VIENNA KIDDIES MAY DIE FROM HUNGER

Starvation and Disease Are Fastening Their Hold Upon the Inhabitants of Vienna.

New York, Dec. 31.—Perhaps the most tell-tale sign of poverty, one that will betray even the wariest, is the habit of stooping to pick up scraps in the street. You see it occasionally in America among people of a certain condition, but in Vienna the practice has reached epidemic proportions, infecting people of all classes and in every quarter of the city, according to a statement issued by the American relief administration.

Now it is an old man snatching at a cigar butt. Now it is a fashionable woman furtively swooping on a chip of wood. Twines from the trees, fluttering bits of paper, orange peels—the sidewalks are swept clean of them all by this new needy army of scavengers.

The railroad yards are the favorite resort of those who are not ashamed openly to proclaim their poverty. Here they gather in the hope of catching something from passing trains. Usually the crowd is made up of children. Pieces of paper are eagerly seized by fire.

But sufferings from hunger are even more acute than from cold. And it is estimated that 200,000 children in the Austrian capital alone must perish this winter of starvation unless immediate assistance is obtained.

SPANISH LABOR OFFICIALS ARE SHOT

Federation of Labor Appeals to International Organization for Immediate Aid.

GEORGE SLOCOMBE, London Daily Herald and Federated Press.

Paris, Dec. 29.—Serious news has reached Paris of the repression which has followed the recent labor disputes in Spain.

The workers there have replied to the government's white terror by the declaration of a general strike. Reports from Madrid, Barcelona and other great cities show that all work is at a standstill. In some of these towns fatal conflicts with the police have occurred.

The Spanish National Federation of Labor has issued an appeal to the workers of the world, in which the present repression is compared to the historic massacre on Saint Bartholomew's eve.

"In two days," says the manifesto, "150 workers were arrested and deported to Fernando Po, an African tropical island. Plain-clothes police shoot down trade unionists in the streets and cafes without warning."

Francisco Fayret, the attorney for the Labor Federation, was killed by seven revolver shots, from a civil guard.

The workers of the world are asked to help the despairing Spanish proletariat by boycotting all goods from Spain while the terror lasts. The French C. G. T. has already declared its warm sympathy with its colleagues in Spain, and is considering measures of active support.

Hamilton, Ont., Dec. 31.—"Everything seems to lead to another war, a war worse than the last one, unless men of good will from all the nations get together and prevent it," Bishop Clark of Niagara Episcopal diocese says in a pastoral.

BRITISH FORCES PLAY HELL IN CORK

Fire Brings Disaster to Thousands of Irish People; Damages Estimated at Twenty Millions.

Cork, Dec. 13. (By Mail.)—Hell has been let loose by the forces of the crown in Cork.

About half past seven last night a party of auxiliaries was attacked at Dillon's Cross, just outside the city. Twelve of the cadets were wounded and one has since died of his wounds.

Bombs were used by the attackers, who all succeeded in escaping. Then came the vengeance of the crown forces upon the city. Shooting and bombing went on for hours.

The outbreak began about 10 o'clock, the curfew hour, and shortly afterwards the city hall and the municipal buildings were found to be on fire.

The flames spread to the adjoining Carnegie library, and all three of these splendid buildings were utterly destroyed.

The whole of one side of Patrick street, the principal shopping thoroughfare, was gutted.

Patrick street is now an unrecognizable mass of smoking ruins. A call for assistance was sent to the lord mayor of Dublin, and arrangements were made to dispatch a special train with detachments of the Metropolitan Fire brigade.

Throughout the night people all over the city were kept awake by shots and explosions. So extended and systematic were the fires that little could be accomplished by the fire brigade.

The ruins of Patrick street are still smoldering, and danger is extending.

At least 2,000 persons will be thrown out of employment. The total damages is estimated at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

During the afternoon military pickets were placed on the streets and regulated traffic. It is understood that the military are taking complete charge of the city from tonight.

About 2:30 o'clock this morning a party of uniformed men broke into a house in the Blackpool district of the city. One of them, carrying a revolver, rushed upstairs into the bedroom where Joseph Delaney, a young man of 24 years, slept, and firing point-blank, shot him through the heart. The same intruder shot Con Delaney, a brother, wounding him seriously, and also wounded William Dunica, uncle of the Delaneys.

DEATH NOTICE. Cork, Dec. 14.—(By Mail.)—The following is the text of a notice "Examined" in the columns of the "Tribune":

IMPORTANT NOTICE. We, the undersigned, do now give the male sex of Cork city notice, which must be adhered to forthwith, that any person of the said sex who is seen or found loitering at street corners or on the pathway without a reasonable excuse why he should be there, or any man or boy found to be standing or walking with one or both hands in his pockets, will, if he does not adhere to this order, suffer the consequences which will no doubt ensue.

DETROIT LABOR URGES COUNCIL TAKE ON WORK

(By the Federated Press.) Detroit, Mich., Dec. 31.—Organized labor, through Frank X. Martel, business representative of the Detroit Federation of Labor, has asked the city council to reconsider its action in rejecting all bids on the new Belle Isle bridge because a decision to go ahead with this project within the next two weeks would provide employment for many men during the winter.

The city council voted five to four against acceptance of bids and at least one councilman must reverse his vote in order to have the substructure started.

Various labor organizations will combine to hold an unemployment mass meeting in one of the largest halls in Detroit Jan. 12, the Detroit Federation of Labor and various affiliated unions, as well as the Auto Workers' union, the Detroit Labor Forum and other workers' bodies participating.

NOTICE. The dance scheduled for Dec. 29 at 20th Century hall, has been called off. Watch for announcement later. MRS. A. ANDERSON.

CZECHO-SLOVAK LABOR IS FAST RISING

Miners Declare General Strike and Refuse to Supply the Capitol and Industries With Coal.

FREDERICK KUB, London Daily Herald and Federated Press.

Vienna, Dec. 13.—(By Mail.)—I returned yesterday from a visit to Czechoslovakia, and am able to give an authentic picture of the revolutionary upheaval, which, unknown to the world, is going on there.

The struggle, which is a crucial test of strength between the Social Democrats and the Communists, began on Thursday night.

Several hundred police launched an attack on the Communist headquarters in Prague, and a violent struggle took place in which 10 policemen were severely injured. The Communists were finally forced to abandon the building.

Workers from all parts of Prague streamed to the scene, and again the police appeared. This time they drew their revolvers, but the workers surrounded and disarmed many of the policemen. In the struggle shots were fired and 30 men were wounded.

Labor throughout Czechoslovakia is aroused. The miners of Klodno have declared a general strike, and refuse to supply Prague with coal. In Prague itself the factories are at a standstill.

The government has called out the troops, which are concentrated around the parliament house, the post and telegraph offices, and the railway stations, and are urging that a general strike be proclaimed throughout the country to gain control of industry.

AUSTRIA IS SWEEPED BY BIG STRIKE WAVE

Labor May Be Forced to Assume Control of the Factories Owing to the High Cost of Living.

Vienna, Dec. 13.—(By Mail.)—A strike wave of very grave proportions is threatening to break over Austria. The growing discontent and the winter's privations have been reflected in minor strikes of musicians, waiters, apothecaries, apprentices, store clerks and tobacconists' employees during the past week.

The movement is spreading hourly, and today 20,000 civil service workers struck.

Now all the metalworkers are faced with starvation owing to the employers closing down factories.

A strike seems inevitable, and in that case, as the secretary, Dornes, tells me, the union leaders will probably be unable to control it.

"The workers," he said, "are unable to buy bare necessities for survival. The strike could very conceivably drive them to storm factories and occupy them, as did their Italian comrades. We would be helpless."

480 DIE AT FIUME. Rome, Dec. 31.—Four hundred Italian soldiers were killed in the fighting at Fiume, it is reported here. The defending forces are said to have lost 30 killed, including two women fighters. Two hundred Legionnaires were wounded.

WOMEN DEMAND DISARMAMENT ACTION

Wife of Senator Lafolette Voices Plea for Pacifist Program in the Coming Congress.

Washington, Dec. 31.—A demonstration on disarmament was conducted by the Women's Peace society at the Franklin monument, the principal address being delivered by Mrs. Robert M. Lafolette, wife of the senator.

"It is not for the restoration of the weapons of war or any of the insignia of military power," Mrs. Lafolette said, "that the women of Germany are appealing to the mercy of the allies. No, they are only asking that their milk cows, on which they depend to save the lives of their starving children, be not taken from them."

"And in this heart-rending appeal they have the sympathy of the sisterhood of the world. There is the elemental cry that moves women to action. We women want the starving fed, the blockades lifted, trade restored, friendship renewed, mutual forgiveness, peace and good-will on earth again."

Mrs. Lafolette declared that the women would vote to defeat senators and congressmen who stand "for war and militarism." "We women have the power," she said. "On the issue of militarism we hold the balance of power. We have the ballot. We propose to be practical. We are going to watch congress."

"At the very door of the capitol of our beloved nation, we vow to use our votes to defeat senators and representatives in congress who stand for war and militarism and to elect senators and representatives who stand for peace and disarmament."
