

WEATHER INDICATIONS TO-DAY. Fair, Tennessee and Ohio rainy, stationary barometer and favorable, partly cloudy weather and possibly occasional rains, southerly wind.

GENERAL BURNETT JOHNSON is out in favor of Gordon for a third term.

The Kansas City Times—the very best success—has been overwhelmingly opposed to Thibault.

By a vote of 289 to 241 Bradburn, the English edition, was allowed to take the rails as he offered to, and will take his seat in the house of commons to-day.

FOR THE CHAIRS in Italy show that the unionists and constitutionalists are in the majority by a heavy vote. Garibaldi and Crispien are among those elected.

The London Times, of April 20th, strove for the introduction in London of the street fire alarm system, which for years has been so common in America.

GORDON, it is understood, has been tendered the office of attorney for the Louisville and Nashville railroad, and will accept at a salary of ten thousand dollars a year.

GENERAL MORAN, the hero of the battle of the Cowpens, is to be commemorated by a brass monument by the celebrated sculptor Ward, at a cost of fifteen thousand dollars.

SENATOR HAMPTON, of South Carolina, has received more than a hundred dispatches from all parts of the south cordially commending him for his speech in reply to Ben Hill on the Kellogg case.

The New York Herald says of General Gordon's resignation, that "there are plenty of other soldiers that could be better spared, but the general has a name which is followed, and will be inestimable service to the country."

TILDEN, it must be remembered, has instructed Knott, through Henry Waterbury, not to instruct for him. He wants the Democrats of the blue-grass State to assume the virtue of independence, if they have it.

A CORRESPONDENT at St. Petersburg writes that General Malakof recently refused to sign a proposal for the establishment of a two-house assembly. The czar deprecated the suggestion, and said he felt further reform in the hands of the aristocracy after his death.

JAMES FIELD CARP California by ten thousand majority against any candidate the Republicans can name. California is threatened with the party in field, and it would be unwise to let it go.

The London Pall Mall Gazette, in commenting upon the Whitaker case, says: "But what point is in feeling toward the colored race, is as Harvard, and Harvard is as that even more considerable institution than the American public." Just so. They are all alike prejudiced against the negro.

ALONG the overture received by the general assembly of the southern Presbyterian church, in session at Charleston, South Carolina, on Friday last, was one from the synod of Memphis to transfer the Ochs and Ochs church from the Tennessee to the Chicago presbytery; and from the synod of Memphis that article 5, section 1 of the form of government be interpreted by the assembly.

It is said that the prospect of the western powers using pressure on Russia in the Berlin treaty has caused Russia to endeavor to gain influence in Turkey by adopting a more lenient course, and that the execution of the Russian fleet will not be insisted upon by Russia.

MR. JOHN W. CHILDRESS, jr., chairman of the State Democratic executive committee, announces the holding of a convention at the Louisville, Nashville and Great Southern, the Mobile and Ohio, and the New Orleans, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, that they will sell round-trip tickets at six cents per mile, from any station on their line respectively, in the State of Tennessee, to be good on the sixth, seventh and eighth of June in going, and to return by the fifteenth.

The New York Tribune does not believe in the political opposition regard him as a fair, courteous, consistent antagonist, who has consistently represented the views of the Georgia Democracy, and yet esteem him personally for many excellent qualities of head and heart. His resignation of the Georgia Democracy, and his withdrawal from the senate chamber.

ACCORDING to the New York Herald's figures Great loss, so far, 303 of the Republican delegates elected to the Chicago convention, 235, Democrat, 168, Union, 100, plurality of Great over Union, 57, Great less than a majority, 70.

SPRAKER RANDALL was recently presented with a gold watch valued at one hundred and ten dollars by the committee on the part of the Republican caucus, Mr. C. Young, of Atlanta. The donor in his letter said he believed Mr. Randall "to be a true friend of the people, and that he could not overlook the fact that the gold watch was the property of one who cherishes the country and the principles of the Republic, whose patriotism and statesmanship I have ever held in deep veneration."

Has the Senate Authorized the Use of the Withdrawal of the Home Loan? The Chicago Convention.

CHICAGO, May 24.—The Tribune's Geneva special says: The Gazette, which editorials personal instead of general Grant, will publish a statement denying the current Chicago Ledger has information that General Grant will order the withdrawal of the Home Loan bill. He says neither Childs nor any one else has the authority to make such a statement. General Grant's name has never been before the public as a candidate by any word or act of his own and he has not withdrawn. A very large class of the American people have confidence in him as a candidate, and if the Republican convention were to elect him, the nomination would not be decided. He knows that the withdrawal of the Home Loan bill is well for the Republic of the country to cease to hold the mail in doubt, and he has written to the speaker that he had received no answer to his telegram informing General Grant of the action of the legislative committee.

A Disappointed Candidate Committee Special to the Appeal. A. M. M. May 24.—Captain Samuel Williams, of Sumner county, Alabama, committed suicide at his residence, a few miles west of Boone. He was a sheriff of that county some years ago and a graduate of the military academy at West Point. He was shot Saturday evening, and was found dead at four o'clock this evening, and his aspirations.

WASHINGTON.

The Senate today rejected a bill for the purpose of providing a rule for counting the Presidential vote. The bill was introduced by Senator Bayard, and was passed by the House on May 22, 1879, by a vote of 25 to 23.

For the Appointment of Deputy Marshals.—The Donnelly-Finley bill—An Earnest Appeal from the Star.—Report on the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Wm. S. King, of Missouri, was examined to-day before the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee. He was asked to give his views on the bill for the appointment of deputy marshals, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The following correspondence between Senator Bayard and Hon. David Davis, senator from Illinois, will be published here to-morrow.

The Letter of Inquiry.—The committee on the part of the Senate, which was appointed to inquire into the conduct of the late President Grant, has received a letter from David Davis, senator from Illinois, in which he inquires into the conduct of the late President Grant, and asks for a report thereon.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

DAVIS.

The Senator from Illinois is Drawn Out by a Friend, who Makes Inquiry that Enable him to Express his Views Upon Several Very Important Questions.

All that may be Taken to Mean that if David Davis in the Successful Nomination of the Democratic Party for the Presidency he will Favor Certain Measures.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The following correspondence between Senator Bayard and Hon. David Davis, senator from Illinois, will be published here to-morrow.

The Letter of Inquiry.—The committee on the part of the Senate, which was appointed to inquire into the conduct of the late President Grant, has received a letter from David Davis, senator from Illinois, in which he inquires into the conduct of the late President Grant, and asks for a report thereon.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The count in the railroad case, which was introduced by Senator Bayard on the 22d of March, the date of the anonymous letter to Representative Donnelly, and also on the letter of the Donnelly-Finley investigating committee, which was published in the Star on the 22d of March.

THORNTON.

The Worthy President of the Memphis Board of Health, Brings the Blundering State Board to Time—He Rescues the Passage of a Resolution that Removes the Reflections Cast Upon Him by the Selection of Correspondents without his Knowledge—The Board Agrees that it is a Case of "J. N. S." Philosophy, Both Right.

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had accepted the position of chemist to the board. A discussion arose over the following letter from the secretary to physicians throughout the State:

MEMPHIS, May 24.—At a meeting of the State board of health to-day, it was announced that Prof. N. L. Smith had