

Daily Appeal. GRENADA, MISS. SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 25, 1862.

TO OUR FRIENDS. Gentlemen who arrive from the United States with late papers, will confer a favor by leaving them at the counting room of the APPEAL office...

PRIVATE LETTER FROM MOBILE. A private letter from Mobile says that the people of that city are relieved of fears of an immediate attack by the news from Charleston...

DEATH OF MISSISSIPPIAN. A gentleman from the Perryville (Ky.) battle field reports to a friend in Mobile the death of two well known citizens of Memphis—Messrs. F. M. GAILOR and W. A. SEAY.

THANKS TO THE LADIES OF FAYETTE COUNTY. QUARTERMASTER DUFF'S REGIMENT, MISSISSIPPI. We have this day witnessed in front of our quarters the distribution among our fellow soldiers of some articles of clothing...

THE BOSTON COURIER. The Boston Courier a few days ago asserted that Governor Andrew had said in conversation that no other regiment should leave the State of Massachusetts for the war...

THE RICHMOND EXAMINER. The Richmond Examiner, of the 15th inst., says: General Tomlinson, who has been appointed to supersede Van Don, and has recently been put in command of the Department of the Mississippi, belonged to the Yankees army in the spring of 1861.

WE TAKE THE FOLLOWING FROM THE CINCINNATI TIMES: "Vandalism, though his district in the new appointment was arranged especially to defeat him, is barely defeated, and that is all in his old district, where a year ago he sorely has attempted to address a popular assemblage...

WE NOTICE THAT SOME OF OUR EXCHANGES refer in a tone of great anxiety to the prospect of an attack upon Mobile by the enemy. It is obvious that an attack at this point might involve important consequences...

WE CLIP THE ABOVE FROM THE RICHMOND EXAMINER OF THE 15th. Our contemporary is not posted as to military movements on the southwestern coast at least, in our opinion. If there is any deficiency on the gulf coast the people are again deceived as they were about our strength at Bowling Green, Ky., one year ago.

THE CONFEDERATE FLAG. The following paragraph appears in several of our exchanges: Congress has at last adopted a design for the national flag. It is probably consisted of a circle of white stars in a blue ground. The links are themselves circles, and interlocked so as to form a large circle.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. Richmond, October 24. The New York Herald of the 22d has received. The News is unimportant except from England, where Lincoln's emancipation proclamation was the theme of universal discussion.

THE LONDON PRESS. The London Press says it is not easy to estimate how utterly powerless and contemptible a government must have become, which could sanction with its approval such inhuman trash.

CHARLESTON, October 24. All accounts show the Possibilities of a hotly contested and a glorious victory. It was, in fact, another Stonewall fight. The enemy's gunboats were lying at the foot of the city...

A WORD FOR TEXAS. EDITOR APPEAL: As one of the sheets published at Vicksburg seems inclined to reflect upon the bravery of the defenders of Galveston, I feel it my duty as a Galvestonian to Texas—to reply to the article copied at length in your paper of Thursday last.

NEW CURRENCY REGULATIONS. By an enactment of the late Congress, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, from time to time, to issue, in addition to the bonds, certificates of stock, and treasury notes already authorized by law...

THE RICHMOND EXAMINER. The Richmond Examiner states that all information from the army of the Potomac, is burdened with unmeaning complaints of the wretched and shameful arrangements for the sick and wounded.

ASA WILKINSON'S CASE. The Law of Exemption. F. J. WHARTON, Attorney General. No. VIII.

Written for the Appeal. After thinking over a long time, I believe I may safely say that it is my opinion I have an idea. And so has Kluba.

It is the property of both of us, and we got it whilst drinking the black-belt pulchra between the Potomac and the Blue Ridge, in our distant from Corinth during Sabbath the 5th here. Ideas were lying about loose that day—common as Yankee blankets after a battle, or revolutions in Mexico. This is the idea.
