GARY'S COSSACKS SHOOT AND BEAT WORKERS

YOUNGSTOWN STEEL COSSACKS RUTHLESSLY CLUB WORKERS

(Special United Press Wire.)
Youngstown, O., Oct. 14.—One man was shot, many were beaten and several were arrested when the strikers and the police clashed at the plant of the Carnegie Steel company here early today.
The rioting was precipitated when the police attempted to disperse a crowd of men who were stoning workers attempting to return to work.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 14.—Despite expectations of trouble following disorders early yesterday, last night passed quietly in the Mahoning valley district.

While the steel mill heads declared many men had returned to work, Secretary J. F. McFadden of the strikers asserted his men were still holding firm and backed his assertion by showing that of 27,000 who had quit in the district at Youngstown, East Youngstown and Lowellville, only 6,000 had returned to work. Estimates place the number of aliens who have left Youngstown since the strike began at 3,000. In order to take their places the companies have their places, the companies have started an influx of cheap negro labor from the south.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 14.—Strike leaders today denied the assertions of the steel companies that the strikers' ranks were being depleted. All of the strike leaders expressed general satisfaction with the situation and said they had had no reports of any considerable number of men deserting to the companies. They stated strikers were presenting a practically unbroken front.

Reports from throughout the Pittsburgh district last night gave evidence of no serious disorders.
