

NEW YORK HAS SPOKEN—GREGORY TO BE NOMINATED AT BALTIMORE.

It will be seen from our dispatches this morning that the New York Democratic Convention yesterday indicated the nomination of Gregory and Brown. This result is of great importance, as it makes Horace Gregory the candidate of the Baltimore Convention. Grant will undoubtedly be the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention, and it is now certain that the Presidential canvass will be made with Grant and Gregory as the candidates. It is also certain that the Baltimore Convention will be held, but it is equally certain to indicate Gregory.

THE TAX-PAYERS MEETING TO-DAY.

The meeting of tax-payers to be held to-day at the Greenlaw Opera House will, we hope, be conducted in a spirit of fair play, beseeching a determination on the part of those participating in the common and universal duty of reform, and who, if any, of our public officers have been or are derelict. So far as heard from, these gentlemen ask nothing beyond a "fair field and no favor," and have no objection to being vindicated themselves fully and thoroughly from all and as persons upon their official name or fame.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

A DISPATCH from Washington, yesterday, says that having been stated in the Cincinnati Enquirer that the Democrats in Congress gave the strongest assurances to Senators Trumbull, Schurz, and others, that the Democrats would support the Cincinnati nominees, the Associated Press has been requested by leading Democratic members to contradict the statement, and to say that no assurances, written or verbal, were given to said Senators, or any one else, in that connection. It would thus appear that a difference between a "verbal" and a "written" promise among gentlemen. If anything, the former is most sacred.

NEW YORK GALVANISMS.

The New York Galvanisms. Resolutions of encouragement for the striking carpenters were adopted by the various trades unions in the city. The master-builders concede to the eight-hour demands, and the state-builders are successful in the same movement.

THE MICHIGAN STRIKERS.

An attempt was discovered to wreck the machinery of Thompson & Co.'s steel works, by placing a dynamite charge in a position that the revolution of the driving-wheel would throw it among the machinery. The charge exploded, and seven hundred and thirty-seven dollars' worth of machinery was destroyed.

THE TREATY.

The Correspondence with Great Britain—Letter of Schenck Backing Down.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The correspondence of the Washington Treaty, communicated to the Senate with the President's message accompanying it, was published here this morning. The President's message, and the correspondence, are published in full. The correspondence is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to do more in changing it than a Democrat. And this because he would encounter less opposition from those who would support a Democratic President. The correspondence is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to do more in changing it than a Democrat.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

In Convention Assembled at Rochester—A Large, Influential and Interesting Gathering. Resolutions Adopted Indorsing the Cincinnati Convention, its Platform and Nominees.

ROCHESTER, May 15.—The Democratic State Convention was called to order by Samuel J. Tilden, in a short speech, in which he was warmly applauded. He then read a report of the Rochester Convention, in which he said he knew he was not chosen for interest, but for the honor conferred, and rehearsing the history of the Republican party. When a speech returning thanks for the honor conferred, and rehearsing the history of the Republican party.

There were about three hundred delegates in the convention, and the convention was harmonious and enthusiastic, showing that the Republicans of Tennessee are united and unanimous in their support of the Cincinnati Convention.

There were a number of effect-holders in the convention, and two of them were appointed delegates to Philadelphia. They declined to go, however, and the Cincinnati Convention was not held.

THE POET ARTIST.

Death of Thomas Buchanan Read at the Astor House, New York.

From the New York Tribune we copy the following brief biography of Mr. Thomas Buchanan Read, whose death at the Astor House, New York, on Saturday last, has already been announced in these columns.

Mr. Read was a native of Chester County, Pennsylvania, where he was born in 1816, and was consequently a little more than fifty years of age at the time of his death. His intellectual and moral attainments were of a high order, and when only seventeen years of age he entered the studio of a sculptor in Cincinnati, intending to make that his profession for life. He was diverted from this purpose, however, by the superior success of a friend, who, although in after life he occasionally indulged in the practice of sculpture as an amateur, he was distinguished as a portrait painter of the first order.
