Etheridge's famous Eulogy of Johnson.

Movements of Statesmen--Senter Inaugurated.

The Usury Laws will probably be Repealed.

Ex-President Johnson in Possession of the Field.

Review of His Career--An Able Plea.

Special to the Memphis Appeal.

Nashville, October 11--The eulogy of Johnson, written by him in December, 1866, has been published.

It is a power, and has knocked the pins from under the strongest opponent that A. J. had met in this race for Senatorial honors.

It will be remembered by all the readers of the Appeal that in that letter Etheridge indulged in the most high-sounding eulogy of Mr. Johnson, and most severely and extravagantly approved his reconstruction policy.

From the policy thus approved, Johnson has never departed, and the eulogium of Etheridge is the eulogium of Johnson.

This is the strongest of the outside parties mentioned, is a strong friend of Johnson's, and advises those in favor of him to throw their strength on his side.

Mr. Johnson is steadily gaining ground with the Legislature.

Nashville, October 11--Ex-President Lincoln and Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, Democratic candidates for Governor, have been cordially invited to attend the Shelby County Agricultural Fair.

I am happy to say that the usury laws will probably be repealed outright, in accordance with suggestions of the Appeal some days since.

A bill has been introduced to repeal the act of the late Radical Legislature, giving the negroes the right to vote on railroad matters.

The greatest interest in the Ohio and Pennsylvania elections, our Democratic and Conservative politicians are all of them very anxious for the success of Pendleton and Foster, both of whom have many admirers in this city.

The friends of Mr. Johnson are all of them anxious that he should be elected, and are making every effort to secure his success.

Major Leitch has come to Louisville on his way to New York, to attend a convention of the Memphis Board of Aldermen, which delegates Messrs. Conant, Brinkley and himself to settle terms and conditions of sale of city stock in Little Rock Railroad.

The races, which commence on Monday, are attracting crowds of strangers and very many states of good horses.

Nashville, October 11--The Press and Times, the Senate organ, has suspended its publication for the present.

WASH. COLD.

Beast Butler to the Rescue of Grant and Boutwell.

Charge of Judge Ingraham against the Speculators.

Receiver Appointed for the Gold Exchange Bank.

New York, October 11--Ben. Butler, while in this city on Saturday, warmly defended President Grant and Secretary Boutwell from all charges of complicity with the late gold panic.

He thinks that Congress cannot pass any direct law that would prevent gambling in gold, and the only way to effect this would be to make greenbacks the standard of value and gold an article of merchandise, which could be done if the Government would accept its own paper in part payment of the Custom-house revenue.

In the Court of Guyer and Terminus, to-day, Judge Ingraham, in his charge to the Grand Jury, alluded to the law making it a criminal offense for two or more persons to conspire together to defraud the public, or to trade or contract in gold, and called their attention to the recent gold combination, which may be the duty of a grand inquest, as it is undoubtedly their interest to inquire whether such occurrences have been brought about by any unlawful combination, and if so, present the guilty parties for trial.

The courts were generally adjourned to-day out of respect to the memory of the late President.

The Erie and Susquehanna fight has come to an amicable end, the former now leasing the latter property for a period of ninety-nine years, on terms acceptable to stockholders.

Judge Conover this morning appointed C. N. Jordan, Cashier of the Third National Bank, Receiver of the Gold Exchange Bank, in the place of L. Brown, and power was given the new Receiver to adjust all claims upon or in favor of the Bank, including, of course, the settlement of the gold business of Friday, Sept. 24. It is believed that the affairs of the bank will be adjusted during the present week.
