

Daily Appeal. RICHMOND, VA. ATLANTA, GA. THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, 1864.

THE CAMPAIGN ON THE TENNESSEE RIVER.

The Richmond press are slow to believe that there is any possibility of Grant making the grand demonstration in this direction. Whether the movement can be made, or whether it will be attempted, is a question which we are not prepared to answer.

We have returned in the Examiner, however, one or two paragraphs, showing that the attention of the general public is directed to the situation in front of Chattanooga. In the issue of Monday we find the following:

THE CAMPAIGN ON THE TENNESSEE RIVER. We have arranged from the Examiner, a copy of the letter referred to, in a distinct and unambiguous manner, which has immediate and unquestionable authority.

LETTERS FROM DALTON.

Dr. J. H. Washington has been assigned to duty in Augusta as surgeon for the local troops.

An interesting revival is in progress in the St. John's Methodist church in Augusta. Seventeen persons have entered the church.

Lieutenant-Colonel O. M. Daniel, of the 17th South Carolina regiment, has been appointed colonel of the 23d regiment South Carolina volunteers.

The Greenboro, (N. C.) Patriot says that the prospect for an abundant crop of garden peas and cranberry fruit, of every description, the spring crop, is highly flattering.

A handsome cavalry sword, turned out by Boyle & Gamble, of Richmond, Va., was presented to Lieut.-Col. Robert A. Cavalie, of the 10th Virginia regiment of cavalry, by the officers and men of the company which he raised and organized in the beginning of the war.

The Silas (Ala.) Reporter, of the 35th, is informed by a gentleman from Mobile, that there had been considerable tumbling in the price of provisions in that city. He quotes the best of bacon at $3 per pound; corn from $2 to $3; and salt from $1 to $1.25 per bushel; sugar $5 per pound.

The Chronicle and Sentinel, of the 27th, announces the death of Judge Thomas W. Thomas, of Elbert county. He died at his residence in Elberton, on Sunday night last. His health for some time had been failing, although his friends did not deem his condition dangerous.

THE MISSISSIPPI OUTLAW.—We learn from the Brandon Republic of the 21st, that Col. Lewis J. Ransom, of the 10th, of the military preparations made at Memphis when Forrest was in the vicinity. The rebels occupied Germantown Wednesday morning last. All the infantry and dismounted cavalry at Memphis were ordered into the fort. Salaries were paid, and paymasters took their money to Col. PREPARATIONS AT MEMPHIS.—A "distant woman," writes the Cairo News of the 10th, of the military preparations made at Memphis when Forrest was in the vicinity. The rebels occupied Germantown Wednesday morning last. All the infantry and dismounted cavalry at Memphis were ordered into the fort. Salaries were paid, and paymasters took their money to Col. Kepburn, commander of the fort.

A MOVIE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.—We are stated in the Richmond Flag that the general agent of the Prudhoe Loan is instituting a careful examination into the condition of government cotton, stored in various districts of the South. Persons having charge of the same are to be held liable for all damage and cost resulting from insecure storage, or neglect of duty.

A NOBLE INSTITUTION.—The Soldiers' Wayside Home of Charleston is now urgently in need of assistance. During the last eight months, this most commendable enterprise has received a temporary income of no less than $4,000, which, when combined with the abundance of good, wholesome, and nutritious food, has been given, free of cost. The maintenance of the institution has occasioned an outlay of $20,000, all with a trifling exception, the voluntary offerings of the people of South Carolina. But the Wayside Home is not exclusive in conferring its benefits. Soldiers from all the other States are treated precisely as those of our own.

THE NAUVILLE ITEMS.—The Nashville papers report that persons having taken the amnesty oath at Nashville, in the counties of Bedford, Lincoln, Giles, and Marshall, 103; Giles, 324; Marshall, 101.

Seven hundred and ninety-two internments were made in the Nashville cemetery during the month of March, an increase of two hundred and seventy-one over the preceding month. Of these 200 were Federal soldiers; 106 citizens; 700 soldiers; 30 Government employees; 600 private soldiers; 12 negroes; 2 children of soldiers; 2 wives of soldiers; 180 contrabands; 200 others.

The Adams Express company have an office in Knoxville, and are carrying freight through to that point. The Nashville Flag hails this as "a forward step towards civilization."

Paradise Near Osceola, Arkansas. From the Memphis Bulletin. On Friday last we were by passengers on the steamer St. Patrick, a force of one hundred and fifty men, and a few women, who were bound for Osceola, Arkansas. We did not learn, were sent from New Madrid in pursuit of a gang of guerrillas, who were committing all manner of outrages in the country back of Osceola. The force under the major embarked at Osceola and Montgomery and proceeded to Bear creek. It was the intention of the two companies to make a junction at some point between the two places. The force under the major started out from Osceola, and after traveling all night, pitched their tents near a bayou and threw out their pickets. One of the pickets were not so silent in number to the camp, and they were surprised by the guerrillas, who killed one lieutenant and two privates, and wounded eight others. They returned to New Madrid without accomplishing anything. The guerrillas are still in that region, and will be vigorously attacked.

"Dr. Walker," the feminine extra assistant surgeon of the 52d Ohio regiment, has been assigned comfortable quarters in Castle Thunder, and has as a companion a Yankee rebel, who was incarcerated some time ago as a suspicious character. Upon being shown the papers on yesterday, she expressed to the doctor of the prison considerable regret, and as the idea of being represented as wearing male attire, by style being the "bloomer," or else being represented as a "pious old lady." She promised to write a letter to the Editor of the Appeal.

It was the great fighter, in thought to be gradually dying, so the Northern press. He is making his time at it and not hurrying himself. He never got over that beating by the English press-fighter.

REPORTS BY MEMPHIS.

REPORTS BY MEMPHIS. The Post Office Department at Richmond has most certainly been very tardy in failing to establish regular mails in Mississippi. Several weeks have elapsed since the Yankees all left the State, yet to the present time, Mr. Reagan's agents have done but little by way of re-arranging the service which was disturbed.
