

WE WILL, on the first of September, issue our usual annual review of the cotton trade of the city, together with a resume of the general market for the year. The edition of the APPEAL of that date will be unusually large, offering facilities for advertisers such as in other years they have not hesitated to avail themselves of. In order to facilitate in our efforts to cater for the public acceptably, and creditably to ourselves, we remind our friends that early and a continuation of the generous support which for thirty-six years the people of Memphis have extended to the APPEAL. Orders for papers and advertisements will be received up to the last day of this month at our counting-room.

Yield of cotton and gold: New York cotton, 1 1/2. Memphis cotton, 1 1/4. New York gold, 110. Memphis gold, 109 1/2.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. WAS DEPT. OFFICE CO. SIB. OFFICERS. For Tennessee and the Ohio valley, rising followed by falling barometer, easterly to southerly winds, and generally warmer, clearer weather.

The letters on our second page today will be found interesting.

The Charleston Journal of Commerce calls on "Carolinians, white and black, to rally to the rescue of the State-for law and order, peace and returning prosperity." That's the way to it.

The Democratic convention of this (the tenth) congressional district will meet in this city on Wednesday, the 24th inst. on the seventh of September, when we hope Casey Young will be nominated.

READ what the State papers say in regard to Governor Harris's letter. No doubt each reader will prefer to supply his own comments, especially in the case of the Radical and Independent papers.

A DISPATCH from San Agna states that Governor Porter, General Bates, Governor Harris and General Whit-thorne have been invited to speak there next Saturday at a grand old-fashioned barbecue.

The Democratic convention of the second congressional district of Arkansas meets at Camden, Thursday, the twenty-fourth inst. It is not improbable that Judge John T. Barden will be nominated for congress.

POSTMASTER PEAR, of Vicksburg, is uneasy about the tenure of his office. He went to Friate Post last Saturday, and rumor says the object of his visit there is to consult with Senator Alcorn and implore his influence.

A ROANOK correspondent of the Knoxville Tribune well and truly says that if Isham G. Harris had done as Longstreet did, he could have piled upon him such a heap of abuses as would have made him howl.

THE Knoxville Tribune gives it as a perplexing study to determine which will most distress the tender-hearted Chronicle, the retirement of Governor Harris from the electoral ticket, or the payment of interest on the State debt, by our Democratic treasury.

THE Chattanooga Times thinks Colonel Savage should "dry up," and says that "this barometer" (the elements of confidence, are marked by demagogical appeals, deformed by sophistry, and made hideous by an unrelenting and savage personalism which is repellent to well-to-do people."

GENERAL WHITTHORNE was honored with a reception by his constituents at Columbia on the nineteenth that surpassed any ovation ever given by many counties to any of her public servants. Over two thousand people participated. Such an honor could not be more worthily bestowed.

THE Chattanooga Times offers timely and good advice to candidates for the legislature "at the hands of Conservative voters, to eschew national politics for the nonce, and set themselves about acquiring as full knowledge as possible of what ought to be done at Nashville, in the interests of the people of Tennessee."

THE executive board of Shelby county yesterday resolved that the several conventions to nominate candidates for the legislature shall meet on the fifth of September. The primary and secondary conventions of delegates in several wards and precincts on Saturday, the second of September next.

MRS. AVERY, the wife of the convicted crooked whisky thief, now in the Missouri penitentiary, has vainly petitioned the President for a pardon, and although appealed to wait until after the Presidential election, being offered a bribe of five thousand dollars and a clerkship in the interior department, she and her friends say, that having failed, they will make public, and at an early day, the telegrams and papers which, it is alleged, she has been holding over the President's head.

THE Boston Banner says that Dorsey B. Thorne, in a speech delivered at that place last Monday, said he would "vote for a Republican on a reputation or a platform in preference to voting for J. D. Porter on his vague and uncertain platform. He further stated that he would not vote for any man who was in favor of recurring debt payment." And yet Mr. Thorne calls himself a Democrat. In our opinion he is nothing—neither Independent, Democrat nor Radical.

POKER JACK McCLELLAN objects to the expense of the State government being charged against the Republicans, inasmuch as Baxter turned against them. But, says the Camden Beacon, "the should recollect that the legislature of that year, was largely Radical, and made the appropriations—a good, large 'chunk' of which went into the coffers of P. J. & Co. For further particulars see report of committees of the constitutional convention."

THE Knoxville Tribune suggests Judge J. W. Clapp, of this city, to fill the vacancy in the electoral ticket made by the resignation of Governor Harris, and a correspondent of the Nashville Banner says: "Let the executive committee fill the vacancy by the appointment of some known Conservative Democrat, such, for instance, as Hon. E. A. James, or W. Fleming, and all will be right, both as to the 'State.'" Another suggestion is that of the Ledger, which offers Judge T. W. Brown, of this city, as a Democrat every way equal to the place.

A SPECIAL to the London Times from Belgrade confirms the report of the republic of the Turin Standard, but says in spite of that check the Turks have renewed the attack, and the result of the second fight is not yet known. If they take Alexandria and Delragra, Kera Pasha has a highway to Belgrade. General Tchernayeff has seventy-nine thousand men, but Krim Pasha's already large army has been reinforced by forty thousand men. A Vienna special to the Daily Telegraph also asserts that Prince Milan, in spite of the exertions of the war party to the contrary, has received the communi-cation from England with considerable favor, and is personally inclined to apply to the powers for mediation.

Wheeling, W. Va., August 21: It is stated that the steamer "Clay" in a recent mishap was waylaid a few days since at Glance, Ohio, and outraged, after which the ruffians on her loggins out and shot by Lieutenant Baidet, a person. No names and no arrests as yet.

Dayton, O., August 21: Governor Hayes, in a dispatch to the sheriff, requested that he should take into consideration the case of Murphy, sentenced to be hanged Friday for the murder of Colonel Dawson last September. Murphy will be hanged on the twenty-fifth inst.

Cleveland, August 21: Joshua A. Harris, an old and respected citizen and for many years the publisher of the Cleveland Herald, at one time mayor of this city, died to-day from the effects of a series of paralytic strokes which have attacked him during the last three years. Deceased was sixty-eight years of age.

Cheyenne, August 21: All but twenty-five of the "Clay" for a time after having been beasted and abused, and having indulged in numerous war dances, deserted at Cheyenne river Friday last, and have taken to the water. About one hundred were taken, and were furnished them to fight the Sioux.

New York, August 21: The employees of the New York and Pennsylvania railroad have struck, and traffic over the strike is the non-payment of wages for the week ending August 15th. Notes given for the previous four months wages.

Constantinople, August 21: In consequence of the death of the Emperor Alexander, the great Serbian army at the frontiers of the Balkans, and the Serbian detachments on the frontier, and the Serbians had toward Alexandria, the Bashi-Bazars are firing the villages behind them.

London, August 21: A dispatch from Alexandria reports that after driving in the Savian outposts on Saturday, all the British troops were taken to the rear, and the fighting continued. The Serbians withstood the assault, and the Turks began their retreat in the afternoon. The Serbians followed them across the frontier.

Cincinnati, August 21: Two young men, Henry Smith andquire Hannon, who were arrested on the charge of a highly respected citizen of Owen county, Kentucky, for the murder of a man named John H. Hannon, were held in jail about ten o'clock Saturday night last, by a masked band of about forty men, and hung upon a tree near the town.

London, August 21: An Athens dispatch announces that an insurrection has broken out at Pelion, in Crete. A dispatch from Alexandria, Egypt, says that reports have been received from Abyssinia that Wadia Mikel, the insurgent chief, has defeated the Abyssinians at Z. Kanga, and that fifteen hundred women and children have been massacred.

Recher, August 21: Last night a dastardly attempt was made to wreck the bridge over the Lincoln creek here, near the Lincoln creek bridge. The embankment at this point is seventy-five feet, and a rail was placed in such a manner as to make it impossible to see the whole train would go over it. Fortunately a man walking on the track discovered the men at work, and he notified a farmer near by named Wright, who succeeded in stopping the train just in time by swinging a lantern. About one hundred passengers were on board the train.

Cincinnati, August 21: The Enquirer's fugitives "West Virginia, special says: "Last Wednesday evening Sam Canades, a negro, raped an eight-year-old daughter of Policeman Hild. The negro was arrested, and Hild tried to shoot him in the magistrat's office, when the prisoner was removed to the Barbourville jail. Thirty masked men visited the jail early this morning, overpowered the guards, and took the negro out. He made a full confession, and was taken to a tree at nine o'clock this morning."

THE YIELDING TO THE FRIGHTENED ONES. I have G. Harris has been forced to decline the position on the electoral ticket for the State at large, tendered him by the late Democratic State convention. His name was so obnoxious to East Tennessee Democrats that he well comprehended it for their sake, and he demanded that they should step down and

HARRIS. HE HAS YIELDED TO THEIR WISHES AND IS NO LONGER ON THE TICKET. IT WAS THE ANDY JOHNSON VINDICTA, YOU KNEW.

Comments of the Leading Dailies of the State Upon His Letter Resigning the Nomination as State Elector.

His Patriotic, Self-Sacrificing Spirit Generally Commended—An Example Worthy the Best Days of the Republic.

The Independents Trying to Array the Andry Johnson Voters Against Him—The Radicals Will Conceal Their Joy at His Removal.

WE give below the opinions of the leading dailies of the State upon the letter of Governor Harris resigning the nomination as one of the electors for the State at large. It will be seen that the Independent papers are united in their effort to make sectional mischief out of his nomination, one of them going so far as to suggest that he is the legitimate prey of an Andy Johnson vendetta which will pursue him through life, as if the friends of the dead President could organize themselves as a band of political out-throats resolved to obscure a life the results of which are among the precious legacies of the State. But what is said of Governor Harris by these opponents of his party is more than compensated for by what the Democratic papers say. Their commendations are a panacea for any wound inflicted by such Tennesseeans as permit their prejudices and bigotry to run away with their judgment and patriotism.

A PATRIOTIC SELF-SACRIFICING LETTER. Nashville American (Dem.). The patriotic and self-sacrificing letter of Governor Harris, declining a place on the electoral ticket, is a noble and surprising proof of his ability to stand aside and endure the reproaches of his party, and to believe that past opinions and war issues could form a part of the discussion of a national election. It is a noble and surprising proof of his ability to stand aside and endure the reproaches of his party, and to believe that past opinions and war issues could form a part of the discussion of a national election.

THE BODY TO BE EMBALMED. WASHINGTON, August 21.—An embalmer was sent to Rockbridge Alum Springs last night to take the body of the late Speaker Kerr, and to-night the casket for his remains was forwarded to the party accompanying it to the city buildings in this city and Brooklyn to-day were displayed at half-past ten, and the late speaker of the house, Mr. Kerr.

RESPECT TO HIS MEMORY. NEW YORK, August 21.—The flags on the city buildings in this city and Brooklyn to-day were displayed at half-past ten, and the late speaker of the house, Mr. Kerr.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE RECEPTION OF THE REMAINS IN WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, August 21.—When the body of the late Speaker Kerr arrives here, Barge-at-Arms Thompson will take them in charge. He is in favor of having them lie in state in the city buildings in this city and Brooklyn to-day were displayed at half-past ten, and the late speaker of the house, Mr. Kerr.

ARKANSAS NEWS. Clarendon has the measles. The Monroe county Radicals have nominated a full county ticket.

A MISAPPREHENDED MAN. Chattanooga Commercial (Dem.). We have little doubt that Governor Harris is said to be a man of great energy and ambition, and of public service, is an act of self-abnegation that few men of his rank and position could have done it. The act acquired statesmanship and patriotism in the actor.

ALABAMA NEWS. Mr. Waters, a Mobile boarding-house lady, recently assailed two burglars who entered her residence. They burglarized her house, and she shot them. She was wounded, but she recovered.

TENNESSEE NEWS. Hon. W. J. McFarland is mentioned as the Democratic elector for the ninth district in the coming year.

MISSISSIPPI NEWS. Kokokusko Star: Major J. F. Sessions, who was elected State senator from the Brookhaven district, as a Republican, a few years ago, and who was elected in favor of Tilden and Hendricks.

THE DEAD SPEAKER. Dispatch from Sunset Cox—Brave and Self-Reliant to the Last—Close of a Lingering Agony.

The Body Embalmed, and Escorted by Messrs. Saylor and Casey Young, of the House, on its way to New Albany.

New York, August 20.—A special to the World from Rockbridge Alum Springs, West Virginia, on Saturday, says: "Our friend Mr. Kerr died about seven o'clock evening last, having been laid on his side for two days. His last breath was painful, as he so much desired his corpse was to be removed as it was his hope. He was thoroughly content and prepared for the unseen world. He was conscious and intelligent, and his illness was not a long one. He died of consumption of the bowels, but he was not in the least feeble. He was a man of great energy and ambition, and of public service, is an act of self-abnegation that few men of his rank and position could have done it. The act acquired statesmanship and patriotism in the actor.
