

Farmers and Workers of Miles City and Vicinity

Commencing Saturday, October 18, 1919, a concerted drive will be made by the Equity Co-Operative Association for the purpose of erecting a building large enough to house the ever expanding business, and also to provide meeting halls for the many unions of the city. A site has been secured for the building.

Committees from the Railway Federation and the Trades and Labor Council are actively co-operating with the Equity store. This campaign will be opened by a meeting in the Wibaux Hall Saturday evening, October 18th, at 8 o'clock. Workers and farmers and their families are invited to attend this meeting. A musical program, speaking and good social entertainment will be provided. All come prepared to enjoy a good time.

This store is operated on the Rochdale Plan which provides that each stockholder will receive 8 per cent on each share of stock, and will also receive a patronage dividend on each dollar's worth of merchandise purchased.

None but workers and farmers are eligible to membership. Shares may be purchased on the installment plan. Payments may be made as low as $5.00 down and $5.00 per month.

The Big Idea—Co-Operation

By DALTON T. CLARKE.

By DALTON T. CLARKE.
The greatest revolutionary force in the world is not armies and navies, but ideas.
The idea of the "divine right of kings" held the people of all nations in subjection for unnumbered centuries.
Surviving "the divine right of kings," the world finds itself enslaved by the idea of the "divine right of private property," and the working people are victimized by reason of their acceptance of the ideas of the right of capital to exploit them.
The workers have been led to believe that "capital" is necessary; that labor and capital are partners; that labor could not "do without" capital.
But the workers today are aroused. A revolution is at hand, and the moving cause is nothing other than an idea that the workers who operate the railroads, the mines and factories should operate them for the benefit of all the people instead of for the private profit of the few people who now own them.

One of the great contributing causes to this awakening has been the development of the Co-operative movement throughout the world.
Beginning with the operation of stores on the co-operative plan, the workers have found that they can manage wholesale houses, creameries, grain elevators, flour mills, bakeries, factories of all kinds, steamship lines, and even large tracts of farm land.
And the outstanding fact of their operation is that the workers can manage them more efficiently and economically than their former private owners.
This idea of production and distribution of the necessities of life through co-operation, not for profit but for use, is working a peaceful revolution. Within the present century a complete change in our industrial system will be effected.
Into a triple alliance of labor, with political and industrial action, welcome THE BIG IDEA—CO-OPERATION!

Education Essential to Co-Operation

FROM AN EXCHANGE.

The growth of the co-operative movement depends upon the spread of co-operative education among the people. Not only must the propaganda of the movement teach its aims and ideals, but it must teach the people the details of management and operation. In other words, the members must be taught the theory of industrial management and control by the workers themselves, so that the hired executives of our business organization may have intelligent support from the membership in putting the theory of co-operation into actual practice.
The National Co-operative association will therefore establish a co-operative newspaper for each section of the country as rapidly as the wholesale branches are opened. Each district should have its weekly newspaper and the whole movement should have a strong monthly magazine.
The monthly magazine issued by The Co-operative League of America has been adopted by the national as its official monthly magazine, and every co-operator is urged to subscribe.

The National Co-operative News, which will be the official national bulletin of the National Co-operative Wholesale Movement, will be issued from Chicago in order that co-operators all over the country may be kept informed as to the progress of wholesale and retail co-operation.
The Pacific Co-operative League, at San Francisco, is recognized as the official paper in California and the southwest.
At Seattle, the National is publishing semi-monthly the Northwestern Co-operative News.
Every member of every Co-operative store in the United States should be on the mailing list of the paper published in his district. As it is a practical impossibility to get every member personally to subscribe, the Co-operative associations themselves should subscribe for their members and pay for the subscriptions at wholesale rate from their educational fund. Every society should have such a fund and should see that its members are given a dose of co-operative news at least once every month.

WORKERS VS. CAPITALISTS

DOMESTIC

Also, some 30 non-union shops in the industry have been organized. The latest effort of the international officers to break the strike consists in their threatening to withdraw the right of using the union label from any shop that settles with the strikers.

New York Harbor Tied Up.
New York.—Again New York harbor is completely tied up, due to the fact that the longshoremen have gone on general strike. Bunching aside their officers, over 6,000 harbor workers walked out on Oct. 1 for a 44-hour week and a 25 per cent increase in wages. Every day more workers walked out, the total number now reaching almost 100,000. Their action has caused an absolute embargo on all trans-Atlantic shipments.

According to the strikers, the whole marine industry is out, including the longshoremen, carpenters, ship joiners, pipe fitters, riggers and others. They declare that they have been held off too long by their leaders with vague promises, and that they will now get for themselves what they have been demanding.

Shuttle Makers Win.
Paterson, N. J.—Shuttle makers in the Jacob Walder shop on River street have just won an increase of 20 per cent in wages after striking for 11 days. This is the biggest wage advance these workers have ever enjoyed. It is attributed entirely to the fact that the workers prepared for their struggle by organizing in the new industrial union the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America, which now has a flourishing local of over 3,000 members in Paterson alone.

Inspired by the victory in the Walder shop the 50 shuttle makers in the other shops of the city, including the L. A. Hall company and the Ulrich company have met and drew up a set of demands calling for an increase of 25 per cent in the wages of all men working on shuttles.

Why Cops Strike.
Baltimore, Md.—Apropos of President Wilson's denunciation of the Boston policemen's strike as a "crime against civilization," it is well to remember that the "cops" have so impressing a lot in life that their only remedy lies in the assertion of their rights through their organized power. The following incident regarding one of our Baltimore policemen shows vividly what the "cops" are up against:
"I have but two shirts, one of those an army shirt, and while the shirt I wear is being washed I am compelled to remain in bed," said Patrolman Franklin N. Thompson of the northern district, an ex-soldier, to Police Captain Charles E. Hurby at the station house recently when he handed the latter his resignation.

Patrolman Thompson claims that his pay, which is a little more than $15 a week net, as a probationary policeman, is insufficient for his living expenses. Continuing, Thompson said: "My shoes are about gone so I just have to quit policing or my wife and family of two children will suffer. Living expenses have advanced to such an extent that it is impossible for me to get along as a policeman's salary."

Thompson saw service in France with the Twenty-ninth division.

FRANK HEFFRON HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Deer Lodge, Oct. 16.—An early morning mist was responsible yesterday for a serious accident here, in which Frank Heffron of Anaconda was painfully injured and his automobile completely wrecked.

Heffron was starting out early in the day on a hunting trip. Because of the mist which hung over the town, he did not see a drinking fountain at the corner of Main and Missouri streets until his car smashed into it. After having his wounds bound up by a physician, Mr. Heffron took the train to Anaconda.
