Superior Fresco Work. A representative of the artist was yesterday afforded an opportunity of visiting the palatial residence of Dr. D. T. Porter, recently erected at the southeast corner of Vance and Orleans streets, where Mr. B. Erickson, the accomplished fresco artist of New York, is decorating the rooms and halls in the highest style of his art. It was a treat to the newspaper man to see such elegant work, though yet in an unfinished condition, and the hours were spent most pleasantly. The ceilings of the halls and dining-rooms are elegant in design and workmanship, but those of the parlor are simply superb. The designs are tropical in inspiration, consisting of plants, flowers, birds, etc., backgrounded with silver-lined clouds, blue skies and the like, combining to make a picture enchanting in the highest degree. During the visit Mr. Erickson took occasion to give his valuable reception to the artist, and in this he was most obliging. He also explained to the reporter the nature of the work, and the fact that the artist is a native of New York, and has been in the profession since he was a boy.
