

MEMPHIS. FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1861.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY.

The circulation of the DAILY APPEAL is larger than that of the Daily City Press.

LATER FROM KENTUCKY.

We received last evening with a gentleman, formerly resident in Memphis and late of Louisville, who arrived here yesterday, directing from the latter city, having succeeded in making his way South with great difficulty, by way of Bardonia and Elizabethtown.

It is said that the strictest system of espionage and police is established in Louisville, and that refugees, in the pay of the Lincolnists, are daily engaged in hunting after the footsteps of every man suspected of sympathy with the South.

Between four and five hundred Kentuckians, mostly a detached portion of the old "State Guards," came down with this gentleman to join Gen. BECKER at Manchester, which he had carefully brought a permit which he had carefully secured, until the time of departure.

The success of his little party, South, and sought to get them off, but without avail. The object of their movements doubtless saved them, as they advanced in twenty-four days, having traveled night and day.

Gen. BECKER'S force at Manchester is reported to be between three and four thousand men, and is rapidly increasing.

Our informant says that the whole State of Kentucky is in a state of excitement, and that the Lincolnists are daily engaged in hunting after the footsteps of every man suspected of sympathy with the South.

THE REPUBLICAN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, October 18.—Judge Moore, late of Kentucky, appeared before Judge Humphreys today, and took the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States.

James B. Clay was taken to Louisville on Saturday, under the writ of habeas corpus in his case issued, returnable before Judge Catron on Monday.

A committee of the Kentucky Senate reported on the twenty-eighth of the arrest of David Silversmith and Irvine, members of the Legislature, as illegal and unwarranted. They were released.

Fremont was at Jefferson City on the twenty-eighth. It was uncertain when he would be probably on the first or second.

A gentleman arrived from Jefferson City on the twenty-ninth, says Lane had been the central portion of Overalls on the twenty-fifth, for the reason that the rebels fired on his troops from the windows.

A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Washington of the 28th, says, Chase had negotiated under John in New York on the basis of the last arrangement.

The New York Daily Sun suspended on the 28th. It says it cannot be the invariable desire of the Government to have thirty thousand subscribers.

New York, September 28.—Cotton drilling sales—$11 for middling and upland.

WASHINGTON, October 28.—A gentleman from Louisville says there are not few troops there, and no enthusiasm. James B. Clay was released on Monday under a habeas corpus of five thousand dollars to do nothing against the Federal Government.

EXAMINATION (via New Orleans) Oct. 28.—The following are the names of the passengers by the afternoon train after the burning of Falls Church by the Federals, who advanced to that point after the Confederates had fallen back.

That exception there is no news. Nothing from Washington.

The District's expenditure says Capt. Mansfield, formerly of the Federal army, and now in the service of the Confederates, has been appointed a brigadier general and assigned to duty on the coast of Georgia.

NEW ORLEANS, October 28.—We have advised to the 27th from Lee's camp, the enemy is eight, both armies on the same position.

MOBILE, October 28.—Two hundred and forty-six prisoners arrived here, and left by railroad for New Orleans.

LATER FROM PENNSYLVANIA. Correspondence of the Mobile Register.

PENNSYLVANIA, September 29.—For two or three days past the weather has been chilly and disagreeable. Soldiers in marching looked as if they were weary.

The last in this morning looked as if they were weary. The last in this morning looked as if they were weary.

Among the prisoners that passed through Mobile on Saturday last, were some four or five who had previously been in this city.

Some of these were in the hands of the rebels. Some of these were in the hands of the rebels.

A gentleman from Kentucky informs the Nashville Union that on Thursday last Capt. J. H. Morgan was at Bloomfield, Nelson county.

The Nashville Union states that heavy rain in East Tennessee damaged the track and washed away bridges east of Knoxville to such an extent as to interrupt the transmission of the mails.
