TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1881.

A DISPATCH from Rome states that Father Beck, General of the Order of St. Basil, is dangerously ill. Father Beck is a German, and one of the highest scholars of the Catholic Church.

The signatures of leading business firms of New York are being obtained to a petition to Congress in opposition to the National Bankruptcy act introduced last winter and generally known as the Lowell bill.

A Paris dispatch says that Paul Bert's lecture on educational topics was a violent attack on the Catholic religion and its system of education. The presence of Gambetta on such an occasion is considered singular, particularly as after the lecture he landed Bert as one who not only had anticipated but a future.

The London Times, in its financial article of yesterday, stated that the withdrawal orders for gold from the Bank of England, which had been received had been wholly cancelled, but as long as the New York market presents the appearance it does, and exchange keeps weak as it is, withdrawal may be expected to continue.

Bismarck is evidently preparing to make peace with the Pope. As a preliminary, he has commissioned Herr von Schöner, German Minister at Washington, to meet the Pope and conduct negotiations with the Vatican. The Pope, on his side, has met the Prince more than half way by appointing his favorite, Dr. Krönig, Bishop of Trier. Dr. Krönig is now the guest of Prince Bismarck at Varzin.

Payne and his co-conspirators to the number of ten thousand intend to move into Oklahoma next October. Hon. J. M. Steele, at one time an aspirant for the Governorship of Kansas, is President of the Oklahoma company, which intends a definite movement as above, whether the Government likes it or not. The recent report of the discovery of large quantities of gold in Oklahoma has given rise to the movement, which we believe will eventually be crowned with success.

A DISPATCH from London, received yesterday, states that Bishop Quiring, of the Episcopal Diocese, preached a sermon at St. Paul on Sunday last, in the course of which he referred to the spirit now abroad in the world to put down all authority, and said the young President was a man who before the world dared to take by the throat. He was a man who might be killed but not subdued from right.

The National Board of Health has taken the most precautionary steps to prevent the introduction into any of our ports of either yellow-fever or smallpox. At the same time the State and city Health Boards continue the vigilance as to local sanitary matters, which for two years past has rewarded them with a decreased death rate. All of which is essential to commercial growth and the permanent increase of business as the investment of capital.

A LEASING question with the people of Southern California just now is the formation of a separate State composed of the counties of Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Kern, and Santa Inez. The territory is about the size of the present State, and having a population of 820,000. The people of these counties are as far from the capital at Sacramento as are those of Western Virginia from Memphis.

Mr. JOHN WALTER, of the London Times, now on his way to this country for a third visit, will be a guest of the Aztec Club at its annual dinner, to be given this year on the 14th of September at the Grosvenor Hotel. The dinner will be given at the Grosvenor Hotel, London. Mr. Walter will be accompanied by his wife and two children. He is a man of great energy and has been a member of the Grosvenor Club for many years.

THE ENGLISH tenant farmers, in view of what the Government has done for the Irish tenant farmers, are organizing for land reform. The farmers' clubs and agricultural laborers' unions have been thoroughly organized and equipped under the management of Mr. Joseph Arch, and no doubt Mr. Arch and his associates are supplied with the means of carrying out their plan. Mr. Gladstone is heartily in favor of the movement, which will no doubt monopolize a large share of the attention of Parliament when it meets next year. The English tenant has no ground for complaint in regard to his relations with the landlord, and the present agitation is not, like the recent agitation in Ireland, aimed at the laws of tenancy, but at the basic principle of the whole system—primogeniture and entail.

THE Democratic papers of Mississippi are very anxious to know if General Lowry, the nominee for Governor, is in favor of the re-election of Senator Lamar. They have put the question in many ways and many times, and they demand an answer. The Vicksburg Herald does not know of any good reason why he should not answer, and says that if he is opposed to the return of Lamar to the Senate the friends of the latter desire to know it. It is all there in the question. Believing with Hernandez D. Money, that Lamar's shoes are too large for any other man in Mississippi, and that he is the unquestioned champion of a vast majority of the people of the State, we are opposed to leaving his election to the 'houses,' be they small or large. Every man seeking the people's suffrage should speak out in this terms. We hope General Lowry will answer?

FROM the New York World's London correspondent we learn that the rumor that Sir Charles Walford intended to enter public life and found a new Irish party—national, but not tainted with Fenianism—is denied by Sir Charles himself in a letter to the Dublin Freeman. It is true, however, that Sir Charles no longer since contemplated such a step, but he found that it would be a hopeless task. Duffy was known as one of the second-rate Young Irelanders, and his personal influence was never at any time very great. He put an end to his career in Ireland by accepting not only office but a title in the colony of Victoria. Besides which, he has not been identified with Irish affairs for thirty years.

and has long been held by the active members and leaders of the various national organizations to have full effect in some way described—the cause which in his youth he advocated so earnestly.

THAT the Greenbackers of Mississippi may realize in what it concern them and by other organizations, it is a fair statement of the Republican estimate of the average Greenbacker, and should convince the latter that any alliance with the former, however temporary, can only have one result, and that to secure to the Republicans the lion's share of the spoils.

THE Democratic Executive Committee of Mississippi has issued an address to the people of that State, the full text of which we publish in another column. The chief point in it, and to which attention cannot be too often called, is that the triumph of the Greenback-Republican party means the triumph of Republicanism pure and simple, and that the success of a party of the name of administration of State affairs still remain to testify of its incompetency and extravagance, in many instances of its misadministration. This is the point which should be kept in mind by every thinking man, of the direction in which his duty lies. The question for every citizen to consider: "What did the Republican party do which was the character of its general legislation?" This answered, the next question should be: "What has the Democratic party done to lessen the taxes of the State and to wipe out the oppressive and repressive legislation which for so long weighed upon the best energies of the people?" Answer to these contrasting questions can have but one effect—to confirm every Democrat in the belief that he has the support of the Democratic party, and they should convince the so-called Greenbackers, and even honest Republicans, that peace and prosperity are the sacred goals to Mississippi if the administration of her affairs be conducted by Democratic officers.

THE London Times, in its financial article of yesterday, stated that the withdrawal orders for gold from the Bank of England, which had been received had been wholly cancelled, but as long as the New York market presents the appearance it does, and exchange keeps weak as it is, withdrawal may be expected to continue.

HEADQUARTERS DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE STATE KEYNOTE COMMITTEE, MEMPHIS, AUGUST 29, 1881.
