

The new charter moves the aldermen, but the councilmen are sitting on it yet.

GRANT'S have a grand ovation at Boggs' next Friday. What is that for?

The great problem of the future will be, how to preserve our excellent school system.

The question occurs to us again: "Who pocketed the original of our very defective charter?"

Not one word was said about League of Kelly, either branch of the general council last night. Discreet silence.

The State executive committee of the Democratic party of Alabama indorse the call for a State constitutional convention.

GOVERNOR TILDEN, of New York, has attached all of Tweed's New York property, amounting to several millions worth, and will endeavor through the courts to realize from it some of the money stolen by the Boss.

GOVERNOR PORTER, in the course of an interview with a Herald reporter, announced that he would like to see the people of Tennessee conspicuously in the foreground at the grand centennial celebration to come off at Philadelphia next year. The governor is right. The people will indorse him.

The Whig society in Louisiana. The Whig order of business has been adopted by the legislature, the controlling Democratic members have been seated, and Kellogg is to be sustained in all efforts to effect good government. Let us hope that Louisiana will begin to realize the blessings of just legislation and a patriotic enforcement of the laws.

A CIRCULAR from Comptroller Gaines, not only for tax-collectors but tax-payers. On reading it will be seen that the benefits of the law can only be secured on such terms as are laid out in the regulations on easy terms. They must pay interest. Tax-collectors are also required to renew their bonds for 1874, on or before the first Monday in May.

We hope Drs. Arent and Rice, of the board of health, will recall and reconsider their resignation of positions they have filled with so much credit to themselves and so profitably to the public. We cannot afford to lose their valuable services, especially now when we are on the verge of summer. Their experience is worth thousands to us, and we should be careful not to refuse to receive their resignations.

FRATERNIZATION is now all the go. Last Sunday we had a pleasant case in the review of the Federal troops by Governor Porter at Nashville, in our own State, and we are glad to learn that Massachusetts and South Carolina are abolishing every new and old flag and every other emblem of the days that are so many. How much pleasanter than the old emblem of the sections and the old flag of the States. It is a good thing that the people of the South should make a point never to revive.

We unite with our brethren of the West in all the States in hearty congratulations to the New York Tribune on the auspicious beginning of its fifty-fifth year, and we note with pleasure the fact that amid all the felicitations, laudations, and self-congratulations included in and called out by the people of the magnificent nation, the paper to be the home of the Tribune, its founder, Horace Greeley, was not forgotten. Whitlaw Reid, in recalling gratefully the labors of the grand old figure which all men recognize as that of one of the fathers of journalism in America, proves himself worthy to succeed him and quite equal to the distinguished, honorable and conspicuous position of editor-in-chief of the Tribune. And it is no disparagement of Mr. Greeley to say that the Tribune of to-day far surpasses anything it was in his time, and is both in appearance and in earnestness, honesty and dignity of editorial pen, a model paper, one of the best, if not the best, in the Union.
