MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 16, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President, HONORABLE REV. FRANK P. BLAIR.

For Vice President, JOHN W. LEFKEWICH.

For Congress, JOHN W. LEFKEWICH.

For the State at Large, EDWARD COOPER, of Bristol.

For District, EDWARD COOPER, of Bristol.

VICTORY AND DEFEAT.

Inasmuch as we have not succeeded in carrying the recent elections by absolute State majorities, we are defeated. Inasmuch as we have decreased the Republican majorities in those States, and in that extent broken the triumphant spirit of Radicalism, we are victorious.

THE FUTURE.

The prestige of general success is with the Democracy, to inspire to renewed exertions against the measures which have made us unpopular, and to make us more popular.

THE FUTURE.

In the late elections many legal considerations directed the result so adverse to us, notwithstanding the Democracy made as gallant a fight as was ever made by any party in the history of the country.

THE FUTURE.

At the General Election, on the 31st of November next, the issue will be of a purely national character. The Northern people will then be called upon to say whether they approve of the negroed Governments of the South; whether they are willing parties to the unjust discriminations that beggar the poor man to aggrandize the bondholder. They are to say whether we are to have peace in the Union, or to "continue in a state of siege" and chronic dispute, at an expense for soldiers, equipments and forage such as no European Government, on an absolute basis, was ever called upon to pay.

THE FUTURE.

There are the issues between Radicalism and Democracy. And they are as live to-day as they were on Monday last, when our hopes were high, and victory seemed within our grasp. They are "live" with us, as they are with our brethren at the North; and are to be contended for as gallantly, as manfully, and as unflinchingly as though victory were at every Democratic banner in Pennsylvania and the Northwest.

THE FUTURE.

On Tuesday next, the 20th inst., the Shelby County Agricultural Association will revive an old custom, much honored and patronized by the people of town and country before the war, and inaugurate at the race track a Fair, where they expect the farmers, manufacturers, mechanics and housekeepers of the surrounding country will compete for the handsome prizes subscribed by the Association and many of the liberal-minded ladies and business men of Memphis.

THE FUTURE.

All the arrangements have been completed—with railroad and transportation companies, and on the ground—for the reception of fabrics, cattle, machinery, pianos, flowers, shrubs, vegetables and mechanical handiwork; and we hope the people generally will respond to the generosity of the Association by the most liberal show of the fruits of their industry, skill and toil.

THE FUTURE.

Our hotel room is ample for the accommodation of any increase of visitors. The Theater will open under new, energetic and intelligent management, and the residences of our opulent and wealthy residents will be opened to their country friends and for the display of a lavish hospitality. Amusements of all grades and character will be in full blast, and our country cousins, as well as visitors from other cities, will find every moment of their time occupied during "Fair week."

THE FUTURE.

Our wholesale and retail merchants have made unusual preparations, and our milliners are doing busily work amid a plethora of beautiful and fashionable articles such as would do discredit to the most celebrated modistes, and all in anticipation of the Fair. Even our street contractors have been imbued with the spirit of the Fair, and are hurrying up the sidewalks, so that our visitors may, if they choose, enjoy a drive of twenty or thirty miles over the best paved streets in the world.

THE FUTURE.

In a word, every inducement that a Southern city can hold out will be offered to exhibitors and visitors to this revival of the Fairs of the Shelby County Agricultural Association. We hope for not less than twenty thousand visitors during the week.

THE FUTURE.

Don't prepare for Grant. Prepare for Grant, says the Louisville Courier in a fit of dependency and gloom. But we in Tennessee have no mind to our intention of preparing for Grant. We are convinced his rule, if he is elected, will be of the mildest of mother's milk compared to the extravagance and bombast of FURCO style of BROWNLOW, yet we have no intention of preparing for Grant. We are at issue with Gen. Grant yet, and mean to continue so until after the third of November, when he or our gallant leader—SEYMOUR and BLAIR—are to be defeated.

THE FUTURE.

We have no preparation to make for Grant. We have no place for him in our hearts and will make none for him at our hearts. Opposed to him politically, we shall continue so. Defeat of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, will not in the least affect our principles, our hopes, or aspirations. We will not even prepare for the possibility of defeat. We do not count our dream of defeat—but victory. To admit the possibility of our defeat in November is to help for the certain victory of Radicalism. Who doubts Grant's election, because of our recent defeat, does more to break up the Democratic party, and more for his election, than all the Republicans who can speak in this neighborhood between this and the day of election.

THE FUTURE.

The issues between Radicalism and Democracy in Tennessee are still the same. They are neither modified nor affected by the result in Indiana, Pennsylvania, or Ohio. It is our duty as heartily as ever, to contend for victory with the victors who are praying upon what remains of our gallant old State. Either we are to be negroed like Georgia and all of the Southern States, or we are to govern as only white men can govern.

THE FUTURE.

We have shown how to defeat. We have to break down and put under our feet the men who have doubled our State debt, inflicted unnumbered outrages and wrongs upon us, and still continue, by their confessions of one another, to steal from us in the disguise of God-and-morality Educators. We have before us the labor of defeating deputy, ruffianism and theft, and we must do it.

IRISHMEN!

It has been mooted, to your disadvantage, that a few of you have determined to scratch the ticket in November, and assist to defeat LAYTON, because he did not secure for you offices under the city government for which you fancied you had claims. We have denied that such could possibly be the case. We do not believe there is an Irishman, worthy the name, in Memphis, who could forget the name of No. 1000, his proscription and his banishment from the Roman Catholic Church, and would help to fasten it upon the people of this Congressional District or the Union.

IRISHMEN!

Irishmen of Memphis, be true to your convictions of duty, and vote the Democratic ticket, throughout, not a name erased.

IRISHMEN!

We hope the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, at their meeting this evening, will settle, so far as they can, the amount of aid the Solina Railroad is to have from the city—whether $300,000 or $500,000. We join those interested in asking for the latter sum.

IRISHMEN!

And, while considering the Selma, we suggest the good Fathers remember the Little Rock Railroad, that has, through so many vicissitudes and changes, dragged its slow length along. It is perhaps the most necessary to Memphis of all the lines of railroad centering here, hence the importance of finishing it immediately. It needs $500,000 for that purpose.

IRISHMEN!

The River Railroad, to connect us with the tobacco country between this city and the Ohio River, should also be considered, and some provision made for its immediate commencement at Memphis. Would it not be well to make appropriation of say one million dollars, to be divided between the three roads, and thus insure their early construction? Let the Board answer.

IRISHMEN!

The Norfolk Convention. The thorough-going and energetic business men who represent the South at the Norfolk Convention, by the enthusiasm they inspire by their example, have already done much for their section. The spirit they manifest is the index to the political issues or results—is one of the healthiest and most inspiring signs given out by this gathering of merchants. From the accounts that reach us, they have been guided by wisdom and discretion, and act upon the basis of a bright and happy future for the South. They have not, nor do they propose to make any preparations for Grant.

IRISHMEN!

Indeed, they do not seem to think his election as at all possible—and, if possible, don't care. Building up the country, enjoining its tradesmen—that is what they have come together for. They think it can be done no matter who is President. They don't think that the coming Presidential election is to result in the total ruin of the United States. They know there are more Congressmen that voted on Tuesday, and that as in President JOHNSON'S case, it is possible, that GRANT, if elected, will find his purposes materially modified by an opposing House of Representatives. 'Anyhow, they are determined on business, and upon making up to her the losses the South has suffered. The era of property which push and energy will induce, even in a desert, is about to dawn upon our garden South.

INDIANA.

St. Louis, October 15.—The Democrat has a special from Omaha as follows:

"The returns from twelve of the most populous counties show over 500 Republican votes, while the Democratic gain is only about forty. The entire Republican majority in these counties is about 1500. Twenty-four counties in the interior are yet to be heard from, which will no doubt make the Republican majority in the State from 2000 to 3000. The Republicans elected twelve State Senators and thirty-five members to the House. The Democrats elected four State Senators and four Representatives."

INDIANA.

The Times has a dispatch from J. J. Binham, Secretary of the Indiana State Central Committee, as follows: "The election is undoubtedly close, but we have no doubt that we have elected Hendrick. The Radicals claim the State, but are unable to name any majority. I have therefore to believe that the State is safe. Large Democratic gains in many counties are reported. Niblack is elected to Congress in the First District. Kerr in the Second, Holman in the Third, and Voorhees in the Sixth. This is a gain of one over our very latest previous adjectives. We do not see how this reckoning can be overturned."

INDIANA.

A Chicago dispatch says returns from Lawrence and other sections will secure the election of Spink, Dodd and Tolney to Congress over Burling, Fogg and DeLoach. The returns from Lawrence and other sections will secure the election of Spink, Dodd and Tolney to Congress over Burling, Fogg and DeLoach.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 15.—Official returns received to-day show small Republican gains are reported. Both parties are disappointed in the result, but the indications are that the Republican majority will be 1000. Official returns from the Fourth Congressional District place the election of Julian, Republican, for Congress in doubt. His majorities are much less than the State returns. The returns from thirty-seven counties official, and all the counties but one official returns reported. Governor Baker, Republican, Governor, 829 majority. The counties yet to hear from, gave a Republican majority in 1856 of 685. Last returns for Congress in the 4th District, elect Julian, Republican, by 123 majority. Voorhees, Democrat, 123 majority. The counties yet to hear from, gave a Republican majority in the legislature of 30 to 35.

the new naturalization bill, a work which has just been concluded. Lord Stanley, an English Minister, is now engaged in considering the Alabama claim question, which is it is pretty certain will be arranged soon, subject, of course, to the ratification of the legislative bodies and the approval of the governments of the two countries.

THE FUTURE.

Mr. Gladstone made a speech yesterday at Liverpool. He examined the question of Fenianism and the discontent in Ireland, and assigned the cause thereof. He spoke earnestly of the need of reform, and dwelt on the words of D'Alry McGee, as conservative on these causes as a voice of the dead from over the ocean.
