POLICE THREATEN TO BURN IRISH TOWNS

GALWAY FOLK FORCED TO KNEEL IN ROADWAY CLAD ONLY IN NIGHT CLOTHES; RIOTS RAGE IN DUBLIN

(Special United Press Wire.)

Dublin, Sept. 28.—Police placards threatening to burn County Clare towns were found plastered all over the city of Ennis. They bear the ultimatum that the cities will be destroyed if Captain Lenbrum, who disappeared while in Kilkee, is not returned unharmed within 24 hours.

As the result of one of the Dublin riots last night, seven soldiers and civilians were sent to hospitals with revolver wounds. The soldiers charged the mob with the threat of bayonets, dispersing it.

Members of the mob retaliated by firing into the troops.

Citizens at Henry, County Galway, clad in their night clothes, were forced to kneel in the roadway last night until they promised to lift their boycott against the police.

At Belfast, the scene of much rioting, all was quiet last night except for small outbreaks in which stones flew.

ASK MRS. MACSWEENEY TO TESTIFY TO ATROCITIES

(By the Federated Press.)

New York, Sept. 28.—The Committee of One Hundred, formed for the purpose of an impartial investigation on atrocities in Ireland, has sent cablegrams to Mrs. Terence MacSweeney, wife of the late mayor of Cork, Mrs. Thomas MacCurtain, widow of the late murdered lord mayor of Cork, Mrs. Swamy, mother of Police Inspector Swamy, who was murdered a few weeks ago at Lisburn, and Sir Horace Plunkett, promoter of the Irish dominion government idea, asking them to come to the United States to appear as witnesses before the commission at its sittings in Washington.

A similar invitation has also been mailed to the chairman of the town council, Balbriggan, asking him to appear before the commission and testify regarding the shooting up of the town by British police on Sept. 16.

The cablegrams offered in each case, payment of all expenses. An immediate reply was received from Mrs. Swamy accepting the invitation.

No reply has yet been received from Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador at Washington, or Professor Eamon De Valera, president of the Irish republic, to the letter notifying them of the intended investigation and public hearings.

FOOD PRICES TUMBLING IN MIDDLE WEST, IS REPORT

(Special United Press Wire.)

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Food prices continued to tumble throughout the middle west.

Potatoes are selling at from $1.50 to $2 per hundred pounds, wholesale. Peaches, tomatoes and fruits are quoted at close to pre-war prices.

The Studebaker corporation announced a reduction of $125 to $200 in the prices of its cars.

EIGHT CHICAGO WHITE SOX INDICTED

Grand Jury Holds Octette of Star Ball Players for 'Throwing' 1919 World's Series.

(Special United Press Wire.)

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Eight members of the White Sox during the 1919 world's series were indicted on charges of conspiracy by the grand jury which investigated alleged crookedness in baseball.

Those indicted are: Fleisch, Weaver, McMullin, Risberg, Cicotte, Williams, Jackson and Gandil. Information leading to the indictments is understood to have been substantially the same as that made public in a statement alleged to have been given out by a Philadelphia gambler, who charged the players had been promised $100,000 for throwing the series with Cincinnati. The statement said the players only received $10,000, having been double-crossed out of $90,000 by Abe Attell, former featherweight boxing champion.

CICOTTE DENIES CHARGE.

(Special United Press Wire.)

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Eddie Cicotte, named in a published statement as the White Sox player who volunteered to throw the 1919 world's series to Cincinnati for $100,000, positively denied participation in the deal.

Cicotte admitted he met "Dull" Burns in a New York hotel shortly before the world's series, as Billy Maharg claimed, but he denied having a whispered conversation in a private room. He said the meeting was in the lobby with several other players present.

REJECT PACKERS' PLAN.

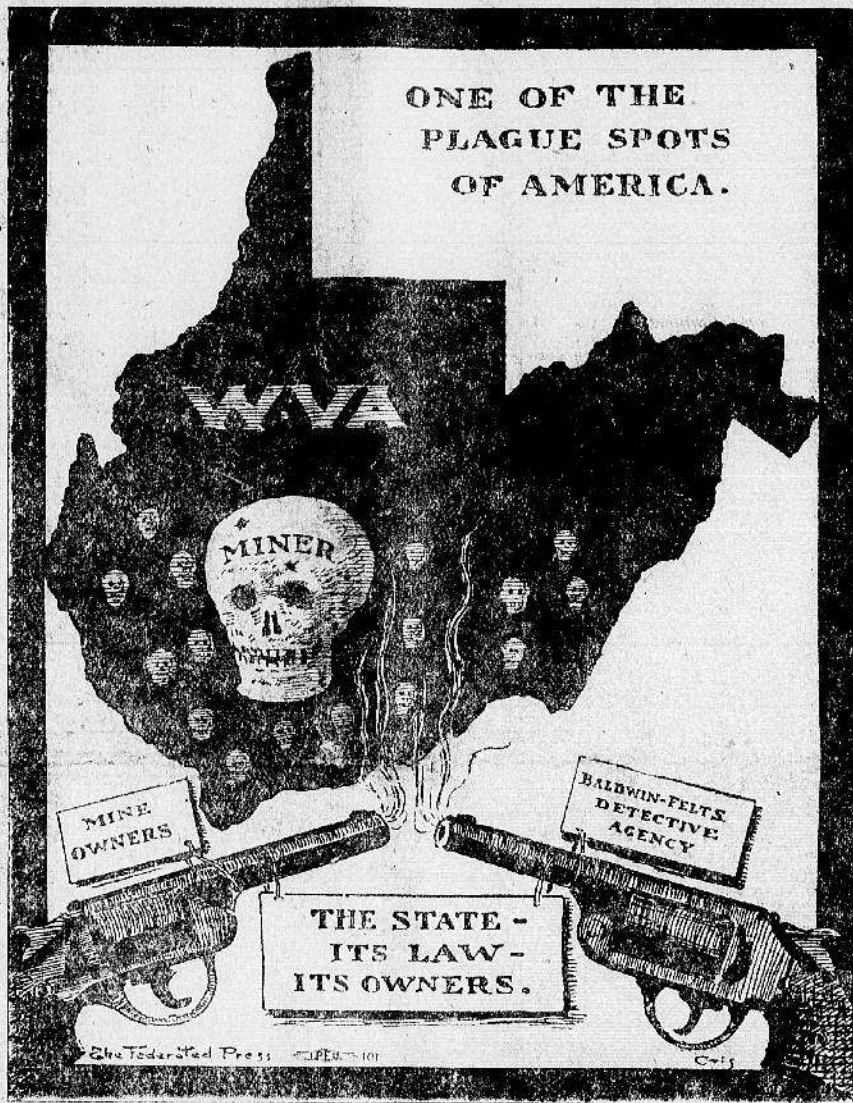

(Special United Press Wire.)

Washington, Sept. 28.—The department of justice rejected in its entirety the plan of the packers to dispose of their interests in 15 large stockyards to a holding company to be organized by Prince & Co. of Boston.

REDUCTIONS IN THE COST OF LIVING.

Russell Poole, directing the city's fight to lower prices, will point out to the hotel men alleged discrepancies between the cost and selling prices of foods listed on their menus.

"I think we will have no trouble in showing that 50 cents is too much for one cent's worth of tomatoes," he said.

SENATOR DIXON'S OPENING MEETING AT DILLON SUCCESS--FOR DEMOCRATS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Dillon, Sept. 28.—Possibly scores of persons in Dillon who never before read the Butte Daily Bulletin will become regular subscribers now as the result of the address of former Senator J. M. Dixon of Missoula, republican candidate for governor, at the opening meeting of his state campaign here last night. While the senator did not intentionally boost 'The Bulletin,' the fact that he devoted a great part of his address to reading extracts from Bulletin editorials and articles caused many of his auditors to become interested in the newspaper in question and determine to read it regularly so as not to miss such literary gems as the senator quoted.

ASK LITHUANIANS TO USE TOOLS ON POLISH

(Special United Press Wire.)

London, Sept. 28.—Fifteen alleged participants in an anti-Soviet plot at Archangel were executed by the Russian authorities, according to a Moscow wireless.

An appeal to patriotic Lithuanians to arm themselves with any sort of weapon—hoes, spades, pitchforks—to prevent the Polish invasion, has been issued by the Lithuanian government, according to a Tiflis dispatch.

FLYERS IN GREAT AIRPLANE RACE UNDER WAY

(Special United Press Wire.)

Etampes, France, Sept. 28.—The airplane race for the James Gordon Bennett trophy got under way at 1:23 p. m., when the first flyer took the air.

Aside from the honor of capturing the event, there is a 10,000-franc prize, the Bennett cup valued at $2,500, and many smaller prizes. Either America, France or England can get permanent possession of the cup, each having won it twice.

WHEELER GIVEN GREAT OVATION AT WELL ATTENDED MEETING IN HELENA UNDER AUSPICES OF WOMEN VOTERS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Helena, Sept. 28.—Under the auspices of the Democratic Women's club of Lewis and Clark county, B. K. Wheeler, candidate for governor, endorsed by the Nonpartisan and Labor leagues, addressed an audience of about 400 persons last night.

Mr. Wheeler dealt with the issues in the present campaign and held the attention of his audience until the finish of the meeting. He dealt with the legislative measures to which the
