

NEW LINES OF Ladies' Linen & Baptiste Suits

JUST RECEIVED, AT B. Lowenstein & Bros. THE BEST MERCHANDISE

Fifty Per Cent. Less than Their Actual Value

LADIES' SUMMER COSTUMES WHICH WE ARE OFFERING AT

DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS! REDUCED! REDUCED! REDUCED!

B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS., 242, 244 and 246 Main St., Cor. Jefferson.

KREMER, HERZOG & CO. WHOLESALE

MILLINERY GOODS! TO MERCHANTS, MILLINERS, AND DEALERS IN FANCY GOODS!

Milinery Goods, Trimmings, Straw and Felt Goods, Flowers, Feathers, Silks, Velvets, Ribbons, Etc.,

KREMER, HERZOG & CO. 253-255 Main street, opp. Court Square.

W. H. EADLER & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF

Doors, Sash, Blinds, Moldings

Rough & Dressed Lumber, Shingles, Lath, Etc

OFFICE AND FACTORY: 358 and 360 Second street, Memphis, Tenn.

CHICKASAW IRON WORKS!

RANDLE, HEATH & LIVERMORE, Prop'rs, No. 98 Second Street, Memphis, Tennessee.

Foundry and Machine-shop Work

SOLE AGENTS OF THE LANE & HODLEY CO. FOR ELEVATORS, ENGINES, SAWMILLS, ETC.

MEMPHIS, TENN., AUGUST 21, 1877.

CLONING RATES

Yearly of cotton and gold. Liverpool cotton, 10 5/8c. Memphis cotton, 10 5/8c. New Orleans cotton, 10 5/8c. New York cotton, 11 1/2c.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Tennessee and the Ohio valley and lake region, stationary or lower pressure, partly cloudy weather, and warmer, somewhat to southeast winds, followed by cooler, northerly winds, cloudy, and rain over a portion of the upper lake region.

OBSERVATIONS YESTERDAY.

Table with columns for Station, Bar, Therm, Wind, Clouds, Rain, and Remarks. Includes data for Memphis, Nashville, and other locations.

Key has told the New Englanders for the third time that he comes "from a far off land."

The Methodist clergy of Philadelphia denounce the opening of the Permanent exhibition on Sunday.

The twenty-third triennial convocation of the general assembly of the Synod of the United States of the United States begins at Buffalo, New York, to-day.

The Mobile Register wants to know when General Howard is to be court-martialed and cashiered for incapacity, and how long will noble live be sacrificed to his imbecility?

Every citizen of Memphis or of Tennessee, who holds any evidence of city indebtedness, should promptly change it for the new bonds, and set an example to our foreign citizens.

MacLennan is actively engaged in saving society in France by crushing out every semblance of personal liberty, and the church, in the name of "law and order," is helping him.

Tax aggregates from fourteen counties show a decrease in value as compared with 1876 of $5,065,295—the total being for 1876, $43,230,218, and for this year (1877), $38,154,920.

Judge Reilly, of Virginia, is authority for the statement that an administration ticket is to be placed in the field this fall in the Old Dominion. The Baltimore Gazette thinks it would be almost as electrifying as a Fulton-Thomson campaign in Maryland.

Governor Connor, of Maine, has telegraphed President Hayes, inviting him to visit Maine as a guest of the State. Senator Blaine also telegraphed the President, urging him to accept the invitation, and requesting him to accept the hospitalities of his home during his stay.

A fact worthy of consideration by the faction opposing the board of health is that of the four hundred and fifty-eight deaths reported as having taken place last month in Hudson county, New Jersey, one hundred and three of them resulted from Asiatic cholera.

Messrs. W. H. Miller, U. M. Rose, and F. W. Compton, comprising the State board of finance of Arkansas, in a communication to the Little Rock Gazette, say that they failed to effect a loan on the terms prescribed by the legislature because of the stringency of the money market.

Governor Hampton's not given in the mouth of everybody, and yet he is a pronounced State-rights Democrat, and is opposed to all the centralizing tendencies of the Hayes administration, such as an increase of the army and the establishment of a bureau of trade and commerce.

The Chicago Railway Age states that twenty-two railway companies reporting earnings for July 1877 show an increase and twelve a decrease from last year, the net decrease being $183,967. The heaviest losers are the Central Pacific, Chicago and Alton, and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, which alone account for $408,050 of the gross decrease.

The Nashville American says of Judge Randall that "situated where he can judge of the effect of the recent troubles upon popular opinion, and gifted with excellent powers of observation, and not given to mistakes, he does now what he never did before—comes out conspicuously and squarely in favor of the Texas Pacific road and the Mississippi river."

Hon. Raleigh T. Daniel, attorney-general of Virginia and Democratic candidate for re-election to the same office, died at Richmond on Thursday, after a day's illness, from hemorrhage of the bowels. At the time of his re-election last week he was in apparently vigorous health, and, in accepting the nomination, made one of the best speeches before the Conservative convention. He has been in public life over forty years.

The New York Bulletin thinks that matters little whether the workmen work apart from existing political organizations or through co-operating with one of the present parties that may humble itself by offering to satisfy all its demands. In either case, the "workmen's party" will hold the balance of power and will be able to dictate its terms on all questions in Federal, State and local legislation and government.

The New York Journal of Commerce finds comfort in what it prints as a fact, that "all through the north and west, and in many parts of the south, the people are opposed to subsidies of every description, and a strong combination will be made to upset any candidate for the speakership who puts his hopes on the championship of subsidies alone. If such a man should be elected to that high office, it does not follow that the Texas Pacific and other lobbies would be any nearer the fruition of their dreams. The mutual jealousy of these schemers is itself a good protection against them." We shall see.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer says there is a good deal of feeling in that city among southern men concerning Judge Key's four-line speech at Bennington, wherein he alludes to the erring southern brethren. The universal comment is that it was unequalled for, in bad taste, and not at all calculated to obliterate sectional feeling. Then, too, it is an admission on Key's part that he feels that he is only a

THE WAR.

The German Government is not disposed to believe the Turkish Tales of Russian Atrocities—No Change Likely in Austria's Policy.

Turkey Preparing for a Winter Campaign—Russian Troops will not go Through Servia—The Emperor Alexander will Encourage the Troops by his Presence.

The Losses by the Battle of Sadowa—An Independent Cavalry Expedition—The Russian Excesses—Women and Children Brutally Outraged, and Whole Companies of Men Murdered.

Berlin, August 20.—Germany's representations to the Porte in regard to the atrocities committed by the Turkish troops are based on the Geneva convention, which, to the German view, not only binds the belligerents to observe its provisions toward each other, but gives neutrals a right to insist on its faithful observance. Germany's note will be communicated to the other powers.

Vienna, August 20.—A telegram from Galatz states that seven thousand Turkish or Serbian troops have disembarked at Salina, and are marching on Taltzoch, which is weakly garrisoned. The Turks from Silistria are to be marching against Chernovitz, and the Russians to be hastening to Braila, where reinforcements are expected. A telegram from Athens says that the British have sent orders to fortify the chief forts of the coast, as they have been notified by similar orders had been given respecting the preparation of men-of-war, situated in the Athens harbors in an immediate outbreak of war.

Konstantinople, August 20.—The Russian army has occupied the city of Tiflis. The Turkish army occupies in force the line leading from the town to Schikpa. The Turks are a considerable distance off and do not make any demonstration. It is said the Russians intend to blockade Plevna, but do not attempt to take it by assault. Osman has supplies beginning to fail. At the special request of Grand Prince Nicholas the mobilization of two more divisions of grenadiers and one cavalry division has been ordered. Saturday the Russians numbering thirty-five thousand infantry, ten regiments of cavalry, and a few batteries of artillery, attacked Mukhtar Pasha along his whole line, extending from Magarajik to Yakinlar. The Russian supplies were destroyed, and the morning and at six o'clock in the evening the Russians retreated in good order to their encampment near the village of Turgul. The Turkish loss one hundred and sixty-five killed and wounded and the Russians one hundred and twenty. They destroyed the telegraph line in the vicinity and stopped all travel over the road for several days. A Russian force of about 1000 men, with a battery of guns, is reported to have taken possession of the village of Turgul, and seems in excellent health and spirits. The air is pure and in contrast to the unhealthy atmosphere which still fills Plevna. The health of the troops is much improved, but the general situation is still falling. Prince Galatz has been ordered to march to the front. The stream of reinforcements is now steadily flowing through Roumania. It is expected that both the Russian and the Turkish forces will be in position by the first week in September. The staff here calculate that one hundred and twenty thousand men are now actually on the march to reinforce the army. The next battle which Plevna is meant to be decisive; the delay for the sake of insuring success. The fourth cavalry division has been detached on an independent expedition for the purpose of severing the Turkish communication with Sophia by blockading Ochorik pass, telegraphs as follows: "It is felt here that this should be done earlier, but if successful now, it will still have good results in the event of a crushing Turkish defeat at Plevna. It would lead to the station of Sedan, and it is obviously hazardous."

London, August 20.—A correspondent of the Daily News, at Staden, the headquarters of the Fourth cavalry division on an independent expedition for the purpose of severing the Turkish communication with Sophia by blockading Ochorik pass, telegraphs as follows: "It is felt here that this should be done earlier, but if successful now, it will still have good results in the event of a crushing Turkish defeat at Plevna. It would lead to the station of Sedan, and it is obviously hazardous."

London, August 20.—The Agricultural Gazette says it is plain that 1877 will prove no exception to the succession of unfortunate harvests we have lately experienced. The wheat crop is certainly very generally and very largely below the average. Data and winter beans seem to be the best of the grain crops of the year. On the other hand, it has been a great year for the grasses and dairy farmers. All kinds of cattle are found unusually abundant. All kinds of crops, are now very generally threatened with disease. The hay crop is abundant.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

London, August 20.—The excitement attendant upon the disappearance of the little daughter of Mr. Rose, of Washington county, does not seem to abate, although the affair has assumed an entirely new phase, and it is now thought that instead of the child having been lost on the prairie, as at first supposed, that it has been kidnapped for the purpose of obtaining a large reward for its return. A man named John Holman, residing on the prairie of the same name, is now being held by Mr. Rose for the child's return.

THE PRESIDENT.

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

TENNESSEE NEWS.

Mile societies flourish in Chattanooga. Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

Shelbyville Commercial: "The wheat is not coming in so plentiful as it was. Farmers are holding for higher prices."

THE PRESIDENT.

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "A Man who was Greatly Wrong in the Past, but is Greatly Right Now."

His Speech, at the Close of which He Introduces Postmaster-General Key as "