Allison Brothers, Memphis, Tenn. 37-38 Front Street, corner Union. Read what is said of the "C. C. C.": "Those who have had the benefit of it have had in successful operation the C. C. C. purchased of you. I am greatly pleased to find it is so successful in every-gin-house. All the claims have been fully sustained, and I think you have not, in the least, exaggerated its merits. It is easy to use and does not require much space, and it is a beautiful condition for the work of the gin. It is most apparent benefit, is of course, the lower grades, but believe with much confidence, that the quality of all cottons—the first as well as the lastings. Yours, truly, D. L. HILL, JR., Memphis, Tenn., July 1, 1876.

See it Believing. If ladies who do not use the fragrant Scent will compare their hair with those who do, they will find the difference in the reasons for adopting it than in the work composed into a newspaper paragraph.
