Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, replied that they had Jaireary an Overland Mail to the Pacific, which would prove a curse to the county at a cost of $600,000 per annum in six years.

Mr. English said there was nothing in this bill requiring service to be put on the route from St. Paul to the Pacific.

Mr. Jones moved to table the bill, which was no gatived by a vote of $60 years to 96 says.

After a variety of other business, Mr. Henter, of Virginia, took the floor to express his views on the tariff.

Mr. Jones then moved to strike out the clause establishing a post route from St. Paul to Paget's Sound. Can be hold at GEO PATTISON & CO.
