W. F. BIPPUS WINS SPECIAL SHOOTING EVENT OF HOGANS

Shatters 95 Clay Birds Out of a Possible 100 at Closing Day's Shoot at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 19.—William F. Bippus, of Dayton, Ohio, today annexed laurels in the Westy Hogan special, a specially arranged race for amateurs averaging 85 per cent. on the closing program at the eighth annual classic of the Westy Hogans.

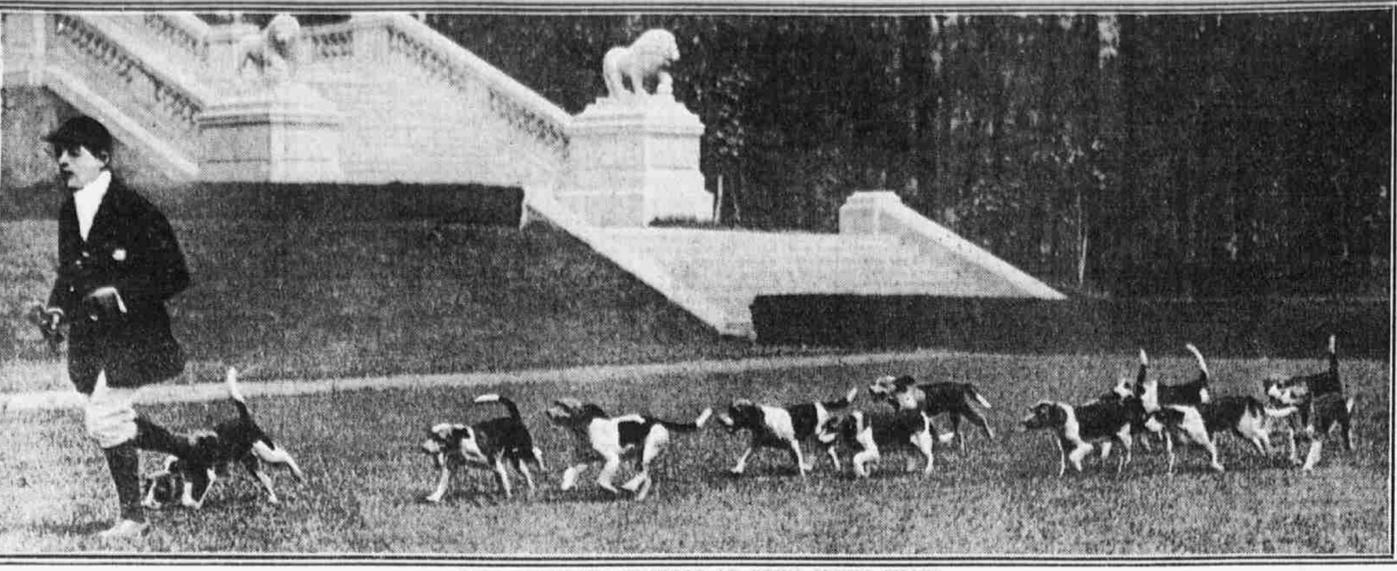

Some Philadelphia scores were: W. H. Soley, 89; W. T. Smith, 84; J. J. Stone, 74; E. G. Clark, 83; C. C. Watson, 83; R. Waters, 82; W. R. Abbott, 79; G. M. Hilpot, 78; J. L. Wright, 81; F. McConnell, 84; W. L. Hoffman, 73; J. F. Fontaine, 81; Harry Greenwood, 72; Dr. Harvey Wiley, 80; A. MacAlomir, 85.

Mrs. Harry Harrison, of the Riverside Gun Club, Rochester, N. Y., delighted the large following again today by breaking the very fine total of 75 out of her 100 blue-rocks. Miss M. W. Remy, of Anderson, Ind., netted 95 "breakers."

William Ford, the clever shot from Wilmington, Del., topped the greatest gathering of stars ever assembled in the 10-foot mark shooting contest. He captured the classy field in recording the sheet of 97 out of a possible 100. Wins were particularly deceiving at this time of the day, the record in consequence looking up all the more prominent.

Allen Hill, of Allentown, Pa., finished second in this race. He broke 95 out of 100. George L. Lyon, of Durham, N. C., cracked 94. Charles N. Adams, of Philadelphia, and Bart Lewis, of Auburn, Ill., each recorded slates aggregating 93 in the century of blue-rocks. Lewis won a leg on the DuPont shot at Philadelphia.

William Ridley, Iowa State titleholder, who also gained possession of this much coveted cup, did not make any showing here. Captain J. W. Smith, of Johnson, Mo., captured the green heat on 92 in his century allotment. Although starting with a perfect score on the first trap, the venerable sportsman failed to get into the running in this championship.

WILL INTEREST VISITORS AT BRYN MAWR SHOW. H. C. Phipps, of New York, to exhibit this fine pack of Beagles at the Horse Show Tuesday.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE PRACTICE IS HELD BY PENN'S ELEVEN

Athletes Put Through Real Signal Trials This Morning—No Work for the Players This Afternoon.

The first and second varsity eleven of the University of Pennsylvania held their first scrimmage practice this morning at Franklin Field.

About 10 o'clock twenty-five men reported to Brooke and donned their football togs. They got out on the gridiron and started running down kicks. After a short drill the two elevens were formed and a run through signals was ordered.

Coach Brooke then took the men to the center of the field where he lined them up for a mock scrimmage to intercept forward passes. Brooke noticed that the men wanted to get at the real work and permitted them. He gave the platoon the first varsity eleven, Jones, Matthews, Irwin and Gotwals carried the ball through the line and around the ends in a fashion which pleased the coaches present.

ED COLLINS NOT NOVICE AT DAILY ARTICLE WRITING

Athletic Star Who Will Cover World's Series for Evening Ledger Familiar With Newspaper Details.

Eddie Collins, who will contribute a daily article to the EVENING LEDGER during the world's series in October, is not a novice at this kind of work. Every one knows that the great second-sacker of the Athletics is a clever, accurate baseball writer of special stories, but there are some who do not know that he can go through the daily work with as much facility as the man who covers an entire major league season.

Collins performed his best daily work last year during the season. His stories were widely read. This year Collins is again going to write the series, and with his knowledge of just what the fans want it is safe to say that there will be no better stories in the country on the big series than those printed in the EVENING LEDGER.

HOT WEATHER IS A SERIOUS DRAWBACK TO FOOTBALL WORK

Pennsylvania Gridiron Warriors Suffer Much in Scrimmage Contests on Franklin Field.

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL. Franklin Field was a veritable oven yesterday, and the football men suffered.

Hardly the day the coaches would have selected to give their men the first taste of scrimmaging. The time before the initial contest with Gettysburg, one week hence, is already perilously short, and this sort of strenuous work was absolutely imperative to permit the coaches to pass on the respective merits of the candidates for the line.

In another part of the field Head Coach Brooke had the candidates for the backfield doing work almost as strenuous. Embryo quarterbacks, halfbacks and fullbacks ran through signals, hurried and caught forward passes, chased up and down the field under kicks and even tried a little work in running back punts.

INDIANS BATTLE ALBRIGHT WITH WEAKENED TEAM

Guyon, Their Best Man, Arrives Too Late for Game, While Bruises Keep Other Stars Out.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 19.—Torrid weather conditions gruelled the players in the opening contest of the football season here this afternoon, when the Carlisle Indians played Albright in short periods.

The visitors, coached by the veteran Charles Kechner, arrived earlier than is their custom, and were given a brief workout before the game. There was considerable disparity between the two lines, the Indians' front averaging about 170 and Albright over 180.

Quarter—Eight minutes. Referee—Leo Harris, Harrisburg. Umpire—Paul Smith, Buckle. Head Lineup—Paul Otterbein. Captain Benfer won the toss, and chose to receive the ball while defending the south goal.

BEAGLE HOUNDS TO BE EXHIBITED AT BRYN MAWR SHOW

Appropriate The American Peterboro Should Be Held Here, as Philadelphia Is Great Sport Centre.

As it is generally accepted that Philadelphia is the greatest sporting centre of America, it is particularly appropriate that the first "American Peterboro" should be held here.

At the coming Bryn Mawr Hound Show there will be a large number of local entries, and many representative packs from other cities will compete.

There are several sections of this country in which the English hare, which is the ideal quarry to hunt with beagles, has been introduced.

STRAIN OF LONG GAMES TELLS ON SPENCER WRIGHT

Aronimink Golfer Easy for J. N. Stearns, 3d, After Yesterday's 19 Hole Matches—Score 4 Up and 3 to Play.

ST. MARTINS, Pa., Sept. 19.—Spencer L. Jones, Plymouth Country Club, and J. N. Stearns, 3d, Nassau Country Club, Glen Cove, Long Island, will meet this afternoon in the final round for the St. Martin's Cup in the annual invitation golf tournament of the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

In the Stearns-Wright match 46 first hole was halved in par four and Stearns won the second after Wright was trapped on his approach shot.

Wright got another 7 on the seventh, and Stearns was then four up. The eighth hole, down in the valley, was halved in five. Wright won after the match was all Stearns.

R. N. WILLIAMS GETS REVENGE FROM CHURCH

Harvard Star and National Champion, With Harte as Partner, Beats Princeton Pair in Straight Sets.

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 19.—George M. Church, present intercollegiate champion, and his partner, Kidder, in the final round of the championship doubles, met defeat at the hands of the sterling Harvard entries, Richard Norris Williams, 2d, and Dick Harte, here this afternoon.

Williams and Harte went through the second set in the same whirlwind style that captured the first for them. Church and Kidder showed good tennis, but the Harvard team played circles around them. Church was the malnasty of the Princeton team, and many of his almost superhuman strokes gave his team the two games that they captured. Score of the second set, 6-2.

At the start of the third set it seemed as though Church and Kidder, of Princeton, would capture this set, but when they had the champions at 4-3, on their own serve, the New Jersey team weakened, and Harvard evened it up. Then Williams and Harte then took two more games, making the score 5-4. Church took the next game on his own service, score 5 all, but the Harvard players were not to be deuced and captured the next two games, taking set and match. Score of the third set, 7-5.

NATIONAL GOLF TITLE GOES TO MRS. H. A. JACKSON

Oakley Country Club Representative Defeats Miss E. V. Rosenthal by 1 Up in Final Round of Glen Cove Event.

NASSAU COUNTRY CLUB, Glen Cove, L. I., Sept. 19.—Mrs. H. Arnold Jackson, of the Oakley Country Club, in the Boston district, won the women's golf championship of the United States today, when she defeated Miss Elaine V. Rosenthal, of Ravislone Country Club, Chicago, 1 up, in the deciding match over the links of the Nassau Country Club.
