and do the same, as the ladies here are afraid to start the ball rolling. It is so bad here. There are, or at least, have been warehouses filled with eatables and lots of it rotting. In fact, some of the markets smell so bad I could hardly stand to do my trading.

fruit than ever.
"It's a fright the way they are abusing the poor people here. Yes, it is. Look it up yourself, as the officers here are as big crooks as any at least the most of them. They have the stores and warehouses filled to the brim. They are charging more now than they did in war time. They are advertising for more help and there are hundreds of men out of work. If you haven't got a pull with some of the head men or high muck-nucks then you are down and out."

"Please do come and do something so we can say we are free Americans. The business men here are all you say the business men are in Butte, or at least the majority of them are. I've tickled me greatly to read what you were doing in the Yakima Valley Daily American. If you come here yourself you can do better toward buying fruit for the people of Butte than you can by dealing through those commission houses."

"P. S. I remain your affectionate friend. I am a little girl, but I'dassent write my name. If I did the lord only knows what they would do to me. This is what I hear my papa tell about. He cried nearly every night because he can't earn enough for us to eat and we have no clothes to wear."
Mrs. Selin will make an effort through the Yakima papers to get in touch with the unknown writer.

Decision to ask for an adjustment of their wages at this time was reached by the men recently through a secret ballot. It was announced that the question of a general wage increase would be considered at an annual convention of the brotherhood at Detroit, Sept. 8.

No Agreement Reached.
The national committee for organizing steel workers was unable to reach an agreement of its meeting held at the headquarters of the American Federation of Labor to consider action to be taken by the union steel workers of the country following refusal of the United States Steel corporation to grant a hearing.

At an executive session lasting all afternoon the committee considered the strike vote recently taken by members of the 24 affiliated steel workers' organizations authorizing the committee to call a strike any time after Aug. 30. Members of the committee refused to discuss the attitude taken by committee members. John Fitzpatrick of Chicago, chairman of the committee, said tonight there probably would be an important announcement after tomorrow's meeting.

NINETY DAYS

The county who are better able to testify concerning bootlegging and moonshining than Commissioners Fabian and Conroy, especially the latter.

Bootleggers Alarmed.
When news of the county attorney's "invitation" to Messrs. Fabian and Conroy to give him first hand knowledge about illicit manufacture and sales of whisky—both the real stuff and alleged—there was a general search for the two commissioners by their bootlegger friends. Many of the bootleggers, it is said, feared that in the heat of passion on Monday afternoon Messrs. Conroy and Fabian might become too voluble.

Friends of the two commissioners were unanimous in declaring that the county attorney had "put one over" on the commissioners and had placed them in a difficult position. It was declared that if Conroy and Fabian really told what they knew, wholesale arrests of many of the two gentlemen's closest friends may result and if they other deny any knowledge of specific instances of prohibition law violations or refuse to tell Mr. Jackson (they place themselves in a particularly bad light with the decent citizens in view of their attacks on the county attorney's dry campaign) when Fabian and Conroy have indicated, are protecting the bootleggers.

Personal Quiz Probable.
It is considered highly probable that among the questions the county attorney will propound to Messrs. Conroy and Fabian will be ones aimed to determine just where the supplies consumed by the gentlemen themselves come from. Some of the commissioners' bootlegger companions humorously assert that no private store in the county was large enough on Jan. 1 to have supplied their wants until now.

withdraw from the league of nations. The committee adopted a reservation providing that all tariff, immigration and staidler domestic and political affairs of this country shall be determined by this nation without interference from other nations. It was announced that the treaty in its present form will be presented to the senate early next week.

FIRE CHIEF MARTIN PEEVED.
Fire Chief Fred Martin, he of the usually smiling disposition, is peeved. And naughtily small boys of the city are the reason. The chief asserts that youngsters of Butte have the habit of taking rocks and other heavy objects and battering the chains and caps on fire plugs with the result that the firemen often experience difficulty in attaching hose in case of fire. Boys caught pounding fire plugs will be arrested, says the chief.

SERB PRIEST SEEMS DAMAGED.
Alleging that the American Serbian Publishing company and the Serbian Orthodox society have greatly injured his reputation and good name and have deprived him of great profit and gain in his profession, Anta Jakosich, said to be an orthodox Serbian priest, yesterday filed suit against the publishing company and the Serbian society for $35,000 damages. Jakosich alleges that an article printed in the American Serbian, a paper published by the defendants, caused all the damage.

MORE WITNESSES

Frear said in addressing the general after he had been sworn as a witness. "It wants the truth, irrespective of politics and the only time that politics has been linked up with investigations was when the chairman of the democratic committee did so at Washington, and told us he would continue to charge it with politics. I am prepared to give you the facts backed up with documentary evidence." General Disque replied, after stating that he never had voted in his life, never had been interested in politics and never had had a political friend.

"Your letter to Secretary Baker, published today, is composed largely of unopinionated evidence and that part which is critical is largely falsehoods which I can disprove," the general continued. "To meet the truth, now I will name should be called as witnesses to refute the grossest misrepresentations ever put into a record."
Congressman Frear reminded General Disque that the committee was charged with making an investigation of an expenditure of more than a billion dollars by the aircraft board and that it could not promise to examine every witness the general desired to call. He also directed attention to the fact that the committee already has examined Lieutenant Colonel Stearns, present head of the aircraft corporation; J. J. Donovan, a director; Major Granmar, another director; and Major Morley, judge ad vocate, who was called as a witness at the request of the secretary of war.

His Army Career.
Introduction of testimony then was begun, the general first giving the committee a brief sketch of his army career. He testified that, after serving 18 years in the army, he resigned in December, 1916, to accept the wardenship of the Michigan penitentiary. He was then a captain of cavalry in the Philippines and located at Manila.
"How did they happen to send for you in Manila, 9,000 miles from here?" asked Congressman Frear.
"I am not familiar with the influences that were brought to bear," replied the witness.
"I received a cablegram at Manila offering me the position, and, after coming to the states and investigating it, I accepted."

BAIL IS WANTED

WITHOUT FAIL FOR THE

MEN WHO ARE IN JAIL

Hundreds of workers are literally rotting in the jails of this country because of their activity in the cause of Labor. Many of these victims of the world-wide class war are awaiting trial—and have been waiting for many weary months for the speedy trial guaranteed them by the United States Constitution. Others were tried and sentenced to terms ranging from one to twenty years during the period of war hysteria, and appeals in their cases are now being taken from King Capital drunk to King Capital sober.

Some of the prisoners have escaped by death, others are dying, many have contracted tuberculosis and other loathsome diseases, and all are suffering untold agony from close confinement in the fetid atmosphere, from insanitary and unhealthy surroundings, from poor and insufficient food, and from inhuman treatment accorded them by brutalized guards. But attempts to secure bail for all of these workers in jail have not been attended with great success because of the lack of system. Individuals sought to secure bail for their personal friends, and failing to get the necessary amount they returned what had been collected, thus making their entire efforts fruitless. This was the condition facing the delegates from all the western district organizations of the Industrial Workers of the World when they met in conference on July 3 and 4 in Seattle. The delegates solved the problem by an unflinching means—Organization.

A Bail and Bond Committee was elected to systematize the work of collecting bail and a nation-wide drive has been started to secure the loan of cash, Liberty Bonds and property sufficient to gain the release of all class war prisoners. With practically no advertising Six Thousand Dollars were raised in the first five days. More than Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are needed to release those now being held for their Labor activity.

Sums of Five Dollars and up are accepted as loans, and all cash, Liberty Bonds or property is tabulated in triplicate, one copy going to the person making the loan, another being retained by the Bail and Bond Committee, and the third being filed with the Trades Union Savings and Loan Association of Seattle, with whom all funds, bonds and property schedules will be banked.

Only those who have been proved loyal and trustworthy are being sent out as collectors. Everything possible has been done to safeguard this bail and bond fund, from the selection of the committee to the choice of the bank. A portion of the fund is being set aside to return loans on demand in case persons who have made them are forced to leave the country or have other reasons for making a withdrawal.

Bail will be used to release specified persons where that is desired, but otherwise the release will take place by a blind drawing of names, thus insuring fairness to all prisoners. By common consent the men in Wichita, Kansas, jail will first be released, as they have been held the longest and jail conditions are worse there than anywhere else in the entire country. This bail has nearly all been subscribed, and the men will be made accredited collectors when released, and their speedy release will help to set others at liberty.

No necessity exists for argument. Your duty is clear. If your ears are not deaf to a call from your class, if you feel that an injury to one is an injury to all, if there burns within you the faintest spark of humanity, you will see that the men do not remain behind the bars an unnecessary minute because you withheld your support.

THEY ARE WILLING TO GIVE THEIR LIVES FOR YOU!
ARE YOU WILLING TO LOAN YOUR DOLLARS TO THEM?
Send all cash, checks and bonds to John L. Engdahl, Secretary of Bail and Bond Committee, Box W, Ballard Station, Seattle.
Property schedules should be filed with Attorney Ralph S. Pierce, Room 607 Central Building, Seattle.
Butte Office, 318 N. Wyoming St., A. S. Embree, Bond and Bail delegate.

"Was there anything in your past experience that fitted you for the position?" asked Frear.
"I had had charge of military prisons in the Philippines and I think it was this and the knowledge that the board had of my army record that caused it to select me," answered the general.
"You will concede that it was a rather remarkable situation?" said Frear.
"Major Eastman will be here to-morrow and tell you all about it," replied the general.
Gen. Bruce P. Disque stated he had no difficulty in being reinstated in the army and of finally accepting the appointment as head of the spruce division against his will and as a matter of duty, after he had been ordered to France and was about to go.

His Present Position.
Bruce P. Disque went on to state that he owes his present position in New York city to the interest and introduction of John D. Ryan, former director of aircraft production, official of the Milwaukee road and a frequent figure in prior statements made to the house sub-committee.
"Testimony further advanced was to the effect that Mr. Ryan is a director of the American International company, sole owners of T. Amsinck & Co. of New York, of which Mr. Disque is president; and that the American International is also a stockholder in the Siemens-Carey company, present concern of the Siemens-Carey-H. S. Kerbaugh corporation, builders of the Olympic peninsula spruce line to Lake Pleasant."
"What is your position now?" queried Chairman James A. Frear of the committee, as the afternoon session drew to a close.
"I am president of T. Amsinck & Co., incorporated, an importing and exporting concern in New York city," answered General Disque.
"Who introduced you to the parties that gave you the appointment?" pursued the chairman. "Let me state it definite—John D. Ryan introduced you."
"He introduced me—he was one of the persons who introduced me," replied the witness.
"And recommended you for the position?" continued Chairman Frear.
"And recommended me for it," replied the witness. "In all probability, his recommendation had very much to do with my getting the position."
General Disque said that, at the close of the war, during a visit to Washington, he had introduced to Mr. Ryan that an ex-army officer, who had abandoned a civil position as warden of the Michigan penitentiary, was in a natural quandary concerning his future.
