto Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Hedwig Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Martha Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Paul Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Kurt Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.
Clara Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.

That the following named persons are next of kin of said Louise Sanger, deceased, and also reside in the German Empire at the places following their respective names:

Sophie Hugueneil, Bischweiler, Elsass, Germany.
Julia Evert, Berlin, Germany.
Elsie Lademan, Sierenz, Ober Elsass, Germany.

That Francis P. Garvin is the acting alien property custodian of the United States of America and as such is entitled to the possession and control of the property of alien enemies; that Louise Sanger left property in the possession of the said Probst as executor of the said Peter Sanger, deceased, of the appraised value of Sixteen Thousand Six Hundred, Thirty-five and 48-100 dollars; that all of said property is personal property and, subject to the costs and charges of administration, rightfully belongs to the two children of Leslie Sanger, deceased, for the following reasons alleged in the complaint:

LEGAL NOTICE.

about the 1st day of April, 1915, the said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, was the legitimate son of Peter Sanger, deceased, by a prior marriage, and was the only lineal descendant; and that Louise Sanger, deceased, was the wife of the said Peter Sanger at the time of his death and was the stepmother of said Leslie Sanger, now deceased. Plaintiff alleges upon her information and belief that on or about the 1st day of April, 1915, the said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, resolved, by reason of the unnatural disposition of his property made by the said Peter Sanger, deceased, as shown by his said will, and by reason of the undue influence exercised over the said Peter Sanger, deceased, by the said Louise Sanger, deceased, in the making of said will, in keeping the same in force against the interest of said Leslie Sanger, deceased, and in favor of herself, to appear in said court and to contest said will of Peter Sanger, deceased, and to oppose the probate thereof for the reasons herein given; that the said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, notified the said Louise Sanger, deceased, of his said resolution and intention; that thereafter, on or about the 1st day of April, 1915, at Butte, Montana, the said Leslie Sanger and the said Louise Sanger mutually promised and agreed between themselves that he, the said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, would refrain from appearing in said court and contesting said will, and that in consideration thereof, she, the said Louise Sanger, now deceased, would by her last will and testament, leave all of her own property and all property that she received under the said will of Peter Sanger, deceased, to said Leslie Sanger, now deceased; that the said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, relying upon the said promise of Louise Sanger, now deceased, did refrain from appearing in said court, and did not contest the said will of Peter Sanger, deceased, but instead allowed and permitted the said Louise Sanger, now deceased, to obtain and possess the property given her by said will, and also permitted her to administer said estate of Peter Sanger, deceased, as executrix, and fully kept and performed all of the terms and conditions of the said agreement to be by him kept and performed; that, as appears from the said will of Louise Sanger, now deceased, said Louise Sanger, now deceased, disposed of her property otherwise and in disregard of her said promise and agreement; that at the time of said promise and agreement Louise Sanger, now deceased, was childless and that she was of the age of about sixty years and was of sound mind, and said Leslie Sanger, now deceased, was then of the age of 29 years and in good health and of sound mind.

Plaintiff alleges that by virtue of the premises, plaintiff is in equity and good conscience entitled to all of the estate of Louise Sanger, deceased, after the payment of all just debts and expenses of administration.

Plaintiff prays for a decree of this court declaring plaintiff entitled to the residue of said estate; that none of the defendants, except the defendant Rudolph Probst as executor of the last will and testament of Louise Sanger, deceased, has any interest therein, and that the said defendant, Rudolph Probst, as executor aforesaid, be directed on distribution of said estate to distribute and turn over to plaintiff the residue thereof. Plaintiff prays for such other relief as may appear equitable and for costs of suit.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this 28th day of July, A. D. 1919.

CHICAGO WITHOUT CARS

at the mass meeting the car men sprang a surprise by rejecting the compromise and voted to strike within a few hours.

Horse-drawn cabs and automobiles are filled in the running yards, while the taxis received from the owners demanded. Bidders offered starting sums for transportation to the loop and even the ice wagons are carrying passengers. Telephone service is hard hit, operators being slow in getting to the switchboards.

CHINESE BOYCOTT CUTS OFF JAPS RICE SUPPLY

(Special United Press Wire.)
San Francisco, July 29.—The Chinese boycott as a protest against the Shantung award, has cut off the greater part of the Japanese rice supply, causing a serious condition in Japan, according to Americans arriving from Shanghai and Tokio. The poorer people of Japan are compelled to mix potatoes and other foodstuffs with their allotments of rice, which is the nation's staple food.

FOOD RING EXISTS

unch handling the Hood River fruit, which reaches the market later.

Mr. Hull said that he had been "punished" by the commission "ring" for trying to buy independently—punished by having his supplies of other commodities cut off and by various annoyances. Mr. Hull presented the commission with a large mass of detailed information regarding costs, losses by decay, buying and selling methods, margins and profits, etc. He was inclined to think the brokerage man performs a proper function, on the whole; and that he may be classed as a useful member of society.

A. T. Kennedy, manager of the Virden & Currie company, showed himself extremely ignorant of the connections which his firm might have with other corporations. He knew nothing about the stockholders in the company—their names, or their interests in other produce firms. He thought the records of the Virden & Currie Co. were all in the possession of A. R. Currie, who is now traffic manager for the Ryan Fruit company.

Mr. Kennedy did state, however, that the California Fruit Growers' association, of which Mr. Virden is the head, was in complete control of the citrus market.

And Mr. Kennedy claimed that the banana supply of Butte is controlled absolutely by one man, George L. Hughes. Bananas may be purchased from nobody but George L. Hughes from the commission.

The commission adjourned late yesterday and will not resume the food probe until after the special legislation session is concluded.

PACKERS IN CONTROL.

Washington, July 29.—Ability of the "big five" packers, Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and Wilson, to determine from day to day the general level of livestock prices was declared incontrovertible in the third section of the federal trade commission's report on the industry made public yesterday. Information obtained in the commission's investigation was cited to show that the "big five" have an interest in 28 of the 50 principal market yards of the country and a majority of voting stock in 22 others. It was said they buy most of the livestock sold at these markets.

They discriminate against and put at great disadvantage independent buyers, who are their competitors, the report said. "They manipulate on occasions the livestock market in such a way as to cause extremely and unwarranted fluctuations in the daily prices paid for livestock. They have eliminated many competitors and prevented new ones from coming in. They have restricted the meat supply of the nation by manipulating the livestock prices, and thus discommoding the producers of livestock. Of the meat trade in the hands of interstate slaughterers in the United States, the five big packing companies have more than 73 per cent of the total. They have the prices of dressed meat and packing house products so well in hand that, within certain limits, meat prices are made to respond to their wishes."

PERJURY DISCOVERED IN A. C. TOWNLEY TRIAL

Documents Prove State's Witness and County Attorney Swore False.

St. Paul, Minn., July 29.—Proof of perjury committed in court by both Attorney E. H. Nicholas and F. A. Teigen, now in the hands of Non-partisan league lawyers, furnishes an interesting sidelight on the recent prosecution of Joseph Gilbert and President A. C. Townley for sedition.

The gross perversion of court machinery and the clear evidence of a framoup against the two representatives of the organized farmers, have made the conviction secured of value to the league rather than to the opposition. The new evidence heightens this effect.

Called as a witness for the defense, the Jackson county attorney testified under oath that he had no correspondence with Teigen except the telegram telling him to come to testify. The league lawyers had called Nicholas to the stand as a part of their proof that a state-wide conspiracy, expressing itself in the Jackson county charges, existed.

Documents Prove Perjury.

Now the league lawyers have in their possession a mass of documents showing that for more than a year the two corresponded frequently about anti-league plans and also documents showing beyond doubt that Teigen was employed by Charles Patterson, the St. Paul capitalist, and wrote his book against the league, which appeared under the pen name of "Dr. Mum."

One of these letters, written over a year before the trial and now made public by the Minnesota Leader, reads as follows:

"Jackson, Minn., April 18, 1918.
"Mr. F. A. Teigen,
"St. Paul, Minnesota.

"Dear Mr. Teigen: I sent you a letter on March 27th, but a mistake was made and it was addressed to Minneapolis instead of St. Paul, and has just been returned to me. I have had several meetings down here in different towns, and talked over this matter with the business men, and it seems to me that the time is right for immediate and vigorous action.

"Yours very truly,
"E. H. NICHOLAS."

The following letter, which passed from Teigen to Patterson, shows the connection between the two and is undoubtedly a plea to Patterson to make good on earlier promises:

"Dear Mr. Patterson: I have Mr. Shoemaker's library here. Mr. Ingalls has practically finished his expose of the league and I have, I believe, the matter of a permanent arrangement fixed. I was supposed to have paid these people today for good faith and that I promised to pay, believing that I should find myself in a position to do so, therefore I beg of you that if you can possibly avoid it do not disappoint me tomorrow when I call.

"Yours,
"F. A. TEIGEN."

This letter indicates that one Ingalls was employed by Teigen to do the actual writing, probably because Teigen felt he did not have the proper style. It would also indicate some reluctance on the part of the special interests in the Twin Cities to make good on promises of reward. This reluctance may easily be understood because the book failed to make any case against the league and, more particularly, not a word was said in it about the "disloyalty" of the league leaders to which Teigen recently testified as the state's star witness.

White Woman Injured.

A "flying squadron" of blacks mounted a touring car, and riding at full speed through the section known as "No Man's Land," sent a volley of shots at a group of whites. One white woman was injured, but not fatally. The negroes were arrested after a long chase.

Shortly afterward a mob of several hundred blacks formed at 35th street and began stoning a policeman. In a twinkling gunfire was opened and four of the negroes fell, all mortally wounded.

A white man in the same neighborhood was dragged from a truck and stabbed to death.

A negro chauffeur was killed by whites a few minutes later in the same block. Scores of arrests were made, but where the rioters were found to be unarmed they were released.

They refused to allow negro passengers to board their cars because of threats made by white passengers. A number of wounded negroes crept into alleys and other dark places. When they were found, they were hurried to the President hospital for colored people, which for several hours received a virtual procession of injured men and terror-stricken women.

The more seriously wounded negroes participated in a battle with whites near Thirty-fifth and State streets. Several thousands of blacks congregated at this point within a period of 10 minutes. It was an orderly gathering for a time. Suddenly four maddened negroes raced up the street and surrounded the home of a white man. In a twinkling shots began to fly in all directions. Perhaps more than a score of negroes fell.

For more than two blocks along one street negro snipers fired from housetops and windows.
