THE INTERNATIONAL COTTON EXCHANGE CONVENTION
The International cotton exchange convention called to meet in London on the 10th of August.

D. B. PUGH
D. B. Pugh is spoken of as the most prominent candidate for governor of Louisiana against Packard, the candidate of the Grant-Union ring.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION
The Democratic convention of the third congressional district of Indiana met at Indianapolis yesterday, and nominated Judge George A. Bicknell for congress.

AMONG THE NAMES OF THOSE PROMINENTLY MENTIONED IN CONNECTION WITH THE APPOINTMENT OF INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONERS, IS THAT OF EX-CONGRESSMAN KILLGORE, OF CONNECTICUT.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF BELKNAP
The improvement of Belknap progresses slowly. One of the strongest witnesses against him was killed by the Indians. How handy to have Indians in the house, so to speak.

THE PUBLIC WORKS, CALLING FOR LAMPS AT THE COURT-SQUARE FOUNTAIN, INCREASES IN VOLUME EVERY DAY. THE LADIES ARE ESPECIALLY CLAMOROUS FOR THEM. TO THEIR DEMANDS WE KNOW THE CITY FATHERS CANNOT REMAIN DEAF. CAN WE NOT CONFIDENTLY ANNOUNCE TO THEM THAT THE LAMPS WILL BE PUT UP?

SEVERAL DEMOCRATIC WAR CLUBS WERE FORMED LAST NIGHT. WE HOPE THE GOOD WORK WILL GO ON UNTIL EVERY WAD HAS A CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION. WHEN THIS IS ACCOMPLISHED, THE NEXT THING IN ORDER WILL BE THE FORMATION OF A CENTRAL CLUB. WE MUST NOT DECIDE OURSELVES. PRESENT SILENCE ON THE PART OF OUR ENEMIES MUST NOT BE CONSTRUED INTO DEFEAT OF THE FIELD. WE ARE TO HAVE HARD WORK, AND MUST PREPARE FOR IT.

A DISPATCH FROM LOUISVILLE
A dispatch from Louisville is to the effect that "Mr. Henry Waterson will publish a letter to-morrow to the editors of this paper, in which he will announce the nomination for congress almost unanimously offered him. It is understood that he will have no opposition in his own party, but it is rumored to-night that the Republican will nominate Hon. B. H. Bristol, late secretary of the treasury, against him."

THE NEW YORK HERALD
The New York Herald proposes a movement to the memory of the gallant Chief, but it is a very truth-telling witness out of the way of Belknap. It is a good thing, also, and one that, while the South may be slow to second it by a hearty subscription, will be heartily endorsed by the only way left to us to vindicate one of the bravest and most chivalrous officers in the army. We submit, in addition, that his widow ought to be pensioned in full pay for life, as a special mark of the nation's gratitude and appreciation of him.

WE PUBLISH IN ANOTHER COLUMN A LETTER addressed to "Old Whigs," which is a very reasonable and an ordinary interest. It is an answer to the article and an appeal to such as feel in the least discontented with the present political situation. It points a way plainly and persistently for all who would see the government placed in competent hands and rescued from the Radical corruptionists who have been the bane and curse of the country, especially here at the South. We commend the letter of "Old Whigs" as one worthy of careful reading.

THE NEW YORK HERALD
The New York Herald publishes an interesting biographical sketch of Kellogg, its correspondent, who lost his life while fighting with the brave Custer and his command, and says of him editorially: "Glorious name to Kellogg, as to all the others of that brave command, only by death. It was not an ordinary curiosity that sent Kellogg to fall by the hand of the unknown warrior. He perished, like Custer and his brothers, and all that gallant army, led by the discharge of his duty, and no death could be nobler than that. Thackeray describes how Pendennis and Warrington passed a great newspaper office in London—a blaze of light and labor in the midst of a sleeping city. "Look at that," says Warrington to Pendennis, "there she is—the great engine—she never sleeps. She has her ambassadors in every quarter of the world, her couriers upon every road. Her officers march along with armies, and her envoys walk into statesmen's cabinets."

WE PUBLISH THIS MORNING THE TESTIMONY of the late Francis Thomas, delivered before the strength of the committee sent out to Memphis to inquire into and report upon the riots of 1868. We call special attention to the quotation we make from the report of the majority of the committee, who emphasized the testimony of Thomas and his paragon which was the most awful of the events which then assailed the indignation of the Radicals at the North. Our present interest in the testimony of Thomas and John M. Broomall exposed the majority of the committee. Mr. Shanklin being in the minority, made a report which he can, to-day, point to with pride, while his compeers hang their heads in shame that as sworn representatives of the government they allowed their prejudices to get the better of their judgment so far as to stamp a whole community infamous on the strength of the testimony of a ruffian who ought to be in the penitentiary. The Radicals are as continually abusing the South, on testimony no better than that of Francis Thompson, would do well to be warned by the exposure we make this morning. The mills of the gods grind slowly.

AT CHICAGO, July 12.—Six companies of the sixth infantry, under command of General Mills, passed through here this evening en route to the Sioux country. They were from Fort Leavenworth.
