

WAR RISK INSURANCE OBTAINABLE HERE BY WAY OF WASHINGTON

Collector of Port Berry Wires Applications to Treasury Department for Acceptances and Rates.

Collector of the Port Berry has been authorized by the Treasury Department to receive applications from steamship agents, owners and shippers for war risk insurance on cargoes in vessels flying the American flag.

Upon receipt of application for insurance, the collector will wire the name of the vessel, the cargo carried, the amount of insurance required, the destination and approximate sailing date to the Bureau in Washington.

The amount insured against war risk cannot, in any circumstances, exceed the amount insured against marine risks.

BOND SALESMEN REPORT A BETTER SECURITIES TRADE

After First Day on Street They Tell of General Desire of Small Traders to Get Into Market.

Bond salesmen who have been permitted to go on the street and canvass for new business are reporting to their houses a fairly brisk demand for both the listed and unlisted securities.

There has, in fact, developed such a fair demand in a small way, for various classes of securities, that talk is heard among the investment brokers of the committee supervising the sale of securities again lift the ban so that trading in larger volume may be permitted.

The committee, since their organization by the Stock Exchange and by bond houses dealing in unlisted securities, have fixed prices as of July 20 as the basis upon which transfers shall be based.

HOUNDS VIE FOR FAVOR AT BRYN MAWR SHOW

Addition of Canine Feature to Fashionable Exhibition Arouses Keen Interest. Society Out in Force.

Litho as the deer he runs to earth, tough as a white lion, as a spring oak and oak as the hibernian's flesh. Litho as the moor at the sculptor's skill, free as the wind reborn, as the best of his Majesty's crown today, his Majesty's crown.

Horses and hounds are vying with each other today at the 20th annual Bryn Mawr Horse Show on the polo grounds. The advent of canines into what has been for years an exclusively equine event, marks a new departure at Bryn Mawr and is being regarded with considerable interest by exhibitors.

The is the first time any show especially for box and beagle hounds has ever been attempted in this country. The Hound Show Committee included masters of all the leading hunting packs in the United States and Canada.

FINANCIAL TANGLE HALTS DEPARTURE FROM VERA CRUZ

France Lays Claim to a Portion of Customs Receipts to Satisfy Loan to the Huerta Government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Representations made by the French Government regarding customs collections made by General Funston at Vera Cruz, it was learned today, are postponing American evacuation of the Mexican port.

Part of the collections are claimed by French financiers as security for a loan to the Huerta government. That these claims should be satisfied by Funston out of Mexican funds he has collected, without being paid to a constitutional representative, is the contention of the French government.

Officials today disclaimed knowledge, and scoffed at reports of a Villa "uprising" in Sonora. All consular activities were stated, point to complete harmony between Villa and Carranza. It was pointed out that Villa personally telegraphed such assurances to President Wilson only a few days ago.

Reginald Vanderbilt, of New York, snapped as he acted as judge in heavy harness class.

REVOLT AGAINST VAN VALKENBERG AND FLINN SPREADS

Bossism in Washington Party Which Dictated Lewis' Withdrawal Swings Independents to Brumbaugh.

Opposition to the Flinn-Valkenburg "bossism" in the Washington party, and particularly to the arrangement whereby William Draper Lewis was prevailed upon to withdraw from the gubernatorial race in favor of Vanne C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate, continues to grow through the city and State.

The 25th Ward Washington Party Committee this city, meeting at 2825 Frankford avenue, last night denounced the withdrawal of Mr. Lewis, repudiated the Washington party and reorganized itself into the Progressive Republican League.

In Montgomery County C. Tyson Kratz, the only delegate to the Anti-saloon League Convention at Harrisburg last week, who openly opposed the endorsement of Mr. McCormick by the convention, is urging his political friends to revolt against the leadership of Flinn and Van Valkenburg.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 22.—Plans are being completed today for a monster reception to be tendered to General Villa when he enters the city on Thursday with 50 of his delegates, who will attend the convention that will choose a Provisional President.

DOYLESTOWN MAN KILLS OFFICER AS HE AWAITS TRAIN

Moving Picture Show Proprietor, Crazy by Western Dramas, Murders Officer About to Arrest Him.

A desire to emulate the adventures in moving pictures caused 18-year-old William Miller to shoot and kill Constable Henry Kolbe this morning in the presence of passengers at the Reading Railway station, Doylestown.

Miller, who is known as "Broncho Billy," on account of his ability to quickly draw a revolver, was arrested by Kolbe just as he was preparing to leave the town with a new suitcase.

The man who fired the shot in the proprietor of a moving picture theatre in Doylestown, but lately business has been very poor. This is due, the residents say, to the fact that Miller would offer nothing but Western dramas.

Miller then stepped away from the constable and drawing his revolver, "Broncho Billy" style, fired one shot through Kolbe's heart.

SISTER OF FIANCEE HE JILTED ACCUSES MAN OF $1200 THEFT

Rings and Prospective Bridegroom Disappear on Day of Wedding—Wife Here Proves His Undoing.

The commercial romance of Israel Diamond, of 19th and Mifflin streets, which started last January in New York, ended today at City Hall, where the man was identified by Dora Wolf as her sister Anna's fiance, and accused of stealing diamonds valued at $1200 from her father.

Miss Wolf stated that her sister met Diamond about a year ago, when he purported to be a single man. She stated, however, that Diamond is married. He said he was a rabbi and that previous to coming to New York he had lived in Houston, Tex. He was very attentive to Miss Anna Wolf, and they were soon engaged to be married.

When Miss Wolf arrived here this morning she went at once to visit Diamond in his cell and asked him to give her either the three rings or the pawn tickets for them. The prisoner had in his possession only one pawn ticket which he gave to Miss Wolf, saying that he had sold the other two. The ticket called for $10.

Because of the Shapiro robbery, a year ago, detectives have been searching for Diamond. They have kept a close watch on the mail received by Mrs. Diamond and yesterday when, with her little son, she set out for Newark, N. J., in response to a letter from that place, Detective Doyle followed her and made the arrest shortly after the pair met.

PARISIANS REJOICE AT REPORTED SAFETY OF RHEIMS TEMPLE

Restoration Possible, Though Bombardment Broke Windows and Ruined Decorations.

Widespread rejoicing was caused in Paris today by reports indicating that the famous cathedral at Rheims had escaped irreparable destruction under the German bombardment of the town and can be restored, though seriously damaged.

The magnificent windows are all smashed, according to officers who arrived from the front, and ruin has been spread in the interior by bursting shells, but the walls stand unbroken, though scarred in many places.

Among the superstitious hope of ultimate French victory in the war is increased by the fact that the status of Jean of Arc, which stands before the facade, escaped serious damage.

That there is an intention on the part of the German military experts to endeavor to raise the entire city of Rheims is believed here. It is claimed the General Staff now realizes the great strategic mistake made when the Germans withdrew from that city, and that they are willing to go to any length to retake it.

When informed of the destruction of the Cathedral of Rheims, Pope Benedict XV said he "could not believe it possible in such a civilized epoch as the 20th century to be plunged back to the time of Attila."

The Pontiff requested that Cardinal Ferrari ask Cardinal Amette, Archbishop of Paris, for full particulars, as telegrams for Rheims are not accepted.

A graphic description of the bombardment of the cathedral was given to a correspondent by Thomas Slidell, a New York lawyer, who said:

On Saturday shrapnel began to smite through the cathedral windows about noon, and four men, including three prisoners were killed. About 150 Germans were closely packed inside. They were wounded by their own shells.

When I left, the great rose window over the main entrance was not much damaged, but all the wonderful 13th century glass on both sides was ruined. The statue of the Virgin was broken in two, while that of Joan of Arc, just outside, still stood, though its pedestal was smashed. The noise of the exploding shells was like a thunderstorm.

SEGAL IN ASYLUM, HAS NO KNOWLEDGE OF HIS CONDITION

Taken to Norristown in Auto, He Made Plans to Continue His Business Activities—Creditors to Act.

Adolph Segal is now a private patient in the State Hospital for the Insane at Norristown. He was admitted to the institution at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon to spend the year, or less, that his physician says remains of his life.

Segal did not know that he was being taken to spend his last days in a haven for the insane. He has been feverishly anxious to get back to business, in his few, brief lucid intervals. He does not know that his physician has said he cannot live more than a year and may not live more than two months.

Segal slipped from the hospital by a rear door and climbed into the waiting automobile he thought he was being taken for a ride for no other reason than to benefit his health.

Dr. S. F. Miller, chief resident physician at the Norristown institution, said this morning that Mr. Segal had been admitted. The mental condition of the former financier he would not discuss. He declares that Mr. Segal is a private patient. The rules of the hospital forbid giving out information about such patients except to relatives or other entitled to know.

Unless his creditors take action, Segal will never leave the State Hospital alive. The Federal Court has the authority to subpoena him from the asylum in his bankruptcy proceedings, according to the attorney for the trustee, but it is not considered probable that such action will be taken if proof of Segal's insanity is adduced at the meeting of creditors to be held Thursday in the office of Joseph Mellors, the referee in bankruptcy.

Alraham S. Ashbridge, attorney for Mr. Segal, says he knows nothing of the mental condition of his client. He declares, however, that he intends to find out. He declined to discuss the affairs of Segal or to make any statement on the bankruptcy proceedings.

ROPE ARENA NOTES In one of the most severe bouts ever seen in this city, Frank Loughery, Philadelphia, and "Italian Joe" Gans, of New York, met at the deaky show of the Olympia last night. At no time during the entire eighteen minutes of fighting was there a dull moment, and the men fought head to head from bell to bell. There was absolutely no science in the bout, as both depended upon their strength and were trying for a knockout at all times. It would have been hard to have given a decision at the end of the round, but the referee, Billy Murray, called it a draw.

Mike Gibbons had another easy mark last night when he easily defeated Bill McKinnon in ten rounds at Warrington, Ky.

"Alie" Atwell, who will attempt to "come back" in a bout with Johnny Kilbane on October 15, is in the hospital in New York, and is confident he will win. The fighters will weigh in at 125 pounds at Riverside.

Billy Murray, the California middleweight who has been doing such good work, has been offered a six-round contract here, but has declined it. He is expected to travel with two new partners as Eddie McCarty and Jimmy Glabby to oppose him.

Eddie Grant, the popular sporting man, has equipped the "Perry" corner of Duane and Spring Garden streets and has a number of good boys working out there. Among them are "Buck" Cruise and "Jim" Perry, of Philadelphia; "Bobby" Kelly, "Joe" Phillips and "Bobby" Williams.

Yesterday Harry Edwards matched "Jack" Blackburn and "Tommy" Coleman to meet at his Olympia Club on October 5. The men are expected to weigh in at 125 pounds, middle, and each has posted $100 forfeit with the Sporting Exchange. The Evanson crowd will be a big one. This match has created a lot of interest and a banner crowd is predicted.

In his bout with Johnny Mayo at the Olympia last night, the "Perry" corner of Duane and Spring Garden streets and has a number of good boys working out there. Among them are "Buck" Cruise and "Jim" Perry, of Philadelphia; "Bobby" Kelly, "Joe" Phillips and "Bobby" Williams.

The Paris press editorially calls for the same conservation of art treasures if the Allies enter Germany.

TELLING THE TRUTH "Before I agree to undertake your defense," said the eminent criminal lawyer in America, "you will have to tell me the whole truth. Did you embezzle the $100,000 you are accused of having taken?" "Yes, sir," replied the accused man. "I'll not attempt to conceal the fact from you. I stole every cent of it."

"How much of it have you still?" "It's all gone but about a couple of dollars."

"Young man," said the eminent lawyer, buttoning his coat about him and putting on his gloves, "you'd better plead guilty and throw yourself on the mercy of the court."

"I'll do it if you say so, sir. What are you going to charge me for the advice?" "Two dollars"—Exchange.

PURE FRESH PAINT Believe Me

Your lighting problem isn't solely a matter of the source and kind of light. You should know how much light is absorbed or diffused by your walls and ceilings.

As an expert, Kuehnle can make the most of the light you have by painting or decorating a special color scheme—perhaps save you expensive fixtures. If you are in the dark on the lighting problem, see Kuehnle Painting and Decorating 28 South 16th St.

Perry & Co., "N. B. T." 16th & Chestnut Sts.

Real Estate Roofing Co. 2343-2349 Wallace St. Res-1-1007

Trousers A Specialty JONES 1116 Walnut Street

Gold Pendants We are showing a great variety of Ibsan graceful neck ornaments—new and artistic designs, set with Diamonds, Pearls, Amethysts, etc.—at a price range of $2.50 to $125.00 C. R. Smith & Son, Inc. Market Street at 18th

ABRAHAM TANDLER Death brought on by an attack of acute indigestion came to Abraham Tandler, a retired manufacturer, in his home at the Brantwood, after four days' illness. Mr. Tandler had been interested in the manufacture of knitted goods for many years. He had been a member of the Congregation Keneseth Israel. His widow survives.

ALLEGED 'COKE' VENDERS HELD Accused of selling cocaine throughout the tendorin district, Katie Lee and David Antoni, of 313 North Darlen street, were held today in $500 bail for a further hearing by Magistrate Belchard in the Tenth and Buttonwood police station this morning. The police have been aware for some time that "coke" was being obtained, but have been unable to locate the source of supply. Getting a tip that the Lee woman was peddling it for Antonio, they followed her to the room the pair occupy and found a quantity of the drug.

LAYING FOR HIM The landlord-well, the landlord was quite unpopular. There was a time when Irish landlords were. And Mike and Tim were waiting for him behind a hedge. It was evening and the long hours very slowly passed. "Mike," said Tim, when another hour had gone, "what time is it?" Mike struck a match and looked at his watch. "Eleven-thirty," he whispered. "Is it that?" replied Tim. "An' it's time he was here."

Another long wait followed. Then again Tim inquired the hour. "It's ten minutes to 12," Tim looked anxious. "Is it that?" he exclaimed. "He's late—his very late. I do hope nothing happened to him!"

CHILDREN AND PONIES. Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. MCLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Just before lunch the children with their ponies appeared in various classes. The advent upon the green of little folks who are always in high favor with spectators, occasioned a round of applause. The ponies were judged in harness, under saddle and jumping and in hand. Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters. One of these equine debutantes was watched with more than usual interest.

Among the ponies entered were Dainty, Angus and Aberdeen under saddle; and Billy, Edna and Fanny in harness. In the second class hunters and jumpers, the pick of Gwynedd, the Farm, at the head of the parade, were taken to a blue yesterday, was entered in the first class of jumpers today with Edward B. McLean's Sir Braxton, which also captured a ribbon. Next in line were two entered in Robert L. Gerry's Flatiron, entered in the same class. The first class of hunters and jumpers was confined to light weight green hunters and light weight hunters