BRNK HOLDUP FAILS

witnesses of the affair, the bandit, clad in coveralls and having the appearance of a truck driver, walked up to the cage occupied by Barker and, thrusting a neatly typewritten note and a folder, paper sack such as women carry purchases in, through the wicket, requested the paying teller to read it. Barker was busy counting silver coins and at first paid no attention to the request.

Cautiously drawing a gun from his pocket, the bandit shoved its muzzle through the wicket and in a low tone commanded Barker to read the note. He did. The note read as follows:

"Put all of the currency you have in the cage in this sack, then open your wicket and give it to me. One false move will be your last. Do it quick. Return this note in the sack."

According to Barker's story, he read the note and when he realized its contents, indignantly said: "I do no such damn thing," and opening a drawer secured his own gun. Whereupon the bandit turned and rushed for the door, turning and firing one shot as he ran.

A woman patron of the bank who stood nearby, said she saw the holdup man turn and fire one shot toward Barker just before he rushed out the door. All other persons present in the bank testify to having heard one shot, but none saw the man actually fire his gun.

Police men made a thorough search of the interior of the bank but failed to find any evidence of where a bullet had struck. It is thought that if the bandit actually did fire at Barker, the shell used was a "blank."

J. K. Heslet, cashier of the bank, who was in the adjoining cage to that occupied by Barker, was not facing the front when the bandit was supposed to have fired. Mr. Heslet was in the rear somewhere, according to his own story, making an effort to summon police men.

Mr. Heslet admitted having remained in his own cage sufficiently long to see the bandit poke his gun through the cage at Barker. Then he said he quietly walked out to the rear with the intention of summoning police assistance.

Mr. Barker said he fired no shots at the fleeing holdup because of the danger of hitting some of the other persons in the bank.

None of the other employees of the bank, it is stated, were aware of the attempted holdup until after they heard the shot fired and learned its cause, when Barker shouted, "Boys, it's a holdup."

The attention of Traffic Officer Thomas Walsh, who was stationed at the crossing of Broadway and Main streets, was attracted by the shot, but was not able to locate its source in time to intercept the holdup man, who walked from the bank to Green's and there calmly walked rapidly through the establishment to the rear and cut the back door.

From the employees of Green's a description of the man was secured by the police. He was described as being of medium height, slim build and active in his movements. He was clad in tan coveralls, a tan mackinaw, a khaki-colored chauffeur's cap with the ear flaps pulled down.

An element of the theatrical entered into the case when the employees of Green's described the bandit as wearing a "stringy, false-appearing beard and mustache and 'sneakers' or goggles."

Up to a late hour today neither the police nor sheriff's office had succeeded in capturing anyone even remotely under suspicion of being the bandit.

LIVINGSTON NOW COAL SCARCE, DUE TO SHORTAGE OF CARS
(Special to the Bulletin.)

Livingston, Oct. 28.—It has become known in union circles that a number of paid spotters are at work among the union men here in the interest of the A. C. M. newspaper in Livingston. These spotters came to Livingston over a month ago. One is said to be in the Federal Labor union, another is working in the railway repair shops and a third working among the train men. Besides these spotters among the union men, it is learned on good authority that there are two business men on the payroll of the big mining company looking after their interests, political and economic.

RAILROADERS DEMAND THAT SENATOR MYERS QUIT JOB
(Special to the Bulletin.)

Livingston, Oct. 28.—The editorial that appeared in the Bulletin a few days ago relating to the stand of Senator Myers on the Cummins bill, as outlined by the senator to the machinists of Great Falls, has caused considerable comment among local railroad men.

It is a good thing for Senator Myers that the recall is not a law, otherwise petitions would be in circulation for signatures to have the misrepresenting senator recalled.

"A large number of railroaders are advocating that petitions be circulated anyway, asking the senator to resign, seeing that he represents the forces of reaction and not the majority of the people of the state."

CO-OPERATION PROGRESSES.
(Special to the Bulletin.)

Livingston, Oct. 28.—Progress is being made towards the organization of a co-operative association here. The Federal Labor union appointed a committee to draft articles of incorporation for the co-operative store and the committee reports considerable progress.

Sabotage by the Bosses
By PUBLICITY COMMITTEE, L. W. U. No. 500, I. W. W.

The Spokesman-Review in its issue of Oct. 15, says one has to understand thoroughly the fundamental idea of I. W. W. in order to realize the necessity of eliminating the syndicalist element from big industries. But on the other hand, the people don't need to have any further understanding about the rotten, decayed, plutocratic and tyrannical capitalist system. The people have already decided that this dirty system, which finds it necessary to mob and tar and feather and murder workmen by the score and cause everlasting turmoil and starvation, must go.

The only thing that the people are not agreed upon is the solution to this problem, but if the majority understood the principles of the I. W. W., the capitalist system would not last six months. If the Spokesman-Review thinks it would be a good thing if the people understood the principles of the I. W. W., why then, do they misrepresent us and lie about our true aims. Why not give us access to the press and let our principles become generally known?

Just the other day I wrote an article of 150 words on things pertaining to the present lumber strike upon request of a representative of the editorial staff of the Spokesman-Review and they only published about 25 words and they substituted words that I didn't use at all.

They make false accusations of sabotage by the I. W. W. in an effort to keep the people in ignorance of the wholesale practices of sabotage by the capitalists, to wit: The cutting of one-inch board lumber a fraction of an inch less than the full inch. They apply the same sabotage to two-inch, three-inch and four-inch planks and also use the same

BAND PLAYS OLD WORKS; ORCHESTRAS CANNOT

In speaking of his development of what is regarded as the highest type of concert band in the world, John Philip Sousa has said:

"There are many of the greatest works of the old masters that an orchestra cannot produce, while there are few of these masterpieces that a perfectly balanced band cannot produce effectively and in the purest form. The band as constituted in my organization, therefore fills a position in the concert world that is broader, and with greater possibilities than any symphony orchestra can construct with strings."

Sousa will be here on next Thursday, at the Broadway theater, with his band and soloists, under the auspices of the Butte post of the American Legion.

"WHERE'S MY CHILD?" SHE YELLED—BANG! PINCHED!

(Special United Press Wire.)
Spokane, Wash., Oct. 28.—J. E. Gregg, sat in a hotel lobby. His wife, from whom he had just been separated, was passing. She entered.

"Where's my child?" she demanded.

Gregg shook his head in denial. The ex-wife fired point blank. Gregg ducked and the bullet hit the back of his chair.

Both were arrested.

WOODROW'S CABINET KEPT VERY BUSY

(Special United Press Wire.)
Washington, Oct. 28.—The cabinet met this afternoon at 4 o'clock to consider the threatened coal strike and to complete plans for a new national industrial conference.

The administration has received no reply from the United Mine Workers as yet, it was stated at the White House.

LIVINGSTON NOW COAL SCARCE, DUE TO SHORTAGE OF CARS

A. C. M. Company Sends Yards at Livingston and Stool Pigeons to Railroad Other Points Filled With Empties. Roads Mulct Government.

(Special to the Bulletin.)
Livingston, Oct. 28.—Livingston is faced with a shortage of coal. Dealers have sold out all their supplies of coal and few cars are being received. Dealers say that the coal operators of Carbon county claim they are behind 900 cars in their orders and cannot get empty cars from the railroads.

There scarcely is a month in the past, but that there is a daily average of 100 "bad order" freight cars lying in the Livingston yards awaiting repairs. Some months the daily average will go over the 200 mark. The same state of affairs exists at every freight division headquarters in the state.

Those in a position to know assert that there are at least 1,500 idle cars in Montana waiting repairs. Some of these cars have been out of service for months. If railroad shop officials would put to work more first-class car repairers these "bad order" cars would soon be in service, declare railroaders, and what is now idle capital would be earning money for the government, and the people would not be faced with a coal shortage.

"Playing sabotage on the government is a favorite pastime of railroad officials from the president of the railroads down to the master mechanics, superintendents and foremen," said one railroad worker.

JOHNNIE M'INTOSH GETS BUSY IN PARK COUNTY

Livingston, Oct. 28.—Some time ago the editor of the Bulletin warned the union men of Livingston that John H. McIntosh never sleeps away from the job. The advice of the editor was timely.

The A. C. M. flag is busy in Livingston. Another A. C. M. agent was in Livingston last week and organized an inner circle among the business men. The inner circle is promoted to fight labor "radicals," municipal ownership and the Non-partisan league.

FRENCH DESTROYERS JOIN IN MANY-SIDED REGA FIGHT

(Special United Press Wire.)
London, Oct. 28.—French destroyers at the mouth of the Dvina river have been ordered by Paris to assist British warships in attacking the forces of Colonel Bermond, according to a Riga dispatch. A Stockholm dispatch said Premier Clematis and all extreme socialists in the Lettish government have resigned.

Bermond, the successor of von der Goltz as leader of the Russo-German forces on the west front, has been bombarding Riga as a part of his campaign against the Letts, who, he alleges, are opposing his march against the Bolsheviks.

WILSON PARK PEOPLE WANT STREET LIGHTS

Residents of Wilson park district, the vicinity of the old race track, are planning to get street lights put in. Several requests to that effect have reached the county commissioners. The people who have asked for the lights have been advised to go back home and get 50 per cent of their neighbors on a petition for the formation of a special improvement district. That is the necessary and legal procedure to be followed by those who want the lights.

BUTTE BRIEFS

Joseph H. Mantle, a resident of Butte for 30 years, died yesterday in Seattle, where he had gone in search of health. M. A. Berger, a nephew of the deceased, left yesterday for Seattle to bring back the remains for burial in Butte by the side of an only daughter who died some years ago. Mr. Mantle was a native of England, coming to this country when 15 years old. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Matilda Butler of Salt Lake City, and a brother, Leo Mantle of Butte.

The driver of a coal wagon was haled into police court yesterday for backing his wagon over a parking place. Judge H. J. Grimes dismissed him with a warning to the effect that the second offense would draw a fine. The transporter pleaded as an excuse that he didn't know it was a violation of a city ordinance to drive over a curb. Many complaints have been made about curbs and parking injured in this way.

LABORERS AND FARMERS PLAN WAR ON H. C. L.

(Special United Press Wire.)
Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—An effort will be made to link the international labor organizations and the agricultural organizations of the country into a gigantic bureau to lower costs of foodstuffs at the forthcoming National Farm and Labor conference in Washington, according to Warren Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Stone said he will spend the next two months perfecting the co-operative scheme. He plans to eliminate the middleman and to institute machinery for direct interchange between the farmer and the consumer. He said the organizations would include the Federation of Labor and the National Grange.

SEEK INJUNCTION TO PREVENT GARBAGE DEAL

Restaurant owners of Butte will seek an injunction against the contract for removal of garbage and ash recently let by the city council to H. J. Kelly. They have been selling their garbage to hog ranchers, realizing a considerable sum from the sale. They don't want Mr. Kelly to come along, carrying and carry the valuable stuff away. They know Kelly will take it if they set it outside their back doors, and they have no other place to put it. Hence, the opposition of restaurant men to the contract.

CASH SALES FALL OFF AT CITY CURB MARKET

Total cash receipts on the city curb market, compiled by Market Master John Legare, totaled $7,250 on last Saturday. The business of last Saturday was much less than formerly, because of the cold, inclement weather. But as the various vendors get their booths in better shape for winter, it is thought that a volume of business will not be so much affected by the weather. It is not contention, of course, that the booths will be as comfortable for the purchasers to loaf about in as are the big steam-heated grocery stores, but, nevertheless, Mr. Legare thinks that both public spirit and a desire to save will induce the housewives to continue their past generous patronage of the city market regardless of the discomfort occasioned by cold weather.

All of the booths will soon be enclosed. They are numbered from 1 to 43 on the south and from 2 to 30 on the north. The booths will soon be equipped with electric lights, to be paid for by the booth holders. The sale of 10-cent bread is being maintained at about the same level, regardless of the cold spell, the total for Saturday being 1,600 loaves. A stall has been rented by a man, who claims to be a farmer, for the sole purpose of selling jackrabbits.

SCHOOL MA'IMS SCARCE BECAUSE OF SMALL WAGE

The annual convention of the State Teachers' association, which was omitted last year because of the "flu," will be held in Helena on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Thanksgiving week. Butte teachers are making plans to attend. Among other matters of interest to teachers to be discussed will be the prevailing shortage of schoolma'ims throughout the land—38,000 persons being notified because the pay is so meager that qualified teachers will not take the jobs.

LADIES' AUXILIARY TO AMERICAN LEGION WILL ORGANIZE

A meeting has been called for the purpose of forming a ladies' auxiliary to the American Legion, Tuesday evening, October 28, at 8 o'clock sharp, at the city auditorium.

The mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of the ex-soldiers, sailors and marines are eligible to membership and are earnestly requested to be present and to take an active part in organization.
